Americans Flock To Polls In Every Section Of Nation

New Castle And Lawrence County Voters Out Early

Rush To Polls Began Early This Morning—Record Vote During Morning

MILITARY BALLOTS NOW TOTAL 2,504

At noon today New Castle and Lawrence County seemed to be taking its voting seriously. From a sample check taken of six wards of New Castle shortly before noon it appeared that about 35 per cent of the total registered vote had been cast, an amazing figure. If the check holds true throughout the city it means that in excess of 7,600 votes had been cast out of a total registration of 21,777.

Registered in the total of 21,777 are several thousand men and women in service who are voting or have voted on a military ballot and for this election are not to be considered in the total registration of the city. This would seem to indicate that about 42 per cent of the actual potential vote had been cast. If the proportion holds good throughout the county it meant at noon that about 15,000 citizens had voted, an unusual figure and also seemed to indicate that The News estimate of 30,000 or 31,000 total vote today would be somewhere in the neighborhood of 20,000.

Military Ballots Up
In the court house it was announced that 2,044 military ballots had been returned out of a total of 7,181 sent out. Here again is an amazing return and indicates more interest among service men than had been anticipated. Military ballots will be received until November 22 and the probabilities are the total received will approximate 3,000 or perhaps 3,300.

Perfect weather greeted the voters today. Clear and bright and a temperature of about 45. The early (Continued on Page Two)

Hard flying pheasants that break windshields of automobiles are not uncommon but a pheasant on Route 19 several days ago put a new angle on the trick. He made a billiard. The truck of the J. R. Frew Co. was going east towards Pittsburgh when a pheasant flew directly into the windshield. Instead of going on through the windshield as a piece of glass, the pheasant came off the windshield and landed on the hood of the truck of Dorris Fulkman coming towards New Castle. This time the bird struck, breaking the Fulkman windshield and cutting Mr. Fulkman about the face with flying glass.

News Will Issue Early Morning Election Extra

Indications are that adequate returns from the voting over the nation today will be later than usual, and determining the trend of the election, due to numerous changes made in voting time in some of the important states, will probably be later than in previous presidential elections.

It may be early morning before much of a definite nature on the outcome will be known. The News will present the latest returns available, locally and in the nation, in an election extra to be issued early Wednesday morning. Because of wartime shortage of newsprint the edition will of necessity be somewhat limited.

Carl Bell, foundry superintendent of the United Engineering and Foundry Company leaves tonight on the first leg of a trip to China as a member of the steel panel group to accompany Donald M. Nelson, former War Production Board head, it was announced today.

Mr. Bell will serve in an advisory capacity upon technical questions concerning foundry work. It is understood Mr. Nelson is returning to China for conferences with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek relative to China's participation in the war, aid from the United States and future activities in the China theatre. With him are going a number of industrial experts of many lines and Mr. Bell was honored by being selected as being the foundry representative on the steel panel.

He is a veteran in the foundry industry and has been with United Engineering and Foundry company for many years, coming to New Castle from Vandergriff, Pa. He installed the foundry in the New Castle plant, said to be the finest foundry in the world and since production started has been in charge as superintendent.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS Allied Expeditionary Force, Nov. 7.—The German grip on central Holland was broken today when British and Canadian troops put a virtual end to all enemy resistance south of the Maas (Meuse) river, but stubborn Nazi opposition still was encountered in the Huertgen forest of Germany itself.

The only resistance south of the Maas was at the town of Moerdijk. American troops reached the outskirts of this vital link controlling the approaches to Rotterdam and the Dutch coast, and Polish forces also were reported approaching the town.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced that a total of 43,000 German prisoners have been taken south of the Maas, most of them in the last two weeks.

Violent Fighting
American infantry and armored forces combatted violent German counterattacks in the Huertgen forest, a part of the western Reich today as a short-term battle developed for possession of key positions dominating the plains before Cologne.

Roosevelt May Leave Soon For New Conference
BY LEON PEARSON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Regardless of the outcome of the election, it is the official view of Washington today that President Roosevelt will soon leave for a meeting with Prime Minister Churchill and Marshal Stalin, somewhere in Europe. It is believed, however, that such a meeting of the big three, who last conferred at Tehran just a year ago, will not take place in Paris. Officials pointed out that Stalin would not go so far from home, since he must maintain constant communications with Moscow for personal direction of the war.

Also, the recent controversy between Gen. Charles de Gaulle and the French Communists makes it politically unsuitable for Stalin to go to Paris.

May Be In Balkans
A much more likely meeting place, it is suggested, would be in the Balkan area, perhaps in the capital of either of the late Axis satellites, Bulgaria or Romania.

This does not rule out, however, a visit of President Roosevelt to Paris. In fact, it is fully expected that he will accept the invitation which De Gaulle has extended for a meeting in Paris, where it is believed Churchill would come at the same time.

Fifty Million Voters Going To Polls In Nation

Heavy Vote Being Cast—Outcome Baffles Forecasters—Will Be Close

SERVICE VOTE MAY BE FINAL FACTOR

BY WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A near-record turnout of nearly fifty million voters was in prospect today as the American people, staging history's greatest feat of democracy, decided whether Franklin D. Roosevelt or Thomas E. Dewey shall lead them to victory in two wars and the peace to follow.

Huge Vote Is Seen
Early returns from the nation's greatest metropolitan centers—New York and Chicago—bore out earlier predictions of the biggest presidential vote ever cast by the American people. The weather was fair and cool in most sections although rain was predicted for some mid-western states.

In Chicago, an estimated 25 per cent of Cook County voters cast their ballots in the first hour while in New York, some 10 per cent of the 3,225,384 registered voters also had voted by 7 a. m. EWT.

As the balloting started, the outcome was shrouded in doubt beneath the silence of millions of voters who refused to reveal their choices to friends or neighbors. There has been no election since 1916 where political forecasters were so much at sea.

See Key States
Shrewdest observers believe the voters of New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Maryland will determine the election. All five states are classed as doubtful and claimed by both sides. They have 114 votes in the electoral college, where 266 are needed for (Continued on Page Five)

Pennsylvania Vote May Prove Deciding Factor

BY JOHN PAGET
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 7.—Pennsylvania was the "political hot spot" in the nation today as voters flocked to the polls to cast what may be the deciding votes in presidential balloting.

While Democratic leaders claimed the state for President Roosevelt for a third time, Republican chiefs were confident Gov. Thomas E. Dewey would turn the tide and capture the commonwealth's 35 electoral votes.

May Require Soldier Vote
So close was the balloting expected to be by some leaders that it may be necessary to wait until November 22 for the tabulation of more than 230,000 servicemen's votes to decide the winner. Approximately 650,000 military ballots were mailed.

Like the snow on a country meadow, or the pitter of feet in the hall, or the drum of rain on the roof tops, today voters' ballots fall. Gone is the heated oratory, gone is the radio voice, for today is the day for the common man when he and his wife make their choice. And however he votes is his business. Let him know by the dawn's early light, as to whether the Dewys or the GOP were the winners in this year's fight. But whoever wins let's remember the people have all had their say, and all of us work for America's good, it's bright forty-seven today.

Governor Dewey Votes In New York

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 7.—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey left for New York City today to join millions of his fellow citizens in deciding, by their votes, whether he or President Roosevelt will guide the destinies of the nation during the next four years.

The Republican nominee, who voted shortly after noon in a polling place at 108 East 48th street, New York City, closed his campaign last night with the assertion he would have refused the nomination for president had he not believed, "with all my heart and soul," that change in administration will "help to shorten the war and assure quicker return to our fighting men."

Governor Dewey, with Mrs. Dewey, cast his ballot in New York City and then retired to await the outcome of what many predict will be the closest presidential election in many years.

Meanwhile in Albany, the two Dewey boys, Thomas E. Jr., 12, and John Morton Dewey, 8, went to school as usual. They have been left in the care of Governor Dewey's mother, Mrs. George M. Dewey, who came here from Oswego, Mich., yesterday, and of his cousin, Miss Katherine Dewey, who is a teacher in the Harvard School of Engineering.

British Resident Minister In Middle East Assassinated

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Lord Moyne, British resident minister in the middle east who was assassinated yesterday, probably was murdered by Nazi agents, Lord Strangely declared today in an interview with the political writer for Reuters' news agency today.

At the same time Prime Minister Winston Churchill, in a statement in the House of Commons, said that a searching inquiry will be made into the "origin and association of these strangers to Egypt" who shot Lord Moyne in Cairo.

"We have as yet received no official information which fixes the authorship of the crime or gives us a clue to its motive," said the prime minister, who was dressed in mourning clothes in keeping with the unhappy occasion.

Governor Dewey Votes In New York

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 7.—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey left for New York City today to join millions of his fellow citizens in deciding, by their votes, whether he or President Roosevelt will guide the destinies of the nation during the next four years.

The Republican nominee, who voted shortly after noon in a polling place at 108 East 48th street, New York City, closed his campaign last night with the assertion he would have refused the nomination for president had he not believed, "with all my heart and soul," that change in administration will "help to shorten the war and assure quicker return to our fighting men."

Governor Dewey, with Mrs. Dewey, cast his ballot in New York City and then retired to await the outcome of what many predict will be the closest presidential election in many years.

Meanwhile in Albany, the two Dewey boys, Thomas E. Jr., 12, and John Morton Dewey, 8, went to school as usual. They have been left in the care of Governor Dewey's mother, Mrs. George M. Dewey, who came here from Oswego, Mich., yesterday, and of his cousin, Miss Katherine Dewey, who is a teacher in the Harvard School of Engineering.

Fifty Million Voters Going To Polls In Nation

Heavy Vote Being Cast—Outcome Baffles Forecasters—Will Be Close

SERVICE VOTE MAY BE FINAL FACTOR

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A near-record turnout of nearly fifty million voters was in prospect today as the American people, staging history's greatest feat of democracy, decided whether Franklin D. Roosevelt or Thomas E. Dewey shall lead them to victory in two wars and the peace to follow.

Huge Vote Is Seen
Early returns from the nation's greatest metropolitan centers—New York and Chicago—bore out earlier predictions of the biggest presidential vote ever cast by the American people. The weather was fair and cool in most sections although rain was predicted for some mid-western states.

In Chicago, an estimated 25 per cent of Cook County voters cast their ballots in the first hour while in New York, some 10 per cent of the 3,226,584 registered voters also had turned out by 7 a. m. EWT

As the balloting started, the outcome was shrouded in doubt beneath the silence of millions of voters who refused to reveal their choices to friends or neighbors. There has been no election since 1916 where political forecasters were so much at sea.

Red Cross Workers Go To Pittsburgh

Members Of Local Red Cross Chapter Attend District Administration Meeting

During the past week a number of New Castle people attended a district Red Cross chapter workers meeting held in Pittsburgh in the Pittsburgh room of the William Penn Hotel. The meetings reviewed chapter administration and the accomplishments of the Red Cross and what is ahead.

During the week those from here who attended included Miss Elizabeth Breslin, executive secretary, Mrs. J. Glenn Berry, Mrs. Keith McAfee, Mrs. William Cosel, Mrs. Thomas Kelly, Mrs. Robert Garland, Mrs. John McElwraith, Mrs. J. Plummer Gibson, Mrs. Charles Jaquith, Mrs. Russell Allen, Mrs. Earl Campbell, Mrs. W. J. Durant, Miss Helen Hurst, Mrs. Charles McGill, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Peterson, Mrs. Wanda Hughes, Mrs. Albert Patton, Mrs. William Chang, Mrs. Wayne McConnell, J. Glenn Berry, Dr. John A. Meahan, and Harry J. Cullford.

In the review of accomplishments of the Red Cross, a few figures give an idea of the size of the job the Red Cross is doing at home and in the battle areas: 8,000,000 men have received service from the Red Cross during the past two years; 7,000,000 pints of blood have been given through the Blood Donor Service; 5,990,000 prisoners of war packages have been sent; 50,000 nurses were recruited for the services; 26,000,000 garments have been made of which 21,000,000 have been shipped. One billion surgical dressings have been made by Red Cross workers. To accomplish all this, between four and five million people pledged their time.

Around the Red Cross has 658 clubs, 69 rest homes, 399 snack bars, 36 canteens.

Announcement was also made that there is an urgent need for 500 men field directors at the present time.

PARTY HEADS SEE VICTORY

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The chairmen of both major political parties today predicted victory for their own candidate in today's national election.

Said Herbert Brownell Jr., Republican national chairman: "We have made checks in crucial areas. Everything confirms my Sunday statement that we cannot concede a single state, outside the Solid South."

And Robert Hannegan, Democratic head: "President Roosevelt will do better at the polls than he did in 1940. Dewey will carry fewer states than did Wilkie."

of Budapest, occupying the town of Andrássy, less than five miles southeast of the city. The daily Russian communique, one of the most laconic yet issued in Moscow, did not mention the Budapest battle specifically. It simply stated: "During November 6, no substantial changes took place on the fronts."

Germany's high command implied heavy fighting was in progress south and southeast of the Hungarian capital. The Nazi communique heard in London stated: "renewed Russian attacks failed" in that area.

Russian Territory Cleared

The brevity of the Soviet war bulletin was interpreted as merely an expediency to center the limelight upon a special order of the day from Premier Stalin who announced that Russian territory has been cleared of the enemy.

Addressed to the Red Army and the people of Russia, Stalin's order stated the Soviet frontiers have been restored from the Black sea to the Barents sea.

Retelling Russian triumphs during the year, Stalin also disclosed that 790,000 Nazi troops were killed or captured during the summer offensive. 540,000 of them on the White Russian front.

Stalin paid tribute to the Allied victories on the western front, and concluded, "the war has now been transplanted to the territory of Fascist Germany. The days of Hitler's bloody regime are counted."

rounding counties may turn in such commanding pluralities for Mr. Roosevelt that the usual Republican majorities in so-called rural counties may not be sufficient to carry the state for Dewey.

Counter Claims

Republican strategy was aimed at "holding down" anticipated Democratic majorities in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia and piling up a smashing plurality for Dewey in other sections of the state. GOP claims that the hard coal fields would turn up in Dewey's column were denied by Democratic leaders.

While approximately 81 per cent of the electorate went to the polls four years ago, reports from the 67 counties indicated today's turnout would probably not exceed 75 per cent.

Latest unofficial estimates placed Republican registrations at approximately 2,670,000 while the Democrats were expected to have about 1,870,000 qualified electors.

Gunner's Mate Frank Zoltani Sees Much Action But Comes Through Unscathed

Frank Zoltani, gunner's mate 2-c, U. S. navy, is on seven days leave, visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Zoltani, 539 East Long avenue.

Frank has recently returned from service in the Pacific.

He has seen plenty of action, and has been in engagements in the Admiralty Islands, New Guinea, Saipan, Guam and Palau island. He is in the troop transport service, and men and ships have come through all the actions unscathed.

Gunner Zoltani missed the great Philippine sea battle, being on his way back to the United States at that time.

Frank enlisted in the service almost three years ago, he is now 21. He has been overseas in the Pacific for 13 months. He attended New Castle high school.

In Guam, he met Dale R. Lawson of the U. S. marines, whose family resides on Friendship street.

At the conclusion of his leave he will report back to San Francisco, Calif.

probably follow the meeting of the big three in eastern Europe. Both President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill, it is pointed out, would seek to avoid the impression that British and American plans are being laid in advance of a conference with Stalin.

Security Organization

When the three leaders meet, the principal item on their agenda will be the Dumbarton Oaks plan for an international security organization.

That plan failed to settle the controversial question of whether one of the big powers would have the right of veto in the security council if it was involved in aggression.

The Russian delegation at Dumbarton Oaks has stoutly insisted on this right of veto. The matter was left open, and Acting Secretary of State Stettinius has said it must await a personal conference of the three leaders.

In Stalin's Monday address he praised the Dumbarton Oaks plan, but acknowledged there were differences of view yet to be settled.

MUSTARD GAS SHIPPED

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The Swiss newspaper U. Dovere in Bellinzona today printed a dispatch from the Italian frontier saying the Germans "have confiscated containers of mustard gas shells from a Turin province arsenal and shipped them to an unannounced destination."

OWI reported the dispatch.

JAP SEA POWER SUFFERS ANOTHER LOSS AT MANILA

cruser, damaged; three destroyers damaged; one sub-chaser sunk, and several cargo ships damaged.

Many Jap Planes Lost

In addition, more than 100 enemy planes were destroyed on the ground and 51 shot down in combat by Third Fleet carrier pilots in a series of furious air battles over Luzon and at sea in the vicinity of Admiral Halsey's fleet.

The carrier planes, winging in from the sea, also hit Clark field, near Manila, where oil storage tanks, shops and hangars were given a terrific going over.

Eighty enemy planes rose to intercept the Americans, over the dome and of these, 58 were shot out of the sky.

Enemy air opposition became "less effective" during the rest of the day. However, an additional 25 Jap fighters were shot down over other targets. These included Balangas, Lipa, Legaspi and Lubang fields, where ground installations were "heavily damaged."

Only Light Opposition

No mention of any American losses was made in the communique.

Admiral Nimitz said that "only light opposition" was encountered over Manila, indicating that the attacking planes had to contend only with the defense fire of the ships they were bombing.

(Meanwhile, Tokyo radio declared that Jap planes, submarines and "suicide flyers" had sunk two more American carriers in Philippine waters, and added that other undersea units had sunk "several" tankers and transport off the Pacific coast of the United States.)

These claims were wholly without Allied confirmation.

YANKS BLASTING WAY FORWARD TO ORMOC VILLAGE

multi-pronged thrust of the Twenty-fourth, the Ninety-sixth and the Seventh Infantry divisions, supported by heavy artillery fire and scores of war planes.

"Our advance continues unchecked," Gen. Douglas MacArthur revealed in his morning communique.

Repulse Counter Attacks

He disclosed that spearheads of the Twenty-fourth sharply repulsed three night counter attacks by the desperate Japs and have advanced an additional four miles towards Ormoc in their drive south from captured Panopopan, the important road terminus at the northern end of the island.

Pushing on past the town of Limon, the Yanks are now less than 16 miles north of Ormoc. Their drive is taking them over a winding road through a mountain pass.

The advancing Twenty-fourth was being supported by a murderous fire of 155 millimeter shells from artillery units, now playing an important part in the campaign, to either annihilate or flush the enemy out of the Ormoc pocket.

Heavy Bombing Raids

At the same time, Yankee warbirds carried out heavy bombing raids against Jap airbases on neighboring Cebu and Negros islands, as well as ranging over all other islands in the Visayas group in a campaign to keep Jap planes out of the air.

MacArthur disclosed that these tactics have sharply reduced enemy air raids on American positions on Leyte.

Three times Sunday night the Japs attempted to halt the advancing doughboys with fierce counter attacks, but in each instance they were hurled back after likely skirmishes.

They were described by MacArthur as "piecemeal" attacks, all of which were "sharply repulsed."

morning vote for the most part was housewives, workers who are due at their jobs this afternoon and people who can vote at any time.

The early voting clears the polls for the rush of workers expected this afternoon between 4:30 and 8 o'clock. If the rush continues through the early hours of the day it will make it much easier for mill and factory workers to cast their ballots before closing time.

The polls close tonight at eight o'clock. When the count is completed, the election boards take their returns to the court house immediately where they are paid for their services.

GERMAN GRIP ON CENTRAL HOLLAND HAS BEEN BROKEN

gained most of the ground lost and at last word had retaken more than half of Vossehoek.

As the battling inside Germany proper mounted, the campaign against remnant German forces south and west of the Maas (Meuse) river in the Netherlands neared its end.

The Allied 21st Army Group, composed of British, Canadian, American and Polish troops, aligned themselves along an 80-mile front following the lower bank of the Maas from a point southwest of the Reichswald forest in Germany to either annihilate or flush the enemy out of the Vossehoek.

Mopping-up Stage

Fighting on the island of Walcheren in the Scheldt estuary entered the mopping-up stage and headquarters expected that the last pocket of Nazi resistance there would be stifled soon.

On Walcheren island the British and Canadians captured Middleburg, the capital, and Veper, sole remaining serious resistance was northeast of Domburg.

Eastward on the mainland the British Second Army neared the outskirts of Willemstad, last escape route of the Nazis across the Maas.

Headquarters reported that substantial gains were scored by the Sixth Army group in the last few days in the Baccarat area of France.

Rush Nazi Artillery

The Germans southeast of Aachen rushed up heavy concentrations of artillery in an effort to stem the onslaughts of the American First Army in the Hurtgen forest area.

Front dispatches said that heavy fighting developed in the entire area when the Germans reacted violently to the American advance. While one American force engaged the Nazis in the streets of Vossenack, now little more than ruins, another force battled to oust the enemy from the town of Schmidt to which the Germans were clinging doggedly.

German artillery blasts in the Hurtgen forest area were described as heavier than any the Americans had encountered in Europe since D-day.

In Holland, the Germans below the Maas were confined to two narrow pockets, in the vicinity of Moerdijk and Willemstad. The Germans blew up both road and railway bridges crossing the Maas at Moerdijk, leaving the remaining rear-guard forces cut off.

Troops of the British Second Army moved steadily westward toward the Willemstad pocket.

FAITH

ELECTION DAY

Some people may not think so, but this is one of the important if not the most important, day in the year. A lot of people treat Election Day very indifferently, even as a joke, but those are not the kind of people who have made, or will make America great. I am very much in favor of a law that would make it a penalty for any American citizen, entitled to vote, who is physically able, and does not do so, to be fined, or their right to vote taken away from them.

REGARDLESS OF YOUR POLITICS, VOTE BEFORE THE DAY IS OVER.

In the review of accomplishments in the Red Cross, a few figures give an idea of the size of the job the Red Cross is doing at home and in the battle areas: 8,000,000 men have received service from the Red Cross during the past two years; 7,000,000 pints of blood have been given through the Blood Donor Service; 5,390,000 prisoners of war packages have been sent; 50,000 nurses were recruited for the services; 26,000,000 garments have been made of which 21,000,000 have been shipped.

One billion surgical dressings have been made by Red Cross workers. To accomplish all this, between four and five million people pledged their time.

Around the Red Cross has 658 clubs, 69 rest homes, 399 snack bars, 39 cinemabars.

Announcement was also made that there is an urgent need for 500 men field directors at the present time.

PARTY HEADS SEE VICTORY

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The chairman of both major political parties today predicted victory for their own candidate in today's national election.

Said Herbert Brownell Jr., Republican national chairman:

"We have made reelections in crucial areas. Everything confirms my Sunday statement that we cannot concede a single state, outside the Solid South."

And Robert Hannegan, Democratic head:

"President Roosevelt will do better at the polls than he did in 1940. Dewey will carry fewer states than did Willkie."

of Budapest, occupying the town of Andrássy, less than five miles southeast of the city.

The daily Russian communiqué, one of the most laconic yet issued in Moscow, did not mention the Budapest battle specifically. It simply stated:

"During November 6, no substantial changes took place on the front."

"Germany's high command implied heavy fighting was in progress south and southeast of the Hungarian capital. The Nazi communiqué heard in London, stated, 'renewed Russian attacks failed' in that area."

Russian Territory Cleared

The brevity of the Soviet war bulletin was interpreted as merely an expediency to center the limelight upon a special order of the day from Premier Stalin who announced that Russian territory has been cleared of the enemy.

Addressed to the Red Army and the people of Russia, Stalin's order stated the Soviet frontiers have been restored from the Black sea to the Barents sea.

Reiterating Russian triumphs during the year, Stalin also disclosed that 790,000 Nazi troops were killed or captured during the summer offensive, 540,000 of them on the White Russian front.

Stalin paid tribute to the Allied victories on the western front and concluded, "the war has now been transferred to the territory of Fascist Germany. The days of Hitler's bloody regime are counted."

rounding counties may turn in such commanding pluralities for Mr. Roosevelt that the usual Republican majorities in so-called rural counties may not be sufficient to carry the state for Dewey.

Counter Claims

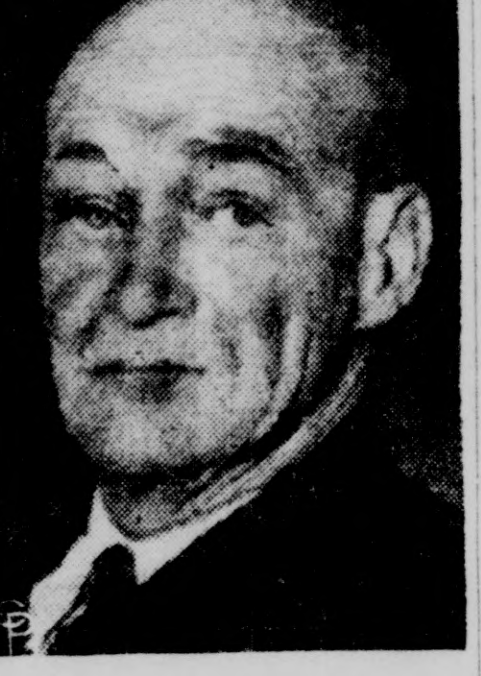

Republican strategy was aimed at "holding down" anticipated Democratic majorities in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia and piling up a smashing plurality for Dewey in other sections of the state. GOP claims that the hard coal fields would turn up in Dewey's column were denied by Democratic leaders.

While approximately 81 per cent of the electorate went to the polls four years ago, reports from the 67 counties indicated today's turnout would probably not exceed 75 per cent.

Latest unofficial estimates placed Republican registrations at approximately 2,670,000 while the Democrats were expected to have about 1,870,000 qualified electors.

Gunner's Mate Frank Zolteni Sees Much Action But Comes Through Unscathed

Frank Zolteni, gunner's mate 2-c, U. S. navy, is on seven days leave, visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Zolteni, 539 East Long avenue.

Frank has recently returned from service in the Pacific.

He has seen plenty of action, and has been in engagements in the Admiralty Islands, New Guinea, Saipan, Guam and Palau island. He is in the troop transport service, and men and ships have come through all the actions unscathed.

Gunner Zolteni missed the great Philippine sea battle, being on his way back to the United States at that time.

Frank enlisted in the service almost three years ago, he is now 21. He has been overseas in the Pacific for 13 months. He attended New Castle high school.

In Guam, he met Dale R. Lawson of the U. S. marines, whose family resides on Friendship street where he will report back to San Francisco, Calif.

probably follow the meeting of the big three in eastern Europe. Both President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill, it is pointed out, would seek to avoid the impression that British and American plans are being laid in advance of a conference with Stalin.

Security Organization

When the three leaders meet, the principal item on their agenda will be the Dumbarton Oaks plan for an international security organization.

That plan failed to settle the controversial question of whether one of the big powers would have the right of veto in the security council if it was involved in aggression.

The Russian delegation at Dumbarton Oaks has stoutly insisted on this right of veto. The matter was left open, and Acting Secretary of State Stettinius has said it must await a personal conference of the three leaders.

In Stalin's Monday address he praised the Dumbarton Oaks plan, but acknowledged there were differences of view yet to be settled.

Charles Emery Dennis

Charles Emery Dennis, Sr., aged 60 years, died this morning at 6:30 o'clock following a year's illness, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. L. Williams, 217 East Main street, Girard, O.

Mr. Dennis was born in Irondale, O., August 22, 1884, son of Arthur Wellington and Catherine M. Dennis. He lived practically all of his life in this city, until four years ago when he moved to Girard, O.

He was employed at the American Sheet & Tin Plate company for 40 years, retiring in 1939. For the past year he worked at the Lordstown Ordnance Depot.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Pearl Wilson Dennis, he leaves the following children: Mrs. Dorothy E. Williams, Girard, O.; Charles E. Dennis, Jr., Pittsburgh; Arthur W. Dennis, this city; two brothers, M. S. Dennis, Pittsburgh, and L. G. Dennis, this city; a sister, Mrs. William Allison, Niles, O., and two grandchildren of this city.

The body is at the Blackstone & Reese funeral parlor, Girard, O., where friends may call this evening. The body will arrive here at the Joseph B. Leide mortuary, Highland street, Winter, on Wednesday morning, where friends may call in the afternoon and evening.

Funeral services will be Thursday at 2 p. m. at the funeral home, Rev. Herman Patton of Girard, O., in charge.

Interment will be in Castle View burial park.

Alonzo Connerly

Alonzo (Jack) Connerly, aged 57 years, of 178 Vine street, Sharon, died this morning at 3:30 following a three weeks illness.

He was born June 29, 1887, in this city, son of John and Mary Henry Connerly. He lived in this city until 1924, when he moved to Sharon, Pa. Connerly was a member of the Sacred Heart church in Sharon. He was a crane operator at the National Malleable plant in Sharon. Mr. Connerly had been married for 30 years to Hazel Steen.

In addition to his wife, he leaves two sons, Jack of the paratroopers in England and Peter of the 2nd Infantry division, Australia; two daughters, Mary Etta and Hazel Jean at home; his mother, Mrs. Mary Connerly, this city.

High mass of requiem will be offered Friday morning at 9 o'clock in the Sacred Heart church and interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery, Sharon, Pa.

The body is at the McGrath funeral home, Sharon, where friends may call at any time.

Mrs. Cecelia A. Kenfield

Mrs. Cecelia A. Kenfield, aged 84 years, of 23 West Falls street, died in the New Castle hospital Monday evening at 10:25 o'clock.

She was born in Lancaster, England, April 12, 1860, daughter of Michael and Mary Walsh Mitchell. She came to this country at an early age.

The deceased was a member of St. Mary's church. She resided in Chicago for a number of years, but for the past 15 years had been residing in this locality and the Ellwood City district.

Her brother, Thomas of this city, survives. Two brothers and a sister have preceded her in death.

The body is at the Zehner funeral home where friends may call Wednesday and Thursday, 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 o'clock.

High mass of requiem will be in St. Mary's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock and interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mrs. Spurrier Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Lilla M. Spurrier, 619 North Cedar street, were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Madison Avenue Christian church, Rev. J. N. Rainey was in charge.

Mrs. Sara Clark was organist. Pallbearers were: John H. Watner, Paul E. Wagner, Clifford C. Shoup, Raymond E. Good, Jack W. Wilson, Edward M. Mitchell.

Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

Miss McMillin Funeral

Funeral services for Miss Jean McMillin, 301 Hazelcroft avenue, a member of a pioneer family of this city, were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the R. L. Boyd funeral home, North Jefferson street. Dr. S. E. Irvine, First U. P. church pastor, was in charge.

Pallbearers were: Everett Marshall, William McMillin, William McMillin, Jr., Capt. Robert McClurg, Howard Cox and Thomas H. Hartman.

Interment was in Graceland cemetery.

Mrs. Emery Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Olive Kelly Emery, 1123 Dewey avenue, were held Monday at 2:30 p. m. from the Cunningham funeral home, East Washington and Chestnut streets, Rev. Donald Woods in charge.

Two appropriate selections were sung by Mrs. Azzell and Mrs. Loy Hogue with Mrs. Donald Woods accompanying on the piano.

Pallbearers were: R. H. Yoho, A. J. Yoho, E. M. Yoho, H. T. Kelly, E. F. Knobloch, E. M. 3-c, and Thomas Shaffner.

Interment was in Oak Park cemetery.

MUSTARD GAS SHIPPED

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The Swiss newspaper II Dovere in Bellinzona today printed a dispatch from the Italian frontier saying the Germans "have confiscated containers of mustard gas shells from a Turin province arsenal and shipped them to an unannounced destination."

OWI reported the dispatch.

multi-pronged thrust of the Twenty-fourth, the Ninety-sixth and the Seventh Infantry divisions, supported by heavy artillery fire and scores of war planes.

"Our advance continues unchecked," Gen. Douglas MacArthur revealed in his morning communiqué.

Repulse Counter Attacks

He disclosed that spearheads of the Twenty-fourth sharply repulsed three night counter attacks by the desperate Japs and have advanced an additional four miles towards Ormoc in their drive south from captured Panamopan, the important road terminus at the northern end of the island.

Pushing on past the town of Lamon, the Yanks are now less than 16 miles north of Ormoc. Their drive is taking them over a winding road through a mountain pass.

The advancing Twenty-fourth was being supported by a murderous rain of 155 millimeter shells from artillery units, now playing an important part in the campaign to either annihilate or flush the enemy out of the Ormoc pocket.

Heavy Bombing Raids

At the same time, Yankee warbirds carried out heavy bombing raids against Jap airdromes on neighboring Cebu and Negros islands, as well as ranging over all other islands in the Visayas group in a campaign to keep Jap planes out of the air.

MacArthur disclosed that these tactics have sharply reduced enemy air raids on American positions on Leyte.

Three times Sunday night the Japs attempted to halt the advancing doughboys with fierce counter attacks, but in each instance they were hurled back after likely skirmishes.

They were described by MacArthur as "piecemeal" attacks, all of which were "sharply repulsed."

cruiser damaged; three destroyers damaged; one sub chaser sunk, and several cargo ships damaged.

Many Jap Planes Lost

In addition, more than 100 enemy planes were destroyed on the ground and 51 shot down in combat by Third Fleet carrier pilots in a series of furious air battles over Luzon and at sea in the vicinity of Admiral Halsey's fleet.

The carrier planes, winging in from the sea, also hit Clark Field, near Manila, where oil storage tanks, shops and hangars were given a terrific going over.

Eighty enemy planes rose to intercept the Americans over the drone, and of these, 58 were shot out of the sky.

Enemy air opposition became "less effective" during the rest of the day. However, an additional 25 Jap fighters were shot down over other targets. These included Batangas, Lipa, Legaspi and Lubang fields, where ground installations were "heavily damaged."

Only Light Opposition

No mention of any American losses was made in the communiqué.

Admiral Nimitz said that "only light opposition" was encountered over Manila, indicating that the attacking planes had to contend only with the defense fire of the ships they were bombing.

(Meanwhile, Tokyo radio declared that Jap planes, submarines and "suicide flyers" had sunk two more American carriers in Philippine waters, and added that other undersea units had sunk "several" tankers and transport off the Pacific coast of the United States.)

These claims were wholly without Allied confirmation.

morning vote for the most part was housewives, workers who are due at their jobs this afternoon and people who can vote at any time.

The early voting clears the polls for the rush of workers expected this afternoon between 4:30 and 8 o'clock. If the rush continues through the early hours of the day it will make it much easier for mill and factory workers to cast their ballots before closing time.

The polls close tonight at eight o'clock. When the count is completed, the election boards take their returns to the court house immediately where they are paid for their services.

The Allied 21st Army Group, composed of British, Canadian, American and Polish troops, aligned themselves along an 80-mile front following the lower bank of the Maas from a point southwest of the Reichswald forest in Germany westward to the beaches of Holland.

Mopping-up Stage

Fighting on the island of Walcheren in the Scheldt estuary entered the mopping-up stage and headquarters expected that the last pocket of Nazi resistance there would be stifled soon.

On Walcheren Island the British and Canadians captured Middleburg, the capital, and Veere, sole remaining serious resistance was northeast of Domburg.

Eastward on the mainland the British Second Army neared the outskirts of Willemstad, last escape route of the Nazis across the Maas from the southwest Netherlands.

Headquarters reported that substantial gains were scored by the Sixth Army group in the last few days in the Baccarat area of France.

Rush Nazi Artillery

The Germans southeast of Aachen rushed up heavy concentrations of artillery in an effort to stem the onslaughts of the American First Army in the Hurtgen forest area.

Front dispatches said that heavy fighting developed in the entire area when the Germans reacted violently to the American advance.

While one American force engaged the Nazis in the streets of Vossenberg, now little more than ruins, another force battled to cut the enemy from the town of Schmidt to which the Germans were clinging doggedly.

German artillery blasts in the

Hurtgen forest area were described as heavier than any the Americans had encountered in Europe since D-day.

In Holland, the Germans below the Maas were confined to two narrow pockets, in the vicinity of Moerdijk and Willemstad. The Germans blew up both road and railway bridges crossing the Maas at Moerdijk, leaving the remaining rear-guard forces cut off.

Troops of the British Second Army moved steadily westward toward the Willemstad pocket.

In Memoriam

FAITH

ELECTION DAY

Some people may not think so, but this is one of the important if not the most important, day in the year. A lot of people treat Election Day very indifferently, even as a joke, but those are not the kind of people, who have made, or will make America great. I am very much in favor of a law that would make it a penalty for any American citizen, entitled to vote, who is physically able, and does not do so, to be fined, or their right to vote taken away from them.

HAWK FURLONG MARRIAGE TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hawk, 1214 Randolph street, announce the marriage of their daughter Marian Lorraine to Cpl. Lyle Norman Furlong, son of Otha Furlong of this city.

The ceremony was solemnized in the Central Christian church on the afternoon of November 5 at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. James Rainey, pastor, officiated in the presence of a few close friends of the couple.

Attendees were Mrs. Betty Ruby, sister of the bride, and Pvt. Dale A. Furlong of the U. S. Army air corps, Selma, O., brother of the bridegroom.

Preceding the exchange of vows a luncheon was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hawk. Later Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Shirey, Butler road, were hosts at their residence and served the wedding dinner.

The bride is a graduate of New Castle High, June class of 1944. The bridegroom received his wings as a paratrooper October 21, and is now stationed at Camp Mackall, N. C.

B. B. B. Class

B. B. B. class met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Ralph Snyder, 218 Edgewood avenue. Bettie Bintrini and Ruth Lutz led devotions.

The class decided to meet on the first Thursday of each month. At the close of the evening a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Snyder, assisted by her daughter, Shirley.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Bettie Bintrini, Walnut street, with Mildred Hay as co-hostess.

Theta-Rho Girls

Theta-Rho Girls will meet in regular session Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. hall. Preceding, however, a dinner will be served at 6:30 to Rebekahs and friends.

WOMAN'S CLUB TELL PLANS; HEAR SPEAKER

Deshon Hospital, Deshon Annex and the welfare program of Woman's club will benefit from a gala occasion being planned and sponsored by Woman's club for Thursday evening, November 30, in the Cathedral.

Popular games of bridge, 500 and bingo will be featured entertainment, together with the added pleasure of meeting one's friends amid a delightful social atmosphere. Chalk off this important date on your already well-filled calendar for Greater New Castle will be there.

Announcement of the project and other pertinent details were revealed to the club at Monday afternoon's meeting in Highland U. P. church. The assembly was unusually large, being attracted by a talk on "Evaluating War Time Fabrics" by Dr. Jules Labarthe, Jr., Senior Industrial Fellow of Mellon Institute of Research.

Introduced by Mrs. Glenn R. Throop, program chairman, the speaker described his work at the Institute and as a consultant to the Office of Quartermaster General, U. S. Army. He gave the women valuable suggestions relating to selection of war-time fabrics.

A great many of the "successors" of substitute materials developed to meet war-time shortages are so satisfactory that they will find their place in our postwar merchandise, he said.

"High strength rayon, now used exclusively for Army ties and parachutes will be used later for service weight hosiery, and will prove much more popular than types now on the market. Temporary crimps in our economy may be expected until after the war, but there is a bright outlook for the future."

Following Dr. Labarthe's interesting and informative talk, Roger Jewett, executive vice president of Greater New Castle Association, was introduced by the club president, Mrs. Alvah M. Schumaker. He outlined the purpose and past achievements of the organization and sketched an optimistic picture of the outlook for New Castle in the postwar period.

Mrs. W. J. Caldwell, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Welsh at the piano, led the club in singing "America the Beautiful" as an opening feature of the meeting.

A plea by Mrs. Schumaker that members exercise their sovereign privilege at the polls today was made in conclusion.

EMERGENCY CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY

Club members will meet Wednesday afternoon in their social rooms at the New Castle hospital at 2:30 o'clock.

Garments and linen articles for use in the institution will be completed at this time, with Mrs. Mae Donegan and Mrs. Anna Eagan, co-hostesses.

JUNIOR READING CIRCLE DATE NOV. 14

Because election falls on their regular meeting night, members of Junior Reading Circle will meet the following week on November 14 at the home of Miss Edith Cleaveland on Highland avenue.

Miss Martha Dadds will review the late books for the members to purchase for their club library. John Barnes of the Camera club will be the main speaker of the evening and will show kodachrome slides.

Co-hostesses with Miss Cleaveland are Mrs. Jack Dunlap, Mrs. Scott Lowery and Mrs. Raymond Webb.

SANDMAN HOME SCENE OF PARTY

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Sandman, 528 Bell avenue, was the scene of a most enjoyable event Saturday evening, when the latter, together with Mr. and Mrs. John Hitch, planned a party in honor of the former commemorating his birthday anniversary.

Guest of honor "Bill" Sandman was taken by complete surprise upon arriving home in the evening to find a host of 60 guests to greet him awaiting his arrival.

Tables of 500 and other games provided pastimes for many, prizes going to John Bodendoerfer, Pearl Bodendoerfer, Mrs. Zola Dick, Freda Hitch and Mrs. Margaret Brunton. A sense of humor was tied in with the trophies awarded throughout the evening.

A delicious lunch was served from a specially appointed table. The assemblage sang in unison the birthday song at this time. Mrs. Sandman was aided by Mrs. Becky Hitch, Mrs. Mary Catherine Schaner and Mrs. Viola Bailey.

Climaxing festivities Mr. Sandman opened a collection of packages placed before him, revealing many gifts.

Present from out of town were Miss Alice Sandman of Pittsburgh, sister of the honored guest, and Claude Davis of Syracuse, N. Y., brother of Mrs. Sandman.

ATTEND CLEVELAND RAINBOW MEETING

Miss Marjorie Allen, grand worthy advisor, and Miss Betty Cope, grand lecturer of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls, have returned from Cleveland, O., where they attended a special Grand Cross of Color exemplification on Saturday evening in the Masonic Temple in Cleveland. The meeting was attended by many representatives of Ohio assemblies and a large class received this honorary degree of the order.

Eight O. E. Club

Mrs. Dan Natale entertained the Eight O. E. club at a theater party Monday evening.

Afterwards the group gathered in a local tearoom, where a dainty lunch was enjoyed.

Mrs. Nick Dattoria captured the club token. November 23 is the meeting with Mrs. Anthony Scopio, Division street.

LEGION AUXILIARY PROGRAM OUTLINED

American Legion Auxiliary, Post 343, met in the Legion Home Monday night with Mrs. Daugherty presiding.

Conference sessions recently held were reviewed by Mrs. Frances Pinkerton and Mrs. Elizabeth Miller. The Poppy Day proceeds were reported by Mrs. James Cooper.

Plans for Armistice Day, November 11, observance was outlined, in which the membership will assist with activities at Legion Home. "Open House" will be observed for all who participate in the celebration. Mrs. Steve McBride, Mrs. Lee Hanna and Mrs. Marvin Dinsmore are the appointed hostesses. Serving will be headed by Mrs. William Brooks and Mrs. Al. Wilkins. Visiting bands and others in the parade will be served at the Legion bingo headquarters on Washneck avenue on this date, by Mrs. W. Snyder.

Hostesses at the Cathedral for the military ball in the evening composed of Mrs. Frank Connors, Mrs. James Cooper and Mrs. Frances Pinkerton.

A Thanksgiving service is being planned for the Almira Home guests, with Mrs. Speed, chairman of arrangements.

Drill work in charge of the color bearers and headed by Mrs. Ida M. Suber was an impressive highlight of last evening's meeting.

Science says: Thousands can recapture youth of face and throat

Seven years ago, eminent scientists gave the world ENDOCREME, an epoch-making contribution to the beauty of the feminine face and throat. Today, ENDOCREME is aiding thousands between 22 and 70 to regain the charm of a youthful skin to a degree hitherto thought impossible. This it does by helping to improve the skin itself, not merely its superficial appearance. ENDOCREME, you know, is the only face cream that contains ACTIVOL. This precious ACTIVOL is the laboratory counterpart of a natural skin-vitalizing substance. When you apply ENDOCREME, it is absorbed beneath the skin's surface to rebuild cells and tissues. It thus functions to aid the skin to recapture its youthful freshness, firmness, smoothness and allure. What bigger value can one get for her cosmetic dollars than this? You, too, should try ENDOCREME. Many report truly astonishing results in only 30 days.

HAWK-FURLONG MARRIAGE TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hawk, 1214 Randolph street, announce the marriage of their daughter Marian Lorraine to Cpl. Lyle Norman Furlong, son of Otha Furlong of this city.

The ceremony was solemnized in the Central Christian church on the afternoon of November 5 at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. James Rainey, pastor, officiated, in the presence of a few close friends of the couple.

Attendants were Mrs. Betty Ruby, sister of the bride, and Pvt. Dale A. Furlong of the U. S. army air corps, Selina, O., brother of the bridegroom.

Proceeding the exchange of vows a luncheon was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hawk. Later Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Shirey, Butler road, were hosts at their residence and served the wedding dinner.

The bride is a graduate of New Castle High, June class of 1944. The bridegroom received his wings as a paratrooper October 21, and is now stationed at Camp Mackall, N. C.

B. B. B. Class

B. B. B. class met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Ralph Snyder, 218 Edgewood avenue. Betty Bintrun and Ruth Lutz led devotions.

The class decided to meet on the first Thursday of each month. At the close of the evening a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Snyder, assisted by her daughter, Shirley.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Betty Bintrun, Walnut street, with Mildred Hay as co-hostess.

Theta-Rho Girls

Theta-Rho Girls will meet in regular session Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. hall. Preceding, however, a dinner will be served at 6:30 to Rebekahs and friends.

WOMAN'S CLUB TELL PLANS; HEAR SPEAKER

Deshon Hospital, Deshon Annex and the welfare program of Woman's club will benefit from a gala occasion being planned and sponsored by Woman's club for Thursday evening, November 30, in the Cathedral.

Popular games of bridge, 500 and bingo will be featured entertainment, together with the added pleasure of meeting one's friends amid a delightful social atmosphere.

Chalk off this important date on your already well filled calendar for Greater New Castle will be there.

Announcement of the project and other pertinent details were revealed to the club at Monday afternoon's meeting in Highland U. P. church. The assembly was unusually large, being attracted by a talk on "Evaluating War Time Fabrics" by Dr. Jules Labarthe Jr., Senior Industrial Fellow of Mellon Institute of Research.

Introduced by Mrs. Glenn R. Throop, program chairman, the speaker described his work at the institute and as a consultant to the Office of Quartermaster General, U. S. Army. He gave the women valuable suggestions relating to selection of war-time fabrics.

Great many of the "successor" or substitute materials developed to meet war-time shortages are so satisfactory that they will find their place in our postwar merchandise," he said.

"High strength rayon, now used exclusively for Army ties and parachutes will be used later for service weight hosiery, and will prove much more popular than types now on the market. Temporary crimps in our economy may be expected until after the war, but there is a bright outlook for the future."

Following Dr. Labarthe's interesting and informative talk, Roger Jewett, executive vice president of Greater New Castle Association, was introduced by the club president, Mrs. Alvah M. Schumaker. He outlined the purpose and past achievements of the organization and sketched an optimistic picture of the outlook for New Castle in the postwar period.

Mrs. W. J. Caldwell, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Welsh at the piano, led the club in singing "America the Beautiful" as an opening feature of the meeting.

A plea by Mrs. Schumaker that members exercise their sovereign privilege at the polls today was made in conclusion.

EMERGENCY CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY

club members will meet Wednesday afternoon in their social rooms at the New Castle hospital at 2:30 o'clock.

Garments and linen articles for use in the institution will be completed at this time, with Mrs. Mae Donegan and Mrs. Anna Eagan, co-hostesses.

JUNIOR READING CIRCLE DATE NOV. 14

The Quislings' Welcome

One of the key points in Hitler's plan to conquer, or Germanize, the world was the use of the "fifth column." His book, Mein Kampf, has several references to the use of traitors and the record of the last 10 years is enough to prove how well he succeeded.

From this boring-from-within stratagem has come a new word into the language—quisling, meaning traitor, for Vidkun Quisling, the Norwegian scoundrel who sold out his countrymen for a brief hour of "glory" as a Nazi overlord.

There have been many others—Laval, Mussert, Degrelle, Pavlovich, Caruso. As the Allied tide has swept over Europe, liberating the conquered countries, Germany has had an influx of these galeiters, now fleeing the wrath of their own countrymen.

But their reward is hardly the plaudits of the Nazis. One German newspaper addressed an editorial to Dutch traitors, saying: "Perhaps you expected to be received with open arms and lodged in commodious buildings surrounded by every comfort." Nothing of the kind was in sight. They were bluntly told, "It can not be expected," said the newspaper curtly, "that fugitives from Holland will be accommodated in a way that can stand comparison with their previous condition."

In short, the Germans have no use for these miserable turncoats now that defeat has come. No longer are they of any value. Forgotten now is Adolf Hitler's "gratification" with their great contribution to Germanic "culture."

They have come to the inevitable ending of the road for every traitor. Their countrymen wait in stony silence for the day of retribution when they can be tried for their crimes. And their German masters treat them as so many useless slaves. They are beginning to get their just dues.

Jap Populace

Americans are disinclined to give much credence to the conception that public opinion in Japan is to be reckoned with by the warlords. Subordinate socially and subject to the superstition that the Mikado is the sun of heaven and that criticism of him and his policies is not only treason but sacrilege, Japanese commoners, their interests and emotions can play only a minor role in governmental affairs.

But that it cannot be wholly negligible had confirmation recently in a speech made by Premier General Kuniaki Koiso at a people's rally in Tokyo. The meeting was sponsored by the Imperial Rule Assistance Association, Japan's totalitarian party, of which General Koiso is the titular leader.

Koiso's concern about public opinion, however fragile, is proof that what people think is regarded as a possible source of danger to the ruling class. Koiso's emphasis in his address upon assurance that Japan will win the war is a confession in top Tokyo circles that Japan is losing, and the warlords must bolster the courage of the multitude against the day when there will be no alternative to admission of defeat.

New Task For Americans

Eric A. Johnston, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, obviously is disgusted with American businessmen who harbor no hope for the future. "Sure, we are going to have a lot of problems, such as reconversion and the staggering national debt," he said, "but I can't understand it when I see American businessmen going around with drooping mouths and tears in their eyes, saying we can't defeat them. If we can't solve our problems in this country after the war, no other nations in the world can solve theirs and we'll all go down to Davy Jones' locker together."

Mr. Johnston fears that the peoples of many countries in Europe, including England and France, may be so confused and uncertain after the war that they will be in a mood to toss their problems upon government and relinquish all economic freedom to a superstate that is the very antithesis of the American republican concept.

The burden of responsibility for keeping government free of the taint of any totalitarian domination may fall upon the United States, he said, adding: "Constant reliance upon government may allow a sick economy to totter around, but the grueling race to personal freedom is never won by running on the wooden legs of any superstate."

He warned that the United States may have to provide the leadership to counteract a worldwide trend toward collectivism and government control and domination after the war.

Now, it is obvious that the leadership requisite for that task is not going to come from the pessimistic businessmen who view even the domestic problems ahead as insurmountable. It will have to be sought among those who have faith in the future and dare to express their confidence in word and deed.

Signposts Of Survival

The British people know they are well on their way to Allied victory, with the whole pattern of the earlier years of war—a one-time nightmare for Great Britain—now inverted to foreshadow the inevitable doom of Nazi Germany. A significant indication of this changed situation in Britain is Home Secretary Herbert Morrison's revocation of his order of 1940 which had caused all place-names on signposts, railway stations, buildings and tradesmen's vans to disappear almost overnight in expectation of invasion.

The air battle of Britain had then reached its peak, with the Luftwaffe's hordes hurling themselves against a numerically inferior RAF in unrelenting attacks. Britain's traditional island security had become a thing of the past. Two per cent of the country's real estate holdings had been destroyed, and British civilian casualties were mounting at an alarming rate. The danger of the enemy in their midst was a watchword with the British population, and no precaution could be left untaken to secure Britain's chances of survival even at home.

But now all this is changed, with the Nazi Reich on the receiving end for due retribution and Hitler's earlier conceptions of invading England, whether by way of Ireland or combined air and channel attack, a thoroughly dissipated dream. The British realize that the Germans now must struggle for survival on their home territory, with the advent of Allied onslaught incomparably more devastating than the diminishing ordeal of robot warfare.

So Britain for the most part is breathing freely again. The darkness is passing and the highways and byways no longer hold the menace of a foreign enemy moving to destruction. This is in historic contrast to the situation in Germany where not more than two persons are permitted to foregather in the open. Day has dawned again for Britain, and long night is descending on the Nazi Reich.

Germany's East Prussian estate has been captured intact by the Russians. Covering an area 15 by 17 miles, it indicates the reichsmarshal has been doing quite well by himself.

Believe Campaign Has Delayed War

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Everyone will breathe a sigh of relief now that the presidential campaign of 1944 is ended. The doubts and fears it engendered will, unfortunately, survive long after the careless oratory has been forgotten.

For millions of Americans the choice has been a painful one. The fourth term is in itself repugnant, contrary to venerable tradition. Yet in many minds and hearts was the fear that the war might be prolonged by a change.

Then, too, so much of Governor Dewey's campaign seemed to be on the negative side. He began in his West Coast speeches with a constructive program—generalized, but nevertheless on the constructive side. After Oklahoma City, however, which was a reply to the President's speech to the teamsters' union, an anger that often seemed mere petulance was the dominant note.

Under strain That was the tone of his wind-up in Madison Square Garden on Saturday night. Before a Republican crowd that roared loudest at his bitterest cracks at the administration, Dewey seemed to be under a strain. He had put himself through a grueling ordeal, and this was the end.

Sometimes, as in his Madison Square Garden finale, it seems to me he defeated his purpose by overstatement. Speaking of the One Thousand Club, which is certainly a crude money-raising scheme, with most unpleasant implications, Dewey said: "Never in our history has corruption been so brazen." That is foolish. It overlooks such vast public swindles as Teapot Dome, for example.

Many of the charges the Republican candidate brought against the President were justifiable. They would have been more telling, it seems to me, if they had been set in a larger and more moderate frame. If Dewey had spoken more in sorrow than in anger—and, often vindictive anger—I think the weight of these charges would have told more heavily against the fourth term candidate.

The outstanding fact is that the campaign cut directly across the task to which this nation is dedicated—the winning of the war. That made Dewey's position doubly difficult. Historians with the advantage of a long backward look will see that handicap in its true perspective.

Decisions Delayed. The historian may be able to see whether it delayed the conclusion of the war. Certainly it has not advanced the preparation for the partial reconversion to follow VE-Day. Important decisions on reconversion have been delayed. Congress has been absent from Washington for many weeks. Doubt and uncertainty have hung like a cloud over the Capitol.

This raises a serious question as to the wisdom of our system, which under the Constitution requires that an election be held every four years, regardless of circumstances. I have heard plain-speaking Americans in every part of the country raise this question. Twice we've seen how a bitterly partisan campaign has divided the country in the face of an external crisis.

It's all very well to boast that our democracy is so strong that we can afford to have a backyard fight in the middle of a major war. Maybe we can, but let's not deceive ourselves. The cost—in terms of national unity, the battle wounds coming out of the fight just ended, will be long in healing.

I talked with a man in the Middle West who certainly had not had more than a high school education. He was thinking out loud about this problem. Why not, he said, have a Constitutional amendment limiting the term of the President to two years, but also providing that if the nation is involved in a major war, the election shall be postponed until peace has been established.

There is common sense in that. I believe most Americans favor a limitation on the term of office. Many who will vote for Roosevelt are of that opinion. But they recognize the dangers of a system which is inflexible.

Whatever happens today, as millions of Americans go to the polls—it may be more than 50,000,000, a new record—this is something to consider in the future. Our system of government is not perfect. The great men who framed it were strong in the faith that others would come after them with the courage and the creativity to adapt that system to change.

REQUIREMENTS OF JUDGES

One state requires that a judge "believe in God." Four states specify that he must be "of good character," and all but nine states require that he be "learned in the law." Twenty-five of these states indicate also that a judge must have actual legal experience or have been admitted to the bar.

Convenience is what the telephone used to be.

At a convention the delegate at large is the man who has come without his wife.

CORRECTING CHILD'S ENGLISH

"Every time I correct my child's mispronunciation or poor English, my mother insists that I not burden her mind with too many intricate details." She thinks that as my daughter develops, she will naturally grasp these things. Do you think she is right?—Mother.

Answer: I think you are right in correcting your child's mistakes, as well as giving her the advantages of your adult vocabulary. The things we learn during our childhood are indelibly impressed upon our memory throughout life and become as natural to us as our daily habits.

And so it is a shame that more of us have not had the advantage of brilliant parents from whom we could naturally grasp culture and perfection of English instead of struggling so hard for it often with little return for our efforts. Your child will be grateful to you, in later life, for whatever learning she shall have derived from you. Many a self-made man has had to suffer great embarrassment because during his childhood he was not taught the rules of grammar and the necessity for accumulating a substantial vocabulary.

See to it that your child learns to speak correctly from the start. It will be as natural to her as breathing. Do not persist in talking to her in childish or babyish terms, even while she is very young. Give her the advantage of your own vocabulary.

Use your three and four syllable words freely in your conversation. In this way, she will become familiar with words which, when mature, she will be only too pleased to have included in her vocabulary.

Question: I am to be married shortly. Please give me an example of a thank-you note for gifts that I shall receive.

Answer: The following is a sample of the kind of note that you might write:

Dear Mrs. Smith: Bill and I are eternally grateful to you and Mr. Smith for your generosity and exquisite taste in sending us that beautiful vase. I can hardly wait to see its effect in a special corner of my living room, which I know will be perfect.

You both must come and see it in its proper setting as soon as we are settled in our new home.

The Parent Problem

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph. D.

INTEREST IN ARTS IMPORTANT

With the inevitable emphasis in these days on technical knowledge and skills, we wonder what is happening to the interest of technical persons in poetry, art and high quality music. As any technician knows he has a strong temptation to neglect these less tangible and emotionally appealing sides of human culture.

Young men and women in high school, college, and professional schools now, and veterans returning to resume their formal education, might well consider this matter. So also might parents of young children.

Amongst are some statements by the great scientist Charles Darwin which he made in his Life and Letters.

Darwin's Opinion

"Up to the age of 30, or beyond it, poetry of many kinds such as the works of Milton, Gray, Byron, Wordsworth, Coleridge and Shelley gave me great pleasure, and even as a schoolboy I took intense delight in Shakespeare, especially in the historical plays. I have also said that formerly pictures gave me considerable, and much very much delight. But now for many years I cannot endure to read a line of poetry. I have tried lately to read Shakespeare, and found it so intolerably dull that it nauseated me. I have almost lost my taste for pictures and music. Music generally sets me thinking too energetically on what I have been at work on, instead of giving me pleasure. My mind seems to have become a kind of machine for grinding general laws out of large collections of facts."

"And if I had my life to live over again, I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once every week; for perhaps the parts of my brain now atrophied would have been kept active through use. The loss of these traits is a loss of happiness, and may possibly be injurious to the intellect, and more probably to the moral character, by enfeebling the emotional part of our nature."

Needs of Art

You and I know some persons of high scientific and technical achievements who have kept alive their interest and enjoyment of the fine arts all their lives, and have done about as Darwin said he wished he had done.

Vise parents today are exposing their children to good music, art and literature, being enthusiastic themselves. Beginning with the baby they are exposing him to the best. They are reading to him, not neglecting poetry and some of the choicest prose (as found for example in the Bible). They are exposing him to the best in music from recordings and other sources; also to the beautiful in the graphic arts.

Many teachers also are in a similar fashion cultivating in the young child at school appreciation of the beautiful. Also some music teachers in the junior and senior high school are cultivating strong skills and appreciation of high-grade music.

We parents need to make sure the school will not neglect the fine arts, but in spite of the pressure for the immediately practical, will emphasize art and music. We need to make sure the special teachers and supervisors in these subjects shall be retained.

When I hear loud discussions of American and German treatment of prisoners of war, I wonder what war is about anyhow.

According to recently published records of the war department, both the United States and Germany take fastidious good care of war prisoners. Both countries struggle to protect the health of their prisoners. They go to the most infinite pains to notify the government of each country of the government of the prisoners named down to the last initial. Sick or wounded United States prisoners in Germany are treated by German specialists. German wounded have the best care United States doctors can give.

There could be no better proof of the stupidity of war than this fine sense of responsibility. With one hand we fight to disembowel the enemy. With the other hand we seek to heal the body we have wounded. Animals sometimes called dumb behave with more consistency.

The World and the Mud Puddles

IT MUST BE SO

It may be taken for granted that the United States of America will be looked upon by most peoples of the earth as the greatest force in any plan to maintain abiding peace. This leadership is a task which we ourselves have invited: we cannot reasonably escape it, even if we would. But if we are to function successfully in this role of world peace leadership, we must come out of the war a strong, unified nation.

We must maintain our economic strength and financial health by a domestic regime which will make for the fullest possible production and employment. We must have sound, growing industry. We must have profitable, small business. We must have prosperous agriculture. To attain these things, we must have a government that is friendly to individual enterprise, friendly to sound investment, friendly to success and thrift, instead of a government which is innately hostile to all these things; a government suspicious of those who succeed and antagonistic to the time-honored traits of industry and economy as the means to personal advancement.

We cannot attain the production and investment necessary to provide employment and bring general prosperity under a government which has been leaning for years toward the socialization of industry and the confiscation of the fruits of enterprise. We cannot endure the harassment of business, labor and agriculture by arrogant, self-sufficient bureaucrats. We cannot endure taxation whose purposes are punitive and designed for the purpose of "redistributing the wealth."

We cannot endure any program which sees no farther than "made work" for the government or a dole. Our economic and financial strength will have to be sustained upon the same foundations which have prevailed during our previous history—freedom of initiative, freedom of enterprise, freedom of labor, freedom of production, freedom of contract, freedom of exorbitant taxation.

If we are to be a major factor in world harmony, we must have a nation divided into classes, by prearrangements of hate, by the sowing of dissensions, by concessions to group pressure which take money from the pockets of one element of

British Attitude Shows They Understand Us
Citizens Urged To Be Gentle With Americans
Peace Parley May Be Held In U. S. Capital

By HELEN ESSARY

(Central Press Columnist)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—"Be gentle with the Americans," a London newspaper advised in a recent editorial. "The people of the States are in the throes of the illness known as 'presidential election'."

"This is a grave illness for the inhabitants of the States. It puts the whole country into what might be called, roughly speaking, a delirious condition. This condition with its aches and nerves and general delirium will calm down immediately after Nov. 7 when the electoral college takes a whiff of Twilight Sleep, wake up and find her job was done? 'Is it Tom or is it Franklin?' she would feebly ask the question, and not care too much which it was. Just so the ordeal was over."

May Settle Peace Here

The peace plans of the world will likely be made in Washington, Acting Secretary of State Edward Stettin says. Nice idea, Versailles scene of the last peace treaty, last time it was made, it was fondly supposed to be after World War I, the Hall of Mirrors notwithstanding.

If Washington is, indeed, the scene of the peace treaty-making, I shall stop my javelin-throwing in the direction of the Old World, for I'll know that at last we have got up off our knees to a third old civilization.

The Court temple that is the Supreme Court of the United States would be an harmonious setting for discussions of peace. Those chaste marble walls inspire reverence and careful thinking.

You simply can't live within such solemn beauty and not feel you are a first cousin to the immortals on Olympus, set apart from the snares and delusions of ordinary people. At least this what one of the most earnest justices told me, bringing up the Supreme Court, not only because I believe it would be a dignified building in which to plan for a just and reasonable world, but because I want to remind the public that there still is a Supreme Court. Nobody ever speaks of this worthy organization now that fighting men and campaigners are whooping about.

It used to be such a pleasure to speak of the "internal dissension among the justices." But what is "internal dissension among justices" compared with "dissension overhead, under water, on land and on sea among nations and their billions of frightened people?"

War Prisoners Cared For

When I hear loud discussions of American and German treatment of prisoners of war, I wonder what war is about anyhow.

According to recently published records of the war department, both the United States and Germany take fastidious good care of war prisoners. Some people always contribute heat but not light to a discussion.

REQUIREMENTS OF JUDGES

One state requires that a judge "believe in God." Four states specify that he must be "of good character," and all but nine states require that he be "learned in the law." Twenty-five of these states indicate also that a judge must have actual legal experience or have been admitted to the bar.

Convenience is what the telephone used to be.

At a convention the delegate at large is the man who has come without his wife.

A consumer is one who has been hit by everything except falling prices.

The judge was trying to pour oil on trouble waters. "Couldn't this case have been settled out of court?" he asked. "Your honor, sure, but that is exactly what we are trying to do when a couple of policemen butted in," said the defendant.

Now there are people who go without luxuries instead of going in debt for them.

A lot of things happening now will not be forgotten by many people.

A man usually has a poor memory, but he does not have to keep a set of books for the purpose of remembering those he dislikes.

Judge said to a girl applying for citizenship: "How many states in United States?" "I talk to you know your business. I know mine. I ask you, how many bananas in a bunch?"

By always being cheerful you can get the reputation of being either very callous or not having much sense.

At a dinner meeting not long ago a young woman turned to the man sitting next to her and asked what he did in life.

"I study mathematics," replied the man, a noted authority in the field. "How odd," the girl observed, "I finished mathematics last semester."

Investigated on the South Side, a typical small boy is found to have 20 items in his pockets. We say typical because there was not handkerchief.

The trouble with sowing a crop of wild oats is that you have to trash it out in court.

If we saw ourselves as others see us we would at least have the privilege of insisting that we were laboring under an optical delusion.

Still, the old maid pined for married women probably would have refused every one of her husbands.

Who remembers when boys did not have even a few pennies to buy fish-hooks and an ordinary pin was twisted into the shape of a regular fish-hook?

The writer, does, and he caught fish, too, with fish hooks. The fish that were common then were what they called "chub" or the small catfish.

We now back England's policies rather than Russia's. Is it any wonder that Stalin fears we'd gang up on him?

If the average smoker could see what goes into a cigarette, he'd be astonished—but he wouldn't give a darn.

Few realize how recent our history is. The last shipload of slaves arrived from Africa only 25 years ago.

At a dinner a young lady sat beside an old gentleman who was head of hearing. In the course of conversation, she asked, "Do you like bananas?" The hard-of-hearing man hesitated before replying. Then she said, "Tomorrow—Boy's Bedroom."

The Parent Problem

INTEREST IN ARTS IMPORTANT

With the inevitable emphasis in these days on technical knowledge and skills, we wonder what is happening to the interest of technical persons in poetry, art and high-grade music. As any technician knows he has a strong temptation to neglect these less tangible and emotionally appealing sides of human culture.

Young men and women in high school, college and professional schools now, and veterans returning to resume their former education, might well consider this matter. So also might parents of young children.

Apologies are some statements by the great scientist Charles Darwin which he made in his Life and Letters.

Darwin's Opinion

"Up to the age of 30, or beyond it, poetry of many kinds such as the works of Milton, Gray, Byron, Wordsworth, Coleridge and Shelley gave me great pleasure, and even as a schoolboy I took intense delight in Shakespeare, especially in the historical plays. I have also said that formerly pictures gave me considerable, and music very much delight. But now for many years I cannot endure to read a line of poetry. I have tried lately to read Shakespeare, and found it so intolerably dull that it nauseated me. I have almost lost my taste for pictures and music. Music generally sets me thinking too energetically on what I have been at work on, or on some other unpleasing subject. My mind seems to have become a kind of machine for grinding general laws out of large collections of facts."

"And if I had my life to live over again, I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once every week, for perhaps the parts of my brain now atrophied would have been kept active through use. The loss of these triads is a loss of happiness, and may possibly be injurious to the intellect, and more probably to the moral character, by feedback the emotional part of our nature."

Needs of Art

You and I know some persons of high scientific and technical achievements who have kept alive their interest and enjoyment of the fine arts all their lives, and have done about as Darwin said he wished he had done.

Wise parents today are exposing their children to good music, art and literature, and are enthusiastic themselves. Beginning with the baby they are exposing him to the best. They are reading to him, not neglecting poetry and some of the choicest prose as found for example in the Bible. They are exposing him to the best in music from recordings and other sources, also to the beautiful in the graphic arts.

Many teachers also are in a similar fashion cultivating in the young child at school appreciation of the beautiful. Also some music teachers in the junior and senior high school are cultivating strong skills and appreciation of high-grade music.

We parents need to make sure the school will not neglect the fine arts, but in spite of the pressure for the immediately practical, will emphasize art and music. We need to make sure the special teachers and supervisors in these subjects shall be retained.

CORRECTING CHILD'S ENGLISH

"Every time I correct my child's mispronunciation or poor English, my mother insists that I not burden her mind with too many intricate details. She thinks that as my daughter develops, she will naturally grasp these things. Do you think she is right?"—Mother.

Answer: I think you are right in correcting your child's mistakes, as well as giving her the advantages of your adult vocabulary. The things we learn during our childhood are indelibly impressed upon our memory throughout life and become as natural to us as our daily habits. And so it is a shame that more of us have not had the advantage of brilliant parents from whom we could naturally grasp culture and perfection of English instead of working so hard for it often with little in return for our efforts. Your child will be grateful to you, in later life, for whatever learning she has derived from you. Many a self-made man has had to suffer great embarrassment because during his childhood he was not taught the rules of grammar and the necessity for accumulating a substantial vocabulary.

See to it that your child learns to speak correctly from the start. It will be as natural to her as breathing.

Do not persist in talking to her in childish or babyish terms, even while she is very young. Give her the advantage of your own vocabulary. Use your three and four syllable words freely in your conversation. In this way, she will become familiar with words which, when mature, she will be only too pleased to have included in her vocabulary.

Question: I am to be married shortly. Please give me an example of a thank-you note for gifts that I shall receive. T.

Answer: The following is a sample of the kind of note that you might write:

Dear Mrs. Smith: Bill and I are eternally grateful to you and Mr. Smith for your generosity and exquisite taste in sending us this beautiful vase. I can hardly wait to see its effect in a special corner of my living room, which I know will be perfect.

You both must come and see it in its proper setting as soon as we are settled in our new home.

Tomorrow—Boy's Bedroom.

IT MUST BE SO

It may be taken for granted that the United States of America will be looked upon by most peoples of the earth as the greatest force in any plan to maintain abiding peace. This leadership is a task which we ourselves have invited, and cannot shirk.

But if we are to function successfully in this role of world peace leadership, we must come out of the war a strong, united nation.

We must maintain our economic strength and financial health by a domestic regime which will make for the fullest possible production and enjoyment. We must have sound, growing industry. We must have profitable small business. We must have prosperous agriculture.

To attain these things, we must have a government that is friendly to individual enterprise, friendly to sound investment, friendly to success and thrift, instead of a government which is innately hostile to all these things, a government suspicious of those who succeed and antagonistic to the time-honored traits of industry and economy as the means to personal advancement.

We cannot attain the production and investment necessary to provide employment and bring general prosperity under a government which has been bending for years toward the socialization of industry and the confiscation of the fruits of enterprise. We cannot endure the harassment of business labor and agriculture by arrogant, self-sufficient bureaucrats. We cannot endure taxation, whose purposes are punitive and designed for the purpose of redistributing the wealth.

We cannot endure any program which sees no farther than "made work" for the government or a dole. Our economic and financial strength will have to be sustained upon the same foundations which have prevailed during our previous history—freedom of initiative, freedom of enterprise, freedom of labor, freedom of production, freedom of contract, freedom of exorbitant taxation.

If we are to be a major factor in world harmony, we must have harmony at home. We cannot have a nation divided into classes by precepts of hate by the sowing of suspicions, by concessions to group pressure which take money from the pockets of one element of

Citizens Urged To Be Gentle With Americans
Peace Parley May Be Held In U. S. Capital

By HELEN ESSARY

(Central Press Columnist)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—"Be gentle with the Americans," a London newspaper advised in a recent editorial. "The people of the States are in the throes of the illness known as 'presidential election'."

"This is a grave illness for the inhabitants of the States. It puts the whole country into what might be called, roughly speaking, a delicate condition. This condition with its aches and nerves and general delirium will calm down immediately after Nov. 7 when the electorate delivers itself of a president."

This is a free translation of the London editorial. But it shows how clever the English are and how well they understand the United States. From now until the election, are counted, every newspaper, every radio air wave will be groaning in the whole pains of the final stages of the campaign. Wouldn't it be pleasant if the tormented Mrs. Columbia could take a whiff of Twilight Sleep, wake up and find her job done? Is it Tom or is it Franklin? she would freely ask the question, and not care too much which it was. Just so the ordeal was over.

May Settle Peace Here

The peace plans of the world will likely be made in Washington. Acting Secretary of State Edward Stettin thus says. "Nice idea. Versailles scene of the last peace treaty, isn't the impartial spot? It was fondly supposed to be after World War I, the Hall of Mirrors notwithstanding. If Washington is, indeed, the scene of the peace treaty-making, I shall stop my javelin-throwing in the direction of the Old World, for I'll know that at last we have got up off our knees to a third old civilization."

The Greek temple that is the Supreme Court of the United States would be an harmonious setting for discussions of peace. Those chaste marble walls inspire reverence and careful thinking.

You simply can't live within such solemn beauty and not feel you are a first cousin to the immortals on Olympus, set apart from the snares and delusions of ordinary people. At least this is what one of the most earnest justices told me.

I bring up the Supreme Court not only because I believe it would be a dignified building in which to plan for a just and reasonable world, but because I want to remind the public that there still is a Supreme Court. Nobody ever speaks of this worthy organization now that fighting men and campaigners are whipping men.

It used to be such a pleasure to speak of the "internal discussion among the justices." But what is "internal discussion among justices" compared with "discussion" overhead under water, on land and on sea among nations and their billions of frightened people?

War Prisoners Cared For

When I hear truthful discussions of American and German treatment of prisoners of war, I wonder what war is about anyhow.

According to recently published records of the war department, with the United States and Germany take fastidiously good care of war prisoners. Both countries struggle to protect the health of their prisoners. They go to the most infinite pains to notify the government of each country of the prisoner's name down to the last initial. Sick or wounded United States prisoners in Germany are treated by German specialists. German wounded have the best care United States doctors can give.

There could be no better proof of the stupidity of war than this fine sense of responsibility. With one hand the right to disembowel the enemy. With the other hand we seek to heal the body we have tormented. Animals sometime called dumb behave with more consistency.

GLASSES

Good eyesight is a very valuable thing. Glasses are a wonderful help when the sight is not too good. Some persons go to a lot of trouble and expense for glasses. They go to a good doctor to have tests made. They buy expensive spectacles.

Then they do not take very good care of the lenses.

The glasses should be handled carefully. They should be put away so that they will not be scratched. They should be kept clean and free from spots.

It does not seem very sensible to spend a lot of money on glasses, and then let them get so dirty that the light cannot get through them.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Last week a friend of mine came back to the United States on his first leave in a year.

He is a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army Medical Corps and he had had a pretty tough time of it both in England and in France.

It isn't very nice, you know, to see thousands of young fellows coming into the hospitals maimed and wounded and out of their minds. And it isn't very nice to have them die on you or cry their hearts out because they may never be able to see or to hear or to walk again.

Well, my friend didn't look so good. He had lost lots of weight and, when he had been a jolly sort of a rounder before, he now was very serious and very very quiet.

We took him to see "Oklahoma" and "One Touch of Venus." We took him to the Stork Club and the Morocco and the Copacabana.

We introduced him to some very pretty girls and he drank and danced and we all stayed up very late.

When we finally took him back to his hotel we said good-bye and we hoped he had a good time. "Yes, I had a very good time," he said. "You seem to be having a very good time."

And then he added, and he was very serious, as he said: "Do you know I've found out something tonight that I didn't know before."

"What did you find out?" I asked him.

"Not Fighting Same War?" "I found out," he said, "that we fellows over there and you people over here aren't fighting the same war at all."

I didn't quite know what he meant and I didn't like the way he said it.

The next noon, though, when he and I had lunch together in a quiet, side-street restaurant, I found out.

"You people over here think that the war is some kind of a musical comedy," he said.

"I see the night clubs crowded and you can't get a seat in a good show and the hotels are turning people away."

"One of the girls last night was telling me how she was doing her share by being a Gray Lady in an Army Hospital twice a week, and how she was bored the rest of the time because her husband was overseas and people would talk if she went out much."

"Another one told me how she wished the war were over because her wardrobe was falling to pieces and she simply couldn't buy anything decent to wear."

"One of the fellows complained that you couldn't get any decent smoke whiskey and you had to smoke cigarettes you never heard of."

"Everybody had some kind of a gripe about some personal little inconvenience."

And then he told me about the thousands of boys he had treated over there and about the suffering and the misery and the agony and the filth and brutality of the whole business.

And he told me that not one of the kids complained—they knew it had to be done so they did it.

"Yes," said my friend, "You and I aren't fighting the same war at all. And do you know what I like our kind of war better. It's more decent."

He never finished his leave, by the way. He's on the ocean right now—back to the real war.

NEW MOVIE SCREEN
Has Been Invented

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Development of a new motion picture screen which will give the third dimension to pictures was claimed by Christian A. Volt, Los Angeles physicist.

Volt said the screen is based on his theory of how the eye itself perceives the dimension of depth. He said he evolved the theory in 1935 and developed the screen in seeking a means to demonstrate the theory.

"The eye perceives the dimension of depth from the outer layer of the cornea, which is made up of two membranes enclosing a layer of tear fluid," Volt said, adding that his screen was based upon the same principle.

Near Panic By 1,000 Tenants In Apartment As Gas Blast Occurs

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—A violent explosion of illuminating gas which wrecked part of the 15th floor of a 17-story Beekman Hill apartment house, killed one woman and brought near panic to 1,000 tenants was termed an accident today by police.

The blast, which was heard in a mile-square area, killed Mrs. Elsie Be Balogh, in whose apartment it occurred. Her body was discovered by Bradley Kelly, vice-president of King Features Syndicate, who occupies an adjoining suite.

Kelly was uninjured by the explosion although the wall of his apartment was blown down.

Police first classified the tragedy as "apparent suicide" but later described it officially as an accident when the victim's husband, Andre Be Balogh, a radio executive, said he had left his wife reading a book in front of the stove while she waited for a batch of fruit she was canning to come to a boil.

Mayor Outlines City Recreation
Project At Ministerial Association Meeting

New Castle Ministerial association met Monday morning at the First Presbyterian church with Rev. Oliver W. Hurst presiding. Devotionals were conducted by Rev. P. P. Sulmonetti, with Rev. A. E. Simon at the piano.

Two ministers who came to New Castle recently, Rev. George R. D. Braun of Epworth Methodist church, and Rev. H. H. Grove of Emmanuel Evangelical church, were presented to the assemblage by Rev. Walter W. Gilliland.

Mayor John F. Haven, as the speaker, on "City Recreation," outlined the projects that the mayor's recreation committee has in view. Following his presentation the mayor was extended a vote of appreciation and endorsement of the projects.

Dr. G. S. Bennett announced the annual sale of Christmas seals, and the association pledged its support. Rev. Thomas J. Jones presented the program of the "Christian Council of Palestine," and a resolution was passed to "seek endorsement of the project among our people."

Announcement was made of the coming presentation of the "Messiah" by the Music club on December 17 at the First Methodist church. This presentation was also endorsed by the association, as was a national program for Bible reading between Thanksgiving and Christmas advanced by the American Bible society.

Prayer by Rev. E. D. Lupton brought the meeting to a close. Next meeting will be December 4.

FIFTY MILLION
VOTERS GOING TO
POLLS IN NATION

Both Roosevelt and Dewey are certain of at least 152 electoral votes in other sections, so the winner in the east should be the winner in the nation.

Both nominees made final appeals to the electorate late last night. Both pleaded with every registered voter to exercise his franchise.

The presidential contest overshadowed everything else, although the people will elect thirty-one governors, thirty-six senators in thirty-four states and a whole new house of representatives. Indications point to election of a Republican house unless there is a Roosevelt landslide while the senate undoubtedly will remain Democratic, due to the Democratic plurality of holdover senators.

How Battle Lines Up
The race between Roosevelt and Dewey has materialized into a contest between the large cities of the nation in the president's corner and the smaller cities, towns, villages and rural areas in Dewey's camp.

In New York, where the election may well be decided, the president expects a 650,000 plurality in New York City with Dewey's strength upstate. Most observers give New York to Dewey, discounting the Democratic predictions for New York City.

Deweyites say there will be a terrific Irish defection from Roosevelt in New York City and a tremendous outpouring of Republican votes upstate.

In Pennsylvania, it is Philadelphia and Pittsburgh against the rest of the state. Both sides publicly claim victory by several hundred thousand votes but each party would be glad to win by 50,000.

In Massachusetts, it is Boston against the state. In Maryland, it is Baltimore against the rest of the state with last minute neutral forecasts giving the state to Dewey.

Ohio Situation
In Ohio, it is Cleveland against the state. Neutral observers give it to Dewey, in belief the remainder of the state will overcome whatever plurality Roosevelt gets in Cleveland, but some experts give Cleveland to Roosevelt by 160,000, which would make the final outcome very close.

In Illinois, it is Chicago against the state. Neutral observers give it to the downstate Republican plurality.

In Michigan, where a surprise may occur, the most neutral observers say Dewey will win by overcoming whatever lead Roosevelt picks up in Detroit. A few observers think otherwise.

In California, another surprise may occur, where Democrats believe San Francisco and Los Angeles pluralities will give Roosevelt the state by about 250,000. A few observers say the Democrats are in for a big surprise in San Francisco and that the state will go to Dewey by 100,000.

Service Vote May Decide
There is a bare possibility that the men and women in the armed services may decide the election, if the results in key states are very close. Somewhat between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 ballots will be cast by the armed services.

However, for some reason, neither top Democrats nor top Republicans expect the soldier vote to overturn the civilian count in any important state. There will be 411,000 soldier ballots in New York State but here the politicians say they will vote largely the way civilians do in their home areas, hence without much chance of determining the result unless the civilian result is below 50,000 for their candidate.

There will be 512,000 soldier votes in other states—225,000 in Pennsylvania, nearly 300,000 in Illinois, 165,000 in Michigan. But the politicians do not fear it unless the civilian count falls below the 50,000 mark.

Car loadings of coal alone are greater than the national car loadings of grains and produce, livestock, forest products and ore combined.

Aunt Samantha says—and she's always right—sweet oil will remove fingerprints from varnished furniture and kerosene from oiled furniture.

Farley Declines To Predict Outcome

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—James A. Farley, campaign manager for President Roosevelt in his two most successful elections, declined to predict the outcome of today's contest as he cast his ballot in New York City.

Accompanied by Mrs. Farley, an outspoken supporter of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Farley said: "I feel it is a great tribute to democracy to hold an election in this, the most critical period in the country's history. When the election is over, we must win the war and the following peace."

FORMER SHERIFF DIES
HARRISBURG, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Former Dauphin County Sheriff, William W. Caldwell, 74, of Harrisburg, died today of a heart attack shortly before he was to vote in his 14th presidential election. Although he had been ill since last Wednesday, the veteran Republican had hoped to be carried to the polls on a litter.

Mahoning School
Winners Announced

Pupils Amateur Contest Winners
Are Named; Competition Keen
Among 28 Contestants

Announcement is made from the office of Mahoning school, of the winners in the amateur contest held in the auditorium of the school, Tuesday, October 31. The results are: First, Evelyn and Roberta Spears, piano and vocal duet; second, Emma Perrotta and Geraldine Prescario, dramatic song "Shorty Bred"; third, John Pappianna, accordion solo; fourth, Josephine Martello, vocal solo.

There were about twenty-eight contestants who had previously been selected by tryouts and eliminations. After the competition, voting for the winners was done in boxes placed in the halls of the school.

The winners will perform at a later date, in another chapel program. Admission to the amateur program, as well as the voting, was done through the purchase of war stamps and bonds.

Pupils of the school are striving hard to reach their goal of $5,000, before Pearl Harbor Day, December 7. At present the amount of sales of war stamps and bonds has reached over $3,380.

the people and hand it to other elements. We cannot have men in high places constantly sneering at American traditions and manifesting contempt for the Constitution. We cannot have a government which regards it as a crime against the State to criticize the acts of policies of government.

Above all, we cannot have harmony in a government in which one department seeks constantly to dominate the other departments in violation of our constitutional system of checks and balances. We cannot have harmony without a free legislature and a free judiciary. We cannot have harmony in a government wherein the central authority steadily encroaches upon the rights and powers of the States.

Mayor Outlines City Recreation
Project At Ministerial Association Meeting

New Castle Ministerial association met Monday morning at the First Presbyterian church with Rev. Oliver W. Hurst presiding. Devotional services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Sulmonetti, with Rev. A. E. Simon at the piano.

Two ministers who came to New Castle recently, Rev. George R. D. Braun of Epworth Methodist church, and Rev. H. H. Grove of Emmanuel Evangelical church, were presented to the assembly by Rev. Walter W. Gilliland.

Mayor John F. Haven, as the speaker on "City Recreation", outlined the projects that the mayor's recreation committee has in view. Following his presentation the mayor was extended a vote of appreciation and endorsement of the projects.

Dr. G. S. Bennett announced the annual sale of Christmas seals, and the association pledged its support.

Rev. Thomas J. Jones presented the program of the "Christian Council on Palestine", and a resolution was passed to "seek endorsement of the project among our people."

Announcement was made of the coming presentation of the "Messiah" by the Music club on December 17 at the First Methodist church. This presentation was also endorsed by the association, as was a national program for Bible reading between Thanksgiving and Christmas advanced by the American Bible society.

Prayer by Rev. E. D. Lupton brought the meeting to a close. Next meeting will be December 4.

FIFTY MILLION
VOTERS GOING TO

Victory. Both Roosevelt and Dewey are certain of at least 152 electoral votes in other sections, so the winner in the east should be the winner in the nation.

Both nominees made final appeals to the electorate late last night. Both pleaded with every registered voter to exercise his franchise.

The presidential contest overshadowed everything else, although the people will elect thirty-one governors, thirty-six senators in thirty-four states and a whole new house of representatives. Indications point to election of a Republican house unless there is a Roosevelt landslide while the senate undoubtedly will remain Democratic, due to the Democratic plurality of holdover senators.

How Battle Lines Up

The race between Roosevelt and Dewey has materialized into a contest between the large cities of the nation in the president's corner and the smaller cities, towns, villages and rural areas in Dewey's camp.

In New York, where the election may well be decided, the president expects a 650,000 plurality in New York City with Dewey's strength upstate. Most observers give New York to Dewey, discounting the Democratic predictions for New York City.

Deweyites say there will be a terrific Irish defection from Roosevelt in New York City and a tremendous outpouring of Republican votes upstate.

In Pennsylvania, it is Philadelphia and Pittsburgh against the rest of the state. Both sides publicly claim victory by several hundred thousand votes but each party would be glad to win by 50,000.

In Massachusetts, it is Boston against the state. In Maryland, it is Baltimore against the rest of the state with last minute neutral forecasts giving the state to Dewey.

Ohio Situation

In Ohio, it is Cleveland against the state. Neutral observers give it to Dewey in belief the remainder of the state will overcome whatever plurality Roosevelt gets in Cleveland, but some experts give Cleveland to Roosevelt by 160,000, which would make the final outcome very close.

In Illinois, it is Chicago against downstate. Neutral observers give it to the downstate Republican plurality.

In Michigan, where a surprise may occur, the most neutral observers say Dewey will win by overcoming whatever lead Roosevelt piles up in Detroit. A few observers think otherwise.

In California, another surprise may occur, where Democrats believe San Francisco and Los Angeles pluralities will give Roosevelt the state by around 250,000. A few observers say the Democrats are in for a big surprise in San Francisco and that the state will go to Dewey by 100,000.

Service Vote May Decide

There is a bare possibility that the men and women in the armed services may decide the election, if the results in key states are close. Somewhat between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 ballots will be cast by the armed services.

However, for some reason, neither top Democrats nor Republicans expect the soldier vote to overturn the civilian count in any important state. There will be 411,000 soldier ballots in New York State but here the politicians say they will vote largely the way civilians do in their home areas, hence without much chance of determining the result unless the civilian result is below 50,000 for their candidate.

There will be big soldier votes in other states—225,000 in Pennsylvania, nearly 300,000 in Illinois, 165,000 in Michigan. But the politicians do not fear it unless the civilian count falls below the 50,000 mark.

Prepare To Give Election Returns To Men Overseas

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Army information services were thrown into high gear today as they prepared to give the GI's overseas the quickest and most complete coverage possible of election news.

More than 30 men will work around the clock, compiling national results from the three press associations, International News Service, the Associated Press and United Press.

From the services and its own correspondents, the Army News Service—ANS—will make the results available, with an estimated 25,000 words going by cable and another 25,000 words by radio.

Indian Troops Take Japanese Stronghold

KANDY, Ceylon, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Troops of the fifth Indian division have occupied Kennedy peak, Japanese stronghold on the Tiddim-Port White road in the Chin hills of north Burma, the southeast Asia command announced today.

Constant battering from allied bombers and fighter-bombers forced the Japanese to withdraw and all Japanese resistance around Kennedy peak has ended.

Allied troops have pressed on to clear another eight miles of the Tiddim-Port White road. Fighting was under way two miles north of the cleared area, where some enemy positions are being fought. The words of today's southeast Asia command communicate.

In the Arakan campaign, West African troops, forging their way down the Kaladan valley, were within four miles of Paletwa.

MOVING THE SUN into Your POSTWAR HOME

Infrared lamps will supply the gentle, soothing heat.

Your eyes will say, "thank you," for the cool, soft light of fluorescent lamps such as the one shown here.

The busy housewife will find her work easier and less tiring because her kitchen will be flooded with the abundant, economical light of fluorescent lamps.

Father will not be neglected. Over the workbench he is very likely to have a fluorescent fixture giving him just the kind of light he has always longed to have.

Constant battering from allied bombers and fighter bombers forced the Japanese to withdraw and all Japanese resistance around Kennedy peak has ended.

Allied troops have pressed on to clear another eight miles of the Tiddim-Fort White road. Fighting was under way two miles north-west of Fort White, "where some enemy positions astride the road have been cleared," in the words of today's southeast Asia command communiqué.

In the Arakan campaign, West African troops, forging their way down the Kalandan valley, were within four miles of Paleyva.

Lieut. Wilcox Is Home From Europe

First Lieut. Howard T. Wilcox, attached to the air force, is on 21 days furlough, visiting his wife, Mrs. Grace Wilcox, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wilcox of 304 South Ray street.

He recently returned from England, where he served with the Eighth Air Force. He has completed his tour of missions over Europe.

Lieut. Wilcox has been in the service since March 1943, and overseas eight months. He is a graduate of New Castle High school, class of June 1939.

Before entering the service, he was in the employ of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., as a clerk.

AROUND CITY HALL

Third floor assembly room in city hall is being made ready by the Mayor's Recreation Project committee. Large benches are being removed. The room will be painted and the floor improved so that dancing may be enjoyed. The room will serve recreation purposes and do much to eliminate delinquency in the city. The purpose is to have a place where young people can go and find clean wholesome recreation. The public contributed more than $13,000 to the fund recently.

Police authorities have been perturbed recently by robberies which involve minor amounts and articles of not much value. Another was reported to police last night. Silverware was removed from a trunk in the residence of Mrs. Rose Bohn, 42 North Beaver street. They also received a report from Mrs. Eugene Kendall, R. D. 1, New Wilmington, that her purse containing $40 was stolen while shopping in a New Castle store.

Landlords Must Provide Heat

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Rev. Charles C. Rice, Pittsburgh area rent director, today revealed that the OPA intends to make it hot for landlords who keep rents high and heat low this winter.

For the past month, Father Rice said, calls have been pouring into OPA offices with complaints of inadequate heating systems in apartment houses, duplexes and rented homes.

"The OPA will start investigations of all complaints," Father Rice said. "In some cases inadequate heat can reduce rents as much as $20, but the average reduction is about $5."

Under the law controlling rents, landlords must bring down costs when their services are reduced, he explained, adding that insufficient heating is a reduced service.

WHEN THE COLONEL AGAIN EDITS THE Home-Town Paper

★ The Colonel always has enjoyed a good fight. Where arguments were most heated it was safe to bet that the Colonel was right on the job... fighting for the things he believed in. His scorching editorials that induced the city council to start playgrounds, swimming pools, a new water works and other public improvements still are remembered by everyone.

When war came, the Colonel, a reserve officer, soon was in uniform lending his fighting determination and spirit to bring a decisive victory as soon as possible.

When the Colonel returns to take up his job as editor of the home-town paper, he'll be alert to the need for even finer things for his community. On the subject of rail service, for example, he'll look for greater convenience, comfort, speed and safety among other things. And he'll be well satisfied, for the Baltimore & Ohio is anticipating his thoughts... will have service that fully meets his desires.

Today, over B&O's 11,000 miles of track, 70,000 workers share with management the spirit of progress that is the foundation for improvement... a spirit that promises even better B&O service than your community knew in pre-war.

Americans, Germans Share One Hospital

Both Staffs Function In Captured
Hospital In Southern France;
German Equipment Used

By KITA HUME
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE SEVENTH ARMY IN FRANCE—(Delayed)—The story of two field hospitals, one German, the other American, operating side by side in a French hospital at Draguignan is a curious sidelight of the German rout in southern France. American doctors used German equipment to operate on U.S. wounded. On some occasions they called upon German surgical nurses to assist in emergency operations. At other times, the two staffs, each of which shared a half of the hospital building, merely nodded politely as they passed in the hallways.

Use Nazi Equipment

In the press of the Seventh Army's lightning advance up the Rhone valley, an American field hospital moved into the French hospital at Draguignan on the road to Lyons. It was already occupied by German medical staff, captured together with its patients and what was declared to be an impressive outlay of surgical equipment.

Five American nurses were detached from another hospital to fill in until the original feminine complement arrived. They used German dressings, thermometers, needles and those drugs whose names they could read. The dressings, of a heavy linen-like texture, impressed them most.

Veterans of Tunisia, Sicily, Cassino and Anzio, the nurses found this brush with an enemy medical team their most interesting experience overseas. They are First Lieut. Eleanor Gosline of Endicott, N.Y.; Second Lieut. Grace Bender of Akron, O.; Frances Backer of Summit, N.J.; Marjorie Frosh of Columbus, O.; and Myrtle Costello of Washington, D.C.

Share Same Kitchen

"We got the biggest kick out of sharing the same kitchen," said Miss Gosline. American nurses watched with interest when their German counterparts converted crushed field biscuits into gruel with boiling water.

The German nurses wore blue and white uniforms and were described as "big girls, all blondes and pretty." Most of them had long hair.

Although functioning under the immunity of the Red Cross, the staff was under guard and not permitted to leave the hospital. Their attitude was pleasant and unlike that of the usual sullen one of a captured prisoner.

2—Energize your body with
RICH, RED BLOOD!

Improper diet, overwork, undue worries, colds, the flu or other illness often impairs the stomach's digestive functions and reduces the red blood strength.

A person who is operating on only a 70 to 75% healthy blood volume or a stomach digestive capacity of only 50 to 60% normal is severely handicapped. At such times Nature needs extra help to restore its balance and function properly. Undigested food places a tax on the system... insufficient blood strength is a detriment to good health.

If you are subject to poor digestion or suspect deficient red blood as the cause of your trouble, yet have no organic complication or focal infection, SSS Tonic may be just what you need! SSS Tonic is especially designed (1) to promote the flow of VITAL DIGESTIVE JUICES in the stomach and (2) to BUILD UP BLOOD STRENGTH when deficient. These two important results enable you to enjoy the food you do eat. Thus you may get new vitality, pep, become animated, more attractive!

Mystery 'Jolting' Is Reported By American Pilots

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—A Reuter dispatch from supreme headquarters in Paris today told of a mysterious "jolting" received by American bomber pilots on their return from an attack on the German supply depot of Homburg yesterday.

It might have been weather conditions, or a secret weapon such as "invisible" anti-aircraft, the dispatch said.

One pilot was quoted as saying: "All the way back from the target to the German border I was bounced around until I thought my wings would come off. I noticed that every time I bumped all the others around me were undergoing the same experience."

Headquarters are investigating the possibility the Germans have some new weapon, Reuter said.

Owsley, who will report on progress of the Americanism endowment fund raising campaign; Ald. Milo J. Warner, also a past national commander, who will report on steps being taken to enlarge national headquarters space.

Policeman Held As Slayer Of Woman

WATERBURY, Conn., Nov. 7.—(INS)—Police sought possible motives today for the slaying of Mrs. Stephanie Plungis, 24, war worker and mother of two children, whose nude body was found Saturday in a crude grave near Middletown.

Patrolman Francis Zukauskas, 34, married and the father of two, suspected as the slayer despite his unblemished record in the Waterbury police department, meanwhile, was held on a coroner's warrant to await arraignment today.

He is alleged to have confessed to shooting Mrs. Plungis as the couple sat in her auto Wednesday night. The body was found after her estranged husband, Anthony, notified police that he found the car blood-spattered and punctured by bullets.

LT. J. M. LUNAP, JR., ARRIVES

County Juvenile Parole Officer J. M. Lunap has received a telegram from his son, Lt. Jack M. Lunap, Jr., a pilot on a Liberator, saying he has landed in a foreign country.

ARGUMENT COURT

Argument court was held Monday before Judges W. Walter Brahm and John C. Lamore with a number of cases on the list. One case up is that of the city of New Castle and the New Castle school board asking for a distribution of the moneys now held by the county commissioners which came from rents from county owned properties.

The city and school board ask for a distribution based upon the proportion of taxes due on the properties held. County Solicitor William E. McElwee, Jr., holds other views and the two sides were presented.

TWO SENTENCES

Two sentences were handed down by Judge Brahm on Monday, those of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Holliday for larceny and malicious mischief.

They were tried and found guilty of partially destroying a porch on a home in Mahoningtown which they formerly owned but which had been sold for taxes. They were placed upon probation for two years and assessed the costs and the cost of restoring the porch to its former condition.

HONOR HUGH D. GRAHAM

When court adjourned Monday it did so out of respect to the memory of the late Attorney Hugh D. Graham, who died in naval service last Saturday. The motion was made by Attorney Edwin K. Logan and seconded by Attorney Charles V. Ross. Attorney Graham, a lieutenant in the naval service, had a promising career ahead of him at the bar. He had the respect of his fellow attorneys not alone for his professional ability but for his personal charm. He is the first of 14 Lawrence county attorneys in service to be taken by death.

Reporter Voting First Time Gives Impressions

So this is voting—getting up 15 minutes earlier, gulping a cup of coffee and dashing out of the house and then back again to get your gloves.

You were 21 a month ago, and since you never voted before you aren't quite sure just what the set-up will be. Everything looks so ordinary as you half-run along, watching the house numbers carefully so that you don't get into the wrong garage. A housewife is putting two milk bottles out on the porch, a paper boy is delivering morning papers, and a dog is taking a drink out of a pail along the curb, entirely undisturbed by the fact that you are voting for the first time.

Right Place

The right garage is unmistakable—several persons are coming out, several posters are slapping up on the front of the building, and one flag is hanging bright in the dull, smoky light. Amazingly enough, no one stops you at the door for your credentials although you are equipped with registration card, social security card and baptismal certificate.

With the bright lights blinding you, somehow you manage to see that one of the many persons—25 or 30, you think—who are seated around a table in the center of the garage is handing you a yellow sheet of paper with the request, "please, sign." Name, address, surely there must be more to it than that, so you carefully search the whole paper for something else you can fill in.

Oh, that's not the ballot. The next sheet you are given is the ballot—from your district, your ward, with the signatures of the county commissioners scrawled on the outside. You've had your mind made up for several weeks, but you read over all the information at the top of the paper, and every name on the sheet before you vote—just to make sure that there's no trick concealed somewhere.

Save Corner

Finished—and you are just about to drop your ballot through a slit in the top of an over-grown penny bank on the floor when you are stopped. Is the number corner off? What corner? Oh, you can keep that for a souvenir? Can every one do that, or is it just because you are voting for the first time? You had no idea election officials were so considerate.

So that's all there is to it. You stand outside by the flag in the dull, smoky light with your corner of the ballot in your hand. If you had known it was so simple, you could have slept ten minutes longer. Oh, well—you put the corner in your pocket—it was worth it.

Woman Faces Long Term In Kidnaping

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Mrs. Anna Cook, 22-year-old sailor's wife who pleaded guilty to kidnaping a child so that her husband overseas would not know their own had died at birth, today faced a long sentence following a mental and physical examination.

Judge Harry S. McDevitt, in Philadelphia, characterized the woman as "over-sexed," after she confessed stealing seven-month-old Nancy Allen last September and taking the child to Pittsburgh where she had it baptized as her own. He said she would be sent to an institution "for sometime beyond the duration of this war."

The child's mother, Mrs. Mary Allen of Philadelphia, also a sailor's wife, testified that she went to the movies leaving Nancy in Mrs. Cook's care and when she returned both were gone.

Father Of Queen Of England Dies

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The father of Britain's Queen Elizabeth, the 14th Earl of Strathmore and Lyon, died today.

The Earl, 89 years old, was the son of an old Scots family descended from Lyon, Thane of Glamis.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Prevent or soothe passages with snoring and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Air Mail Roundup Of Legion Under Way

Gaston Post Expects To Exceed Quota Assigned For Roundup November 11 In Pennsylvania

Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, expects to exceed its quota in the annual membership roundup, which is underway in a concentrated drive this week.

The membership roundup is conducted each year on Armistice day, and in past years the memberships have been delivered to department headquarters in Harrisburg in various ways, usually by motor caravan. This year, as was the case last year, due to wartime restrictions, the roundup will be conducted by air mail.

Each post has been asked to have 50 per cent of its membership in by that time, and according to Membership Chairman Leon A. Drumm, senior vice commander of the Perry S. Gaston Post, the local post needs but 20 members to equal this figure.

Quadruplets Now Have Real Names

Cirminellos Name Philadelphia Quads—Maureen, Kathleen, Eileen And Michael

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The Alphabet Quads—"A, B, C and D"—born at Philadelphia last Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cirminello, today became Maureen, Kathleen, Eileen and Michael.

Their names were announced by the lying-in hospital where they were delivered in a Caesarian operation, and officials happily said that the quads "are all in good condition."

Even Michael, who has had a little trouble with his breathing "has shown decided improvement," the hospital bulletin said. "His breathing is almost normal now."

And the proud 30-year-old mother, Kathleen, according to her physician John C. O'Leary, "is progressing perfectly normally."

Report Holdup Men Get $100

Man Is Knocked Unconscious In Club And Money Taken, Is Police Report

Robert Haas of Park avenue, while alone at 6:10 p. m. Monday, was slugged and robbed of about $100 in the Ecclesian club, South Jefferson street, according to Police Chief Robert D. Hanna.

The victim was knocked unconscious and was discovered by a woman who had gone to the club to play bingo. The victim obtained only a meagre description of the slugging, according to the police chief.

According to Lieutenant G. S. Kennedy and Patrolmen Ray Richards and Clarence Welsh who made the preliminary investigation, Haas went to the club preparatory to the bingo game.

He went to the cellar to look at the furnace and when he returned upstairs he went to an office where there is a cash register, where he had left two sacks with the money.

The telephone bell rang. He turned to answer it. As he turned someone struck him on the head. The blow dropped Haas. He told police that while falling he noticed the slugging, wore black shoes and a pair of brown trousers. Haas went unconscious.

Later, a Mrs. Dennison entered the building. When she arrived at the rear of the hall she heard a groan. She investigated and found Haas upon the floor. The woman telephone Haas' father and later the police were notified.

The lieutenant and patrolmen found a second story rear door opened. A stair-case leads to the

Reporter Voting First Time Gives Impressions

So this is voting—getting up 15 minutes earlier, gulping a cup of coffee and dashing out of the house and then back again to get your gloves.

You were 21 a month ago, and since, you never voted before you aren't quite sure just what the set-up will be. Everything looks so ordinary as you half-run along, watching the house numbers carefully so that you don't get into the wrong garage. A housewife is putting two milk bottles out on the porch, a paper boy is delivering morning papers, and a dog is taking a drink out of a puddle along the curb, entirely undisturbed by the fact that you are voting for the first time.

Right Place

The right garage is unmistakable—several persons are coming out, several posters are slapped up on the front of the building, and one flag is hanging bright in the dull, smoky light. Amazingly enough, no one stops you at the door for your credentials although you are equipped with registration card, social security card and baptismal certificate.

With the bright lights blinding you, somehow you manage to see that one of the many persons—25 or 30, you think—who are seated around a table in the center of the garage is handing you a yellow sheet of paper with the request, "please sign." Name, address—surely there must be more to it than that, so you carefully search the whole paper for something else you can fill in.

Oh, that's not the ballot. The next sheet you are given is the ballot—from your district, your ward, with the signatures of the county commissioners scrawled on the outside. You've had your mind made up for several weeks, but you read over all the information at the top of the paper, and every name on the sheet before you vote—just to make sure that there's no trick concealed somewhere.

Save Corner

Finished—and you are just about to drop your ballot through a slit in the top of an over-grown penny bank on the floor when you are stopped. Is the number corner off? What corner? Oh, you can keep that for a souvenir? Can every-one do that, or is it just because you are voting for the first time? You had no idea election officials were so considerate.

So that's all there is to it. You stand outside by the flag in the dull, smoky light with your corner of the ballot in your hand. If you had known it was so simple, you could have slept ten minutes longer. Oh, well—you put the corner in your pocket—it was worth it.

Woman Faces Long Term In Kidnaping

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Mrs. Anna Cook, 22-year-old sailor's wife who pleaded guilty to kidnaping a child so that her husband overseas would not know their own had died at birth, today faced a long sentence following a mental and physical examination.

Judge Harry S. McDevitt, in Philadelphia, characterized the woman as "over-sexed," after she confessed stealing seven-month-old Nancy Allen last September and taking the child to Pittsburgh where she had it baptized as her own. He said she would be sent to an institution "for sometime beyond the duration of this war."

The child's mother, Mrs. Mary Allen of Philadelphia, also a sailor's wife, testified that she went to the movies leaving Nancy in Mrs. Cook's care and when she returned both were gone.

Father Of Queen Of England Dies

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The father of Britain's Queen Elizabeth, the 14th Earl of Strathmore and Lyon, died today.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Air Mail Roundup Of Legion Under Way

Gaston Post Expects To Exceed Quota Assigned For Roundup November 11 In Pennsylvania

Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, expects to exceed its quota in the annual membership roundup, which is underway in a concentrated drive this week.

The membership roundup is conducted each year on Armistice day, and in past years the memberships have been delivered to department headquarters in Harrisburg in various ways, usually by motor caravan. This year, as was the case last year, due to wartime restrictions, the roundup will be conducted by air mail.

Each post has been asked to have 50 per cent of its membership in by that time, and according to Membership Chairman Leon A. Drumm, senior vice commander of the Perry S. Gaston Post, the local post needs but 20 members to equal this figure.

Quadruplets Now Have Real Names

Criminello Name Philadelphia Quads—Maureen, Kathleen, Eileen And Michael

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The Alphabet Quads—"A, B, C and D"—born at Philadelphia last Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Criminello, today became Maureen, Kathleen, Eileen and Michael.

Their names were announced by the living hospital where they were delivered in a Caesarian operation, and officials happily said that the quads "are all in good condition."

Even Michael, who has had a little trouble with his breathing "has shown decided improvement," the hospital bulletin said. "His breathing is almost normal now."

And the proud 30-year-old mother, Kathleen, according to her physician John C. Ullery, "is progressing perfectly normally."

State Board Exam Passed By Nurses

Misses Jean Mersheimer and Thelma Book have successfully passed the state board examination for registration of nurses.

Miss Mersheimer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mersheimer and Miss Book is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Book of R. D. 6.

Both are graduates of the New Castle hospital, class of 1944. Miss Mersheimer has assumed duties in obstetrics in the New Castle hospital and Miss Book has assumed surgical duties in the Ellwood City hospital.

Perfect Weather For Heavy Voting In Eastern Area

Main Predicted In Central States.
Snow Flurries And Showers
In Coast Region

(International News Service)
Typical bright fall weather, offering no extremes sufficiently great to affect the voting of an estimated 50,000,000 American citizens was predicted for the country today by the weather bureau.

A fine autumn day was the forecast for most of the East by Benjamin Parry, meteorologist in charge of the New York weather bureau. Snow fell yesterday in northern New England, but only snow flurries were predicted for today in that sector.

Pennsylvania and Ohio were promised good weather.

Some rain was predicted for Indiana and lower Michigan. International News Service was informed.

Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and upper Michigan have had widespread rains, but the weather probably will be clear today.

Scattered showers were forecast for Oklahoma, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, New Mexico, West Texas and North and South Dakota. Snow flurries and showers were indicated for the mountain regions and clear weather for the west coast except Oregon and western Washington.

Ambulance Corps Receives Tribute

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The American field service volunteer ambulance corps, serving with the British and French armed forces, today received tribute from the governments of England and France.

At a ceremony yesterday spokesmen from both governments praised "the gallant volunteers" who have driven ambulances from Africa to Burma and messages were received from President Roosevelt, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery.

IN U. S. ARMED SERVICE

Nutrition Class To Start November 14

Twenty-Hour Red Cross Course Will Be Taught At Senior
High School

The Red Cross nutrition class previously announced will hold its initial meeting in the home economics department of the senior high school Tuesday, November 14, at 7:30 p. m. Miss Ruth Wallace, certified Red Cross instructor and faculty member of the home economics department, will teach the 20-hour course of 10 lessons. Students completing the course will receive the National American Red Cross nutrition certificate.

The course points out the relation of food and physical and mental well-being and attempts to encourage better food habits. Food preparation to preserve valuable minerals and vitamins is demonstrated. A study of community nutrition needs and available resources for supplying these needs is also considered.

Certificate holders of the standard nutrition course may next enroll in the canteen course through which members may give community service.

Call the Red Cross chapter house to enroll.

Free Food Tames

Even Kangaroos

HERSHEY, Pa., Nov. 7.—Cpl. Robert S. Roy of Hershey wrote his neighbor, Frank Bybee, this note from the timbers of Australia, and he holds up his right hand and says it is true:

"Here in Australia in these single story canvas apartments (no hot and cold running water yet), a G. I. Joe was awakened one morning recently by an affectionate kangaroo that was licking his face to get him to admire her peaceful young one lying contentedly on the comfortable blankets covering the sergeant's legs.

"They aren't often as tame as that, but they all roam the area begging for sweets or meat or anything the Yanks have to feed them with. Occasionally the dogs will get a streak of jealousy and chase them out for a few days; but there is something about free food that makes them come out of hiding."

Wood putty can be used to repair cracks in plaster. Best to use a putty knife that is reasonably flexible, so that the surface can be nicely smoothed down. Neat job will result if you use the plastic material very sparingly.

LONG on Expenses? SHORT of Cash?

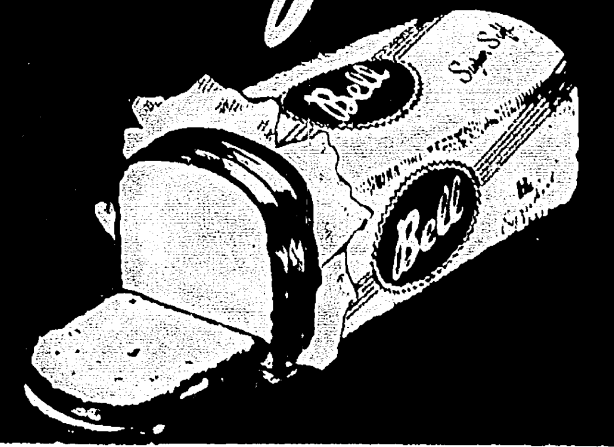

TODAY'S increased cost-of-living and the new Pay-As-You-Go Tax leave a lot less from each pay check for everyday needs. And when expenses like dental and medical care, house repairs or insurance premiums come along, they put a dent in the budget. In such cases, have you ever considered the advantages of a Personal loan? It provides $10 to $250 or more repayable in sensible monthly amounts.

Loans at Personal are arranged simply and privately on your furniture, auto, or signature. Co-signers are seldom required. To get a loan, come in, phone or write.

Perfect Weather For Heavy Voting In Eastern Area

Rain Predicted In Central States,
In Coast Region

(International News Service)
Typical bright fall weather, offering no extremes sufficiently great to affect the voting of an estimated 50,000,000 American citizens was predicted for the country today by the weather bureau.

"A fine autumn day" was the forecast for most of the East by Benjamin Parry, meteorologist in charge of the New York weather bureau. Snow fell yesterday in northern New England, but only snow flurries were predicted for today in that sector.

Pennsylvania and Ohio were promised good weather. Some rain was predicted for Indiana and lower Michigan. International News Service was informed, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and upper Michigan have had widespread rains, but the weather probably will be clear today.

Scattered showers were forecast for Oklahoma, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, New Mexico, West Texas and North and South Dakota. Snow flurries and showers were indicated for the mountain regions and clear weather for the west coast except Oregon and western Washington.

Ambulance Corps Receives Tribute

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The American field service, volunteer ambulance corps serving with the British and French armed forces, today received tribute from the governments of England and France. At a ceremony yesterday spokesmen from both governments praised "the gallant volunteers" who have driven ambulances from Africa to Burma and messages were received from President Roosevelt, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery.

Word is received here from Pvt. Paul M. McConnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. McConnell, New Wilmington, stating he has arrived safely in France.

After Victory—a sensational new motor fuel!

Early in the war, through development of new processes and plants, Sun Oil Company engineers produced the concentrate Dynafuel, which has so materially increased the quality and quantity of our aviation gasoline.

When military demands cease, these same advanced Sun Oil Company refineries will be converted to the manufacture of a new and greatly improved automobile fuel . . . and the name Sunoco Dynafuel will then be applied to this postwar product.

Remember that name Sunoco Dynafuel. Some day when you are again able to drive into your Sunoco station and say "fill 'er up" you're going to experience the greatest driving thrills you ever had.

Nutrition Class To Start November 14

Be Taught At Senior
High School

The Red Cross nutrition class previously announced will hold its initial meeting in the home economics department of the senior high school Tuesday, November 14, at 7:30 p. m. Miss Ruth Wallace, certified Red Cross instructor and faculty member of the home economics department, will teach the 20-hour course of 10 lessons. Students completing the course will receive the National American Red Cross nutrition certificate.

The course points out the relation of food and physical and mental well-being and attempts to encourage better food habits. Food preparation to preserve valuable minerals and vitamins is demonstrated. A study of community nutrition needs and available resources for supplying these needs is also considered.

Certificate holders of the standard nutrition course may next enroll in the canteen course through which members may give community service.

Call the Red Cross chapter house to enroll.

Free Food Tames Even Kangaroos

HERSHEY, Pa., Nov. 7.—Cpl. Robert S. Roy of Hershey wrote his neighbor, Frank Bybee, this tall tale from the timbers of Australia, and he holds up his right hand and says it is true.

"Here in Australia in these single-story canvas apartments (no hot and cold running water yet), a G. I. Joe was awakened one morning recently by an affectionate kangaroo that was licking his face to get him to admire her peaceful young one lying contentedly on the comfortable blankets covering the sergeant's legs.

"They aren't often as tame as that, but they all roam the area begging for sweets or meat or anything the Yanks have to feed them with. Occasionally the dogs will get a streak of jealousy and chase them out for a few days, but there is something about free food that makes them come out of hiding."

HARD-PRESSED NAZIS TRYING MANY TRICKS

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The hard-pressed Germans are trying all of the tricks in the bag—and without great success—to hamper Allied air action over the Reich. Lieut. Orris B. Johnson, commander of a P-61 "Black Widow" night fighter squadron, said today at U. S. Ninth Airforce headquarters.

"They are sending up jet fighters at night in increasing numbers," he said, "and they are the fastest things I have ever seen."

But, he added significantly, "They don't seem to give us much light."

He also described a new Nazi anti-aircraft weapon which threw huge balls of phosphorus fire into the skies.

"They seem to drip molten drops from the edges and explode again and again as they make a slow journey back to the ground," he added.

Another Nazi trick, Johnson said, was to explode dummy fighter planes in the air.

"That is a trick to make us think their planes are exploding in the air and are designed to confuse and upset us," Johnson said.

"This trick doesn't work either."

Fourth Report For War Fund Campaign Scheduled Friday

With an unofficial understanding that both the automobile division under L. Lewis, and the printing division under Robert Stricker have gone over the top, United War Fund and Community Chest leaders are hoping that the report meeting scheduled for Friday at 12:15 in the Castleton hotel, will be the last one.

If the job is not completed by then, and all quotas are not filled, then additional meetings will be necessary. Many quotas close to being filled at last Friday's meeting will probably be exceeded before the end of this week, the leaders believe.

Quotas for the automobile and printing divisions were $2,250 and $3,000, respectively. Other divisions not far below their quotas are the mercantile division under R. L. McCormack, construction, under H. M. Kirk, Jr.; banks, under Joel S. McKee; insurance, under James Beadel; attorneys, under Mrs. G. P. Johnson; doctors, under Mrs. W. J. Caldwell; school teachers and administration, under Miss Martha Matthews; homes, under Mrs. C. L. Shira; and utilities, under Paul J. Baldwin.

Middleburg Is Taken By Allies

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Field Marshal Sir Bernard Montgomery's assault troops, using boats and amphibious vehicles, crossed the flooded fields in the center of Walcheren Island today to enter Middleburg, capital and communications hub of the island as Allied forces swiftly mopped up the last German resistance south of the Maas and on the island.

There were fantastic scenes in the town as thousands of civilians thronged the streets to welcome their liberators, Reuter said. Fighting was impossible under such conditions and the Germans looked on in the role of spectators, according to Seaghan Maynes, Reuter correspondent with the 1st Canadian Army.

Churchill Sends Stalin Greetings

MOSCOW, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Soviet authorities made public today a message of greeting to Marshal Joseph Stalin from British Prime Minister Winston Churchill on the 27th anniversary of the Soviet revolution.

"It gives me great pleasure to send you my congratulations on the anniversary of the Soviet state," the message said.

"I wish your country and your self all success in peace as in war and I pray that the Anglo-Soviet alliance may be the cause of much benefit to our two countries to the United Nations and to the world."

Nazi Losses In Yugoslavia Heavy

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—German troops, cut off by partisan units in southern Yugoslavia, are undergoing a terrific battle and suffering heavy losses, the communiqué from Marshal Joseph Tito's headquarters said today.

The Vardar Valley between Skopje and the Albanian frontier, the life line of the retreating German troops, has become a great battle ground, it added.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 7.—The 1944 campaign turned out to be one of the most exciting in Pennsylvania since the bitter battle of 1928 when the late Alfred E. Smith was snuffed under by Herbert Hoover.

Before the party chiefs began thumping campaign drums, most of this year would go down as one of the most apathetic elections in history. Various reasons were advanced and there was no general disagreement. However when candidates began stumping the nation as well as the state unlimbering oratorical guns as they went, the campaign began in earnest.

The Pennsylvania State Educational Association, representing a majority of the state's school teachers, has been lobbying in congress for approval of a bill appropriating $300,000,000 annually for education.

The measure, sponsored June 2, 1943, by Congressman Ramspeck of Georgia, has not been reported by committee and a move was made to have the members discharged from further consideration of the bill. At last counting, 22 members of the 33 member Pennsylvania congressional delegation failed to sign the discharge petition.

The Ramspeck proposal would be shared by states in proportion to the number of students. Thus, Pennsylvania with one of the largest school enrollments in the nation, would get a sizeable slice of the fund.

HARD-PRESSED NAZIS TRYING MANY TRICKS

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The hard-pressed Germans are trying all of the tricks in the bag—and without great success—to hamper Allied air action over the Reich. Lieut. Orris B. Johnson, commander of a P-61 "Black Widow" night fighter squadron, said today at U. S. Ninth Air Force headquarters.

"They are sending up jet fighters at night in increasing numbers," he said, "and they are the fastest things I have ever seen."

But, he added significantly: "They don't seem to give us much fight."

He also described a new Nazi anti-aircraft weapon which threw huge balls of phosphorus fire into the skies.

"They seem to drip molten drops from the edges and explode again and again as they make a slow journey back to the ground," he added.

Another Nazi trick, Johnson said, was to explode dummy fighter planes in the air.

"That is a trick to make us think their planes are exploding in the air and are designed to confuse and upset us," Johnson said.

Fourth Report For War Fund Campaign Scheduled Friday

With an unofficial understanding that both the automobile division under L. J. Lewis and the printing division under Robert Strickler have gone over the top, United War Fund and Community Chest leaders are hoping that the report meeting scheduled for Friday at 12:15, in The Castleton hotel, will be the last one.

If the job is not completed by then, and all quotas are not filled, then additional meetings will be necessary. Many quotas close to being filled at last Friday's meeting will probably be exceeded before the end of this week, the leaders believe.

Quotas for the automobile and printing divisions were $2,250 and $3,000, respectively. Other divisions not far below their quotas are the mercantile division under R. L. Meermans; construction under H. M. Kirk, Jr.; banks, under Joel S. McKee; insurance, under James Roadie; attorneys, under Mrs. G. P. Johnson; doctors, under Mrs. W. J. Caldwell; school teachers and administration, under Miss Martha Mathews; homes, under Mrs. C. L. Shira; and utilities, under Paul J. Baldwin.

Middleburg Is Taken By Allies

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Field Marshal Sir Bernard Montgomery's assault troops, using boats and amphibious vehicles, crossed the flooded fields in the center of Walcheren Island today to enter Middleburg, capital and communications hub of the island as Allied forces swiftly mopped up the last German resistance south of the Maas and on the island.

There were fantastic scenes in the town as thousands of civilians thronged the streets to welcome their liberators, Reuter said. Fighting was impossible under such conditions and the Germans looked on in the role of spectators, according to Seaghan Maynes, Reuter correspondent with the 1st Canadian Army.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 7.—The 1944 campaign turned out to be one of the most exciting in Pennsylvania since the bitter battle of 1932 when the late Alfred E. Smith was snubbed under by Herbert Hoover. Before he party chiefs began thumping campaign drums, most of the political rank and file thought this year would go down as one of the most apathetic elections in history. Various reasons were advanced and there was no general disagreement. However when candidates began stamping the nation as well as the state unimbering oratorical guns as they went, the campaign began in earnest.

The Pennsylvania State Educational Association, representing a majority of the state's school teachers, has been lobbying in congress for approval of a bill appropriating $300,000 annually for education.

The measure, sponsored June 2, 1943, by Congressman Ramspeck, of Georgia, has not been reported by committee and a move was made to have the members discharged from further consideration of the bill. At last counting, 22 members of the 33 member Pennsylvania congressional delegation failed to sign the discharge petition.

The Ramspeck proposal would be shared by states in proportion to the number of students. Thus, Pennsylvania with one of the largest school enrollments in the nation, would get a sizeable slice of the fund. Two thirds of the money would be used for adjusting teachers' salaries and reducing crowded classes while the balance would be earmarked for "equalization of educational opportunity among states."

The geological survey section of the Department of Internal Affairs has taken a light job at the general assembly for slashing biennial appropriations each session. The survey, launched September 1, 1919, has college geologists on the payroll on per diem basis in addition to the regular staff. The initial appropriation, survey officials pointed out, was $100,000 and the following year it was boosted to $200,000. In 1923, the sum was reduced to $180,000 and nine years later it had been scaled down to $15,000. The current appropriation which expires May 31, 1945, was for $134,000. The value of mineral production in Pennsylvania ranges from half a million dollars to one and a quarter billion dollars a year, said Director George H. Ashley. "If it averages $670,000,000, the $67,000 available each year for survey work would be 1-100 of a cent for every dollar of production."

Black Out Of Joe Louis' Fold?

Reports To This Effect Follow Roxborough-Jacob Powwow In Gotham

DIVISION OF SPOILS MAY BE RESPONSIBLE

By DAVIS J. WALSH
(International News Service Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—It seems, according to some of our very best off-the-cuff gabbles around here, that the old triumvirate of Joe Louis, Julian S. Black and John Roxborough may be about to become a twosome, with Black winding up on the sidewalk sitting upon his dignity, so to say. Just what it is that the rest of this combination may have against Brother Black is something that only the deeply inscrutable mind of a boxing tactician and numbers' man can hope to know.

But the understanding is that there was a meeting of some importance in Mike Jacobs' office yesterday. And that decision may have been reached at that time affecting the long-existing compact by which the world's heavyweight champion, his co-managers, and Mike have cut up very succulent casaba. . . . Somewhere, in fact, between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000.

Too Many Cuts?
Maybe they think the cutting has been too widespread and profuse, that one less implement at these surgical functions, to be resumed on a grand scale, they hope, after the war, would not and could not be deemed wholly amiss, if only in the interest of mathematics. And, in fact, that there's much to be said for the old proverb of the ancient Mohammedans, handed down to boxing (and those who hold its ideals so dear) long ago from a monastery high in the Himalayas, and which roughly reads as follows:

"The gentlest who cutteth alone on right now; but of course the idea hasn't been fully perfected yet—and you've got to agree, according to the rear-staircase whisper, that somebody's kind of working on it."

No Written Agreement.
However, all you can hear in town—from people in a position to know what's going on around here—is that if Julian S. Black is eased out of the management of Joe Louis, they say, like Roxborough, doesn't greatly care. Black. But that isn't the way Louis talked when last we discussed with him, in Chicago, a rather insistent rumor that both managers were to go. Said he, on that occasion:

"I've always done all right with them. Why should I change now?" The main trouble with this question was that the man doing the asking was the only one who could answer it. There might be a million reasons why he thought there should be a change, or he might want to make it for no reason at all.

We don't profess to know much, or anything, about this beautiful comeder that has been going on for so many years among those who have handled all of Louis' business and a good deal of his money. But we do know this:

It has been said quite often that there has never been a contract among any of them which is certainly a very fine thing for all except maybe Mr. Black.

For, according to what you hear around town, he's the only participant who might be going to need one.

Ellwood Preps For Aliquippa

Undeclared, Untied Wolverines Await Invasion Of Steelers, Friday

(Special To The News)
ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 7.—Today was election day to the folks, but to the undefeated and untied Ellwood City High Wolverine football team it was just another day in which to prepare for the invasion on Friday night of the once-beaten, powerful Aliquippa High football team. The kickoff at Lincoln field at eight o'clock will find a jam-packed mass of humanity on hand for the proceedings.

This is the contest scheduled for October 20 and called off by a rainstorm. Ellwood will be ready for the Steelers, it was indicated by Coach Howard Gills and "Ted" Wallace. Ellwood must win this one to put in a Class AA championship claim to the W. P. I. A. A. committee next week at their meeting of the football community.

Must Stop Potoczny.
Ellwood had a fairly easy time of it last Friday, trouncing the Beaver Falls Tigers, 18 to 0, at Beaver Falls, while Aliquippa had to give out with everything in the book to beat a crippled New Castle team, 12 to 0. Ellwood, on paper, is one or two touchdowns superior to Aliquippa, despite the 27 to 0 defeat handed Beaver Falls at Aliquippa. The Steelers have a one-man backfield in Joe Potoczny, and if he is stopped the entire Aliquippa offense is thrown in confusion.

With Potoczny out of the backfield, Aliquippa is just another ball club, and beatable. Potoczny is strong and rangy and leads the interference when he is not carrying the ball, which isn't very often.

FOR THREE YEARS DON WAS A RELIEF MAN BUT NOW HE MEANS TO PROVE HE RIGHT TO A STARTING ROLE

Fair Or Foul

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The 1944 Notre Dame football team is one of the worst spots ever occupied by one of the eleven teams that customarily come rolling out of South Bend to wreak football havoc up and down the land.

The Navy seemed to indicate that the Irish haven't got much this season after all, and that is the news the Army has been waiting to hear. The Army meets Notre Dame next Saturday and—assuming that human nature is about the same everywhere in this broad land of ours—will go out to do two things, (1) tromple Notre Dame and (2) do it by a bigger score than that 32 to 13 run up by Navy.

Irish Had Long Reign.
The two service eleven have felt the heel of the Irish for years. Navy hadn't whipped Notre Dame for eight years until Saturday and then promptly made it the most one-sided defeat in the series.

Army hasn't scored a touchdown against Notre Dame in five years, has scored only seven points in seven years and hasn't won a game from the Irish in 13 years. Notre Dame has won 22, lost 5 and tied 3 with the Army going back to the first game in 1913 which Notre Dame won by 35 to 13.

The game is so unpredictable that it is within the realm of possibility that Notre Dame will beat Army or hold the score close, but nothing like that is indicated at this time. Army is on the move, and patiently keyed up, buoyed, bolstered and eager for this chance to avenge all that has transpired in the past, with the result that it may be a rout.

This Army team hasn't met anything quite up to the standard of Notre Dame. But this Army team has made good and fair teams look silly, in running up 380 points against 21 for the greatest scoring year in the history of the academy.

Irish Better Be Good.
Notre Dame will have to be about two touchdowns better than the game played against Navy and the Army eleven will have to be off stride by about four touchdowns to make Saturday's encounter anywhere near close. That combination doesn't seem to be in the cards.

Army beat a fair Villanova team last Saturday by 33 to 0 as a follow up to a 27 to 0 win over the Duke team that earlier held Navy to 7 to 0, and last Saturday beat the rambling Georgia Tech eleven.

Army beat Villanova this way. The first team scored three touchdowns in the first period; the second team scored six times in the second period. The Army's odds and ends of players played three more in the last two periods which were cut to eight minutes by the Army to keep the humiliation from mounting higher. On top of it all, Army resorted to such tactics as kicking for field goals on second down and they played without the services of Doc Blanchard and Bobby Dobbs, two of their more devastating backs.

There will be close to 80,000 spectators in the stadium next Saturday to see this renewal of the Army-Notre Dame rivalry and it seems almost certain that they must witness finally an Army triumph, something some of them have grown long while beards waiting for.

Bessemer-Freedom Game Is Saturday
(Special To The News)
BESSEMER, Nov. 7.—Bessemer high school football team resumed training Monday afternoon for the game against Freedom Saturday afternoon at Freedom. The kickoff is slated for 2:30 o'clock. Incidentally this is an Armistice Day game and will be played in conjunction with a Freedom celebration.

The game was originally set for Friday afternoon, but the Freedom officials asked for the change, in order to play holiday game. Bessemer beaten in the last four games by—Hopewell, Zellenople, Shenango and Girard, hope to snap out of it this week, and dump Freedom.

Captain Joe Weresuk will have his full strength in the Freedom game; it was indicated, with a possibility that Wilbur Anderson may be back in uniform by Saturday.

Bessemer will close the season Thursday evening, November 10, at Mars; it was announced by School Principal Chandler B. McMillin.

Union Football Season At End

Union Wins Two, Ties One And Loses Five, Eight Seniors End Careers

Union high school football team has ended the 1944 grid season and is looking ahead to the 1945 campaign. Coach Pat Peterson and School Principal Milton Patisson announced today.

Union won two games, tied one and lost five the past season. The highlight of course was stunning 12 to 7 upset of the favored Shenango High eleven that earned for the Unionites a tie for the Lawrence county class B football championship when Shenango in turn defeated the highly touted Bessemer team.

Eight Play Last Game.
Eight seniors played their final game for Union last Saturday in the rain at Midland—Elmer Bigley, Ben Korab, Phil Clark, Connie Brown, Louis Kreuger, Ken Hanna, Larry Rotunno and Bob Shaughnessy.

The graduation of the above boys will leave quite a hole to be filled next season when it comes time to formulate another Union High varsity. All of the seniors have played good football and will be missed.

Record For 1944
Union 0, Ellwood City 44.
Union 12, Mars 30.
Union 31, Poland, O. 0.
Union 0, Evans City 0.
Union 0, Bessemer 20.
Union 0, Zellenople 7.
Union 12, Shenango 7.
Union 0, Midland 31.
Total—Union 55, opponents 139.

CAMPFIRE CORNER

PHASANT OPENER

Opening day of pheasant season has come and gone, and before sunset had put an end to slogging through swales, marching down rows of corn and prospecting game pockets and fence rows. I was almost ready to agree with the game warden who had told me that "there isn't a pheasant within 25 miles of here this year."

Birds "Know" Law.
The game protector wasn't 100 per cent correct, though, because I did bag two roosters, flushed two more at a distance, and scared up a couple of protected hens. The Missus, who was with me on that first bird hunt of the season, managed to down one gorgeous victim with her 20-gauge. But we worked for 'em! This in spite of my having flushed seven birds in the area a couple of days previously. I've always suspected the wily pheasant knows his game laws and now I'm pretty well convinced of it. The daily limit here is three roosters per hunter and the possession limit is six.

Pheasant Hunting Is Often at Its Best Early in the Morning. But nary a bird did we see before noon. Shortly after 12 o'clock, as I plodded toward the end of a trek between two rows of corn, I glimpsed a movement on the ground some 35 yards ahead of me.

It's a thrill that only the upland bird hunter can experience—the tense second before your game bursts into action and you have to swing quick and true to stop it. In this case the ringneck sprang up directly between the corn rows, affording a rather easy target, though the maize stalks were so tall as to interfere with my vision.

Uses No. 6 Shot.
He proved to be a young fellow, not too heavy but one that I knew would make a tasty and tender dish. The pellets of No. 6 shot that were his undoing struck him squarely in the back, so his legs and breast were much damaged. My second bird, an old-timer that should have known better than to linger in the vicinity when warned by the crackling of catcalls and long grass at the edge of the swale where he had taken refuge, I bagged with a long-range, more or less lucky shot as he started a swing to the right.

Indian Summer Day.
He fell into a tangle of marsh grass and willows. Fortunately, he was killed outright or, at the least, the Labrador pup, and I might have had some trouble locating him. To sum up, a good time was had by all, including the pup. It was a perfect Indian summer day.

Warren Hopes To Even Series

New Castle Leads In Series To Date With Five Wins, To Four For Warren

LOCAL BACKFIELD IS STILL CRIPPLED

New Castle high school football team is faced with another powerful opponent, this coming Friday night at Warren, O., when they must face the Warren Presidents at the Ohio stadium at 8 o'clock Ohio time or 9 o'clock New Castle time.

Warren has another imposing team this year having won six games, lost one and tied one. New Castle has won two and lost seven, none having been tied. Last year Warren won 14 to 6 after a tough scrap and expect to do a lot better this year. In the series to date New Castle has the edge, having won five, lost four and tied two. Warren can even it up with five and five by winning this season.

Defeated Massillon.
The Warren-New Castle scores never have been very large except in 1940 when New Castle had a powerhouse team and rolled up a 33 to 0 count.

Cleveland East Tech is the only team to dump the Warrens this season, and by a 12 to 7 count. Warren tied Campbell Memorial's big eleven 13-13. Wins have been registered by Warren over such teams as Massillon 32 to 12, Niles 19 to 0, Youngstown 39 to 6, Hubbard 24 to 0, Canton McKinley 27 to 26, and Woodrow Wilson of Youngstown (no score available).

New Castle on the other hand has experienced its worst season in 20 some years, and have won but two games. Butler and Perry High of Pittsburgh.

Backfield Still Crippled.
New Castle High resumed training at the stadium yesterday for the Warren game and finds the backfield situation no better than it has been all season. John Benigas, halfback, who had been out since the Altoona game with a bad knee, was in the Aliquippa game and suffered a recurring injury. He may not even be in uniform for the Warren game.

There is little likelihood of Buzzar Shaffer, the halfback, out since the Warren game, getting in the Warren battle, and no chance for Jim Garberry, the converted end (who looked good at fullback until breaking his collarbone) getting in the final one.

The New Castle backfield for the Warren game will likely have Chuck Sallie at quarter, William Andrews and Sammy Flora at the halves, and Billy Walls at fullback, although the color line plunger is not feeling any too good with a bad leg suffered in the Altoona game.

Tickets for the Warren game went on sale today at 10 o'clock at the Sporting Goods store. Indications are that quite a large crowd will follow the New Castle team to the thriving Ohio industrial metropolis.

Black Out Of Joe Louis' Fold?

Reports To This Effect Follow Roxborough-Jacob Powwow In Gotham

DIVISION OF SPOILS MAY BE RESPONSIBLE

By DAVIS J. WALSH
(International News Service Staff Writer)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—It seems, according to some of our very best off-the-cuff gabbles around here, that the old triumvirate of Joe Louis, Julian S. Black and John Roxborough may be about to become a twosome, with Black winding up out on the sidewalk sitting upon his dignity, so to say. Just what it is that the rest of this combination may have against Brother Black is something that only the deeply inscrutable mind of a boxing tactician and number's man can hope to know.

But the understanding is that there was a meeting of some importance in Mike Jacobs' office yesterday. And that decisions may have been reached at that time affecting the long-existing compact by which the world's heavyweight champion, his co-managers and Mike have cut up very successful casha. . . . Some-where, in fact, between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000.

Maybe they think the cutting has been too widespread and profuse, that one less implement at these surgical functions (to be resumed on a grand scale, they hope, after the war) would not and could not be deemed wholly amiss, if only in the interest of mathematics. And, in fact, that there's much to be said for the old proverb of the ancient Mohammedans, handed down to boxing and those who hold its ideals (so dear) long, long ago from a monastery high in the Himalayas; and which roughly reads as follows:

He cutteth fastest who cutteth alone.

There isn't any lonely cutting going on right now, but of course the idea hasn't been fully perfected yet—and you've got to agree, according to the rear-staircase whisperers, that somebody's kind of working on it.

No Written Agreement

However, all you can hear in town—from people in a position to know what's going on around here—is that if Julian S. Black is eased out of the management of Joe Louis, they say, like Roxborough, doesn't greatly fancy Black. But that isn't the way Louis talked when last we discussed with him, in Chicago, a rather insistent rumor that both managers were to go. Said he on that occasion:

"I've always done all right with them. Why should I change now?"

The main trouble with this question was that the man doing the asking was the only one who could answer it. There might be a million reasons why he thought there should be a change, or he might want to make it for no reason at all.

We don't profess to know much, or anything, about this beautiful comradery that has been going on for so many years among those who have handled all of Louis' business and a good deal of his money. But we do know this:

It has been said quite often that there has never been a contract among any of them which is certainly a very fine thing for all except maybe Mr. Black.

(Special To The News)

BESSEMER, Nov. 7.—Bessemer high school football team resumed training Monday afternoon for the game this coming Saturday afternoon at Freedom. The kickoff is slated for 2:30 o'clock. Incidentally this is an Armistice Day game and will be played in conjunction with a Freedom celebration.

The game was originally set for Friday afternoon, but the Freedom officials asked for the change, in order to play holiday game. Bessemer beaten in the last four games by—Hopewell, Zelenople, Shenango and Girard, hope to snap out of it this week and dump Freedom.

Coach Joe Weresuk will have his full strength in the Freedom game, it was indicated, with a possibility that Wilbur Anderson may be back in uniform by Saturday.

Bessemer will close the season Thursday evening, November 16, at Mars, it was announced by School Principal Chandler B. McMullen.

May Alternate

With Buddy Young

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 7.—(INS)—Coach Ray Eliot of the University of Illinois football squad, who personally scouted Michigan last Saturday, has taken Don Greenwood from his quarterback position and is alternating him with Buddy Young at halfback in preparation for the Wolverines' homecoming game Saturday. Eliot also promoted Lester Joop to a regular left tackle job.

Union Football Season At End

Union Wins Two, Ties One And Loses Five, Eight Seniors End Careers

Union high school football team has ended the 1944 grid season and is looking ahead to the 1945 campaign. Coach Pat Patterson and School Principal Milton Pattison announced today.

Union won two games, tied one and lost five past season. The highlight of course was stunning 12 to 7 upset of the favored Shenango High eleven that earned the Unionies a tie for the Lawrence county class B football championship when Shenango in turn defeated the highly touted Bessemer team.

Eight Play Last Game

Eight seniors played their final game for Union last Saturday in the rain at Midland—Elmer Bigley, Ben Korab, Phil Clark, Connie Brown, Louis Krueger, Ken Hanna, Larry Rotunno and Bob Shaughnessy.

The graduation of the above boys will leave quite a hole to be filled next season when it comes time to formulate another Union High varsity. All of the seniors have played good football and will be missed.

Record For 1944

Union 0, Ellwood City 44.
Union 12, Mars 30.
Union 31, Poland 0.
Union 0, Evans City 0.
Union 0, Bessemer 20.
Union 0, Zelenople 7.
Union 12, Shenango 7.
Union 0, Midland 31.
Total—Union 55, opponents 139.

If the food grinder needs sharpening, run a piece of sandpaper through it as you wood food. This cleans and sharpens the knives. Wash thoroughly afterwards in boiling water to remove traces of soaps one.

Tisn't wasteful. A lump of salt dissolved in the kitchen sink once in a while will help to keep it sanitary.

PHEASANT OPENER

Opening day of pheasant season has come and gone, and before sunset had put an end to sloping through swales, marching down rows of corn and prospecting game pockets and fence rows I was almost ready to agree with the game warden who had told me that "there isn't a pheasant within 25 miles of here this year."

Birds "Know" Law

The game protector wasn't 100 per cent correct, though, because I did bag two roosters, flushed two more at a distance and scared up a couple of protected hens. The Missus, who was with me on that first bird hunt of the season, managed to down one gorgeous victim with her 20 gauge. But we worked for 'em! This in spite of my having flushed seven birds in the area a couple of days previously. I've always suspected the wily pheasant knows his game laws and now I'm pretty well convinced of it. The daily limit here is three roosters per hunter and the possession limit is six.

Affairs Easy Target

Pheasant hunting is often at its best early in the morning, but navy shortly after 12 o'clock as I plodded toward the end of a trek between two rows of corn. I glimpsed a movement on the ground some 35 yards ahead of me.

It's a thrill that only the upland bird hunter can experience—the tense second before your game bursts into action and you have to swing quick and true to stop it. In this case the ringneck sprang up directly between the corn rows, affording a rather easy target, though the maize stalks were so tall as to interfere with my vision.

Uses No. 6 Shot

He proved to be a young fellow, not too heavy but one that I knew would make a tasty and tender dish. The pellets of No. 6 shot that were his undoing struck him squarely in the back, so his legs and breast weren't much damaged. My second bird, an old timer that should have known better than to linger in the vicinity when warned by the crackling of catcalls and long grass at the edge of the swale where he had taken refuge, I bagged with a long-range, more or less lucky shot as he started a swing to the right.

Indian Summer Day

He fell into a tangle of marsh grass and willows. Fortunately, he was killed outright or Cap, the Labrador pup, and I might have had some trouble locating him. To sum up, a good time was had by all, including the pup. It was a perfect Indian summer day.

Warren Hopes To Even Series

New Castle Leads In Series To Date With Five Wins, To Four For Warren

LOCAL BACKFIELD IS STILL CRIPPLED

New Castle high school football team is faced with another powerful opponent this coming Friday night at Warren, O., when they must face the Warren Presidents at the Ohio stadium at 8 o'clock Ohio time or 9 o'clock New Castle time.

Warren has another imposing team this year, having won six games, lost one and tied one. New Castle has won two and lost seven, none having been tied. Last year Warren won 14 to 6 after a tough scrap and expect to do a lot better this year. In the series to date New Castle has the edge, having won five, lost four and tied two. Warren can even it up with five and five by winning this season.

Defeated Maxwell

The Warren-New Castle scores never have been very large except in 1940 when New Castle had a powerhouse team and rolled up a 33 to 0 count.

Cleveland East Tech is the only team to dump the Warrens this season and by a 12 to 7 count. Warren tied Campbell Memorial's big eleven 13-13. Wins have been registered by Warren over such teams as Maxwell 32 to 12, Niles 19 to 6, Youngstown Rayen 39 to 6, Hubbard 34 to 0, Canton McKinley 27 to 26, and Woodrow Wilson of Youngstown (no score available).

New Castle on the other hand has experienced its worst season in 20 some years and have won but two games. Butler and Perry High of Pittsburgh.

Backfield Still Crippled

New Castle high resumed training at the stadium yesterday for the Warren game and finds the backfield situation no better than it has been all season. John Benigas, halfback, who had been out since the Altoona game with a bad knee, was in the Aliquippa game and suffered a recurring injury. He may not even be in uniform for the Warren game.

There is little likelihood of Buzzer Panella, the halfback out since the Sharon game, getting in the Warren battle, and no chance for Jim Garberry, the converted end who looked good at fullback until breaking his collarbone getting in the final one.

The New Castle backfield for the Warren game will likely have Chuck Sallie at quarter, William Andrews and Sammy Flora at the halves and Billy Wells at fullback although the colored line plunger is not feeling any too good with a bad leg suffered in the Altoona game.

Tickets for the Warren game went on sale today at 10 o'clock at the Sporting Goods store. Indications are that quite a large crowd will follow the New Castle team to the thriving Ohio industrial metropolis.

Quail when scared never go farther than 10 miles from their habitat. "They're a ground bird" or as Owen Fox reports, "they depend upon their feet."

Sniscak Rejoins Pitt Panthers

Sniscak left the team after the Illinois game when summoned for military service but his draft board delayed his induction until December.

Bond Rallies At Spring Company Plant Monday

Jumping the gun by a couple of weeks, the employees of the Standard Steel Spring company started their own sixth war loan campaign Monday, November 6, with two rallies in the plant auditorium, one at 10:30 a. m. and one at 3:15 p. m. The formal opening of the campaign starts November 20, but the Spring company men and women have the same idea of bond campaigns as they do in making bombs. Get the job done early and quickly.

Both meetings were what is known in theatrical parlance as "shows". Men left the bomb lines and furnaces, girls left the offices and all of them gathered in the auditorium, two groups of home front soldiers who have been doing a grand job of providing war materials and also of providing the stuff that buys war materials. And as one sat upon the platform and looked at the crowds over the idea seemed to permeate the air that here was a crowd that was going to the job, and quickly.

Wounded Vets.
Two wounded veterans from DeShon, annex in Cunningham park featured the rallies. Corporal Warren Pawling and Private Rolf Heilmann, both wounded in Italy and convalescing at the annex now. Both spoke at the rallies but briefly. Men like these two don't have to say much, just the fact they are present is a grim reminder of the job to do.

Earl M. Brookover presided at the rallies. Opening them the crowds sang "America" directed by Bill Richards with Miss Olive Webb at the piano.

Speakers included Joseph Booth, an official of the plant local union; Jack Grittle, head of the CIO here; T. C. McClain, plant superintendent; and Rev. V. V. Stancelewski, pastor of St. Philip and James church, who was the principal speaker.

Keep Up the Work
The theme of Rev. Stancelewski's talks was "keep up the good work". He lauded the employees for the fine response to previous campaigns of all kinds, reminded them the job overseas was far from over and expressed confidence that the sixth war loan would be put over in the usual fine style.

Superintendent McClain said the quota for the plant was set at $50,000 and in his quiet way said the job would be done. In this decision he was joined by the men and women present.

Following the programs, some motion pictures of war activities were shown by Clarence M. England of the Pennsylvania Power company. The two rallies were good omens of the outcome of the sixth war loan campaign in Lawrence county. Men and women of the Standard Steel Spring company know the necessity of raising money for war purposes for they have been making the bombs that have been tearing fortress Europe apart. They not only make the bombs, they are prepared to do their bit in paying the bill, and the rallies Monday were ample proof of this frame of mind.

Former Pastor's Soldier Son Safe

Recently a report reached this city that a son of Rev. Samuel Whilding, of Jackson, Ohio, serving in France, was killed in action. Henry T. Jones, of Waldo street, has received word from Rev. Whilding stating that the report is untrue. Another pastor's son of Jackson was killed in action, and Rev. Whilding believes that the Jackson pastors names were mentioned in error.

Rev. Whilding, who was a former pastor of the First Congregational church here, recently received word from his son, stating that he was well.

World Fellowship Y.W.C.A. Dinner

Program Planned For All-Association Dinner At Cathedral Thursday Evening

Y. W. C. A. World Fellowship dinner will be celebrated Thursday evening at 6 o'clock in the Scottish Rite Cathedral dining room. This is an annual all-association luncheon dinner, which this year will be held according to birth month tables with Y. W. C. A. board and committee chairmen, club presidents and G. R. advisers as hostesses.

The program, which is in charge of the World Fellowship committee, Mrs. J. Glenn Berry chairman and Mrs. Jesse Kerr co-chairman and 15 representatives of Y. W. C. A. club groups, will begin with group singing by Miss Esther Gibbons and Mrs. Benjamin Gibbons, Richards. A worship service for World Fellowship Week in Y. W. C. A.'s and Y. W. C. A.'s all over the world will follow.

An original play by the Shenango Girl Reserve club, Miss Frances Booser adviser and Lois McIlwraith president, written by one of their members, Grace McCandless, will conclude the program. The play entitled "Post-War World" takes place in a court room in which Babbalanja is the plaintiff and Brotherhood the defendant.

All Y. W. C. A. members and club groups are urged to register by calling the Y. W. C. A. 6210 by Tuesday evening.

Lt. E. Splawinski Wins Oak Cluster

First Lieut. Edward W. Splawinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Splawinski, 1613 Hanna street, has been awarded the oak leaf cluster to his previously won air medal because of his heroic performance of duty during bomber combat operations over Germany and German-occupied Europe.

Pilot of a B-17 Flying Fortress based in England, Lt. Splawinski is a member of a pioneer heavy bombardment group, which is the combat home of such famous fliers as the "Memphis Belle" and "General Ike". He has been in the air force since March, 1939. His brother John is in the navy.

Pfc. Rocco Mancino Gets Purple Heart

Mrs. Helen Mancino, 229 South Cochran avenue, received the medal of the Purple Heart awarded to her husband, Pfc. Rocco Mancino of the U. S. Infantry in France.

Pfc. Mancino was wounded twice, the first time while in combat in France sometime in July. Upon recovery he again resumed combat duty and received his second wound on August 24 in France.

He is now convalescing in a hospital, somewhere in England.

Pfc. Mancino has been in army service for 14 months and overseas for seven months.

He is the son of Mrs. Concetta Masco, Youngstown, O.

OCD NOTES

Frank T. Sargent, co-ordinator of the OCD and recently named assistant to Disaster Committee Chairman D. O. Davies, today requested all members of the OCD who intend to participate in the Armistice evening parade to wear their arm band. He will announce soon the station to which all members are to report for their position in the line of march.

He also announced that some branches of the OCD are to be reorganized according to an announcement from Harrisburg. Air Raid wardens are to get an addition to their title which will include the word "Emergency". Those who qualify for the work will receive new cards and means of identification.

Soldier Brothers Meet On Oahu Island

Robert And Jacob Ippolito Meet In Pacific. Four Brothers In Service

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ippolito of Wampum have received word that their two sons, Sgt. Robert Ippolito and S. 2-c Jacob Ippolito, Jr., recently met on the island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands.

One day, Bob was sweeping the barracks, singing the while, when he heard some one say "That's a right, bum singing". Bob recognized the voice as that of his brother Jacob, and of course there was a happy reunion. They had not seen each other for a year.

Sgt. Ippolito has been in the service almost two years and overseas for six months. S. 2-c Ippolito joined the service a year ago and has been in service all over the Pacific for nine months.

There are two more brothers in the service, Cpl. Harrison Ippolito at headquarters eighth air force in England for 27 months, and Cpl. Francis Ippolito, army air corps radio operator, stationed at McDill Field, Fla., in service for two years.

Home Planners May Have Special Class

Members of the New Castle Planners club may be taking courses in home planning this winter. A schedule of classes worked out by the First Federal Savings and Loan is carried out, Norman Clark, executive vice-president of First Federal announced today.

The classes, which are offered by Pennsylvania State College, will begin about January 10, continue until about March 31. Subjects taken up at various meetings will include developing a plan, location, costs, actual building, legal problems, and financing.

Marine Corps Is 169 Years Old

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The United States Marine Corps, which celebrates its 169th anniversary this week, has recruited 15,200 men in the western Pennsylvania area since Pearl Harbor, it was disclosed today.

Among the men who particularly distinguished themselves are congressional medal of honor winners, Lt. Mitchell Paige of Mifflin township and Lt. Francis J. Tachovsky, Allegheny steel worker, whose bravery on Tarawa atoll won him the silver star.

Philippines To Pass Out Medals

LEYTE, Philippines, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Every soldier of General Douglas MacArthur's invasion force will receive the Philippine Campaign of Liberation after 30 days of service, it was announced today by Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, Philippine minister of information.

A second ribbon—the Philippine Defense Ribbon—will go to those who participated in the Corregidor and Bataan campaigns.

The Campaign of Liberation Ribbon will have two small vertical blue and white stripes against a background of red. The Defense Ribbon will be red with narrow white vertical stripes at each end with three stars arranged vertically in the center, representing Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao, the three island groups within the Philippines.

All Y. W. C. A. members and club groups are urged to register by calling the Y. W. C. A. 6210 by Tuesday evening.

Lt. E. Splawinski Wins Oak Cluster

First Lieut. Edward W. Splawinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Splawinski, 1613 Hanna street, has been awarded the oak leaf cluster to his previously won air medal because of his heroic performance of duty during bomber combat operations over Germany and German-occupied Europe.

Pilot of a B-17 Flying Fortress based in England, Lt. Splawinski is a member of a pioneer heavy bombardment group, which is the combat home of such famous fliers as the "Memphis Belle" and "General Ike". He has been in the air force since March, 1939. His brother John is in the navy.

Pfc. Rocco Mancino Gets Purple Heart

Mrs. Helen Mancino, 229 South Cochran avenue, received the medal of the Purple Heart awarded to her husband, Pfc. Rocco Mancino of the U. S. infantry in France.

Pfc. Mancino was wounded twice, the first time while in combat in France sometime in July. Upon recovery he again resumed combat duty and received his second wound on August 24 in France.

He is now convalescing in a hospital, somewhere in England.

Pfc. Mancino has been in army service for 14 months and overseas for seven months.

OCD NOTES

Frank T. Sargent, co-ordinator of the OCD and recently named assistant to Disaster Committee Chairman D. O. Davies, today requested all members of the OCD who intend to participate in the Armistice evening parade to wear their arm band. He will announce soon the station to which all members are to report for their position in the line of march.

He also announced that some branches of the OCD are to be reorganized according to an announcement from Harrisburg. Air Raid wardens are to get an addition to their title which will include the word "Emergency". Those who qualify for the work will receive new cards and means of identification.

Soldier Brothers Meet On Oahu Island

Robert And Jacob Ippolito Meet In Pacific; Four Brothers In Service

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ippolito of Wampum have received word that their two sons, Sgt. Robert Ippolito and S. 2-c Jacob Ippolito Jr., recently met on the island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands.

One day, Bob was sweeping the barracks, singing the while, when he heard some one say "That's awful bum singing." Bob recognized the voice as that of his brother Jacob, and of course there was a happy reunion. They had not seen each other for a year.

Sgt. Ippolito has been in the service almost two years and overseas for six months. S. 2-c Ippolito joined the service a year ago and has been in service all over the Pacific for nine months.

There are two more brothers in the service, Cpl. Harrison Ippolito at headquarters, eighth air force in England for 27 months, and Cpl. Francis Ippolito, army air corps radio operator, stationed at McDill Field, Fla., in service for two years.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT FOURTH TERM WINNER

DEWEY CARRIES LAWRENCE COUNTY BY ABOUT 1,800

Other Republican Candidates Given Lead In County — Soldier Vote May Be Deciding Factor In Some Races, Especially In Congress Battle.

On the basis of the unofficial civilian returns in the election Tuesday, November 7, Lawrence county stayed in the Republican column by a slight margin in the presidential race and by more substantial margins in some of the other races.

With the 99 precincts of the county complete at four o'clock this morning Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York carried the county over President Franklin D. Roosevelt by a vote of 17,772 to 15,938. This figure will be changed by the military ballots which will be counted November 22 but just which way they will be changed is anybody's guess.

For the United States Senate James J. Davis, present Republican incumbent, polled 17,140 to 14,943 for Francis J. Myers, Democrat. For the State Supreme Court the present incumbent Judge Howard W. Hughes polled 17,449 votes as against 14,678 for Charles Alvin Jones.

For the Superior Court, the two Republicans, Arthur H. James and J. Frank Graff, polled 16,765 and 16,508 votes respectively. The Democratic candidates, Chester H. Rhodes, the latter an incumbent, polled 14,935 and 14,143 votes respectively.

For State Treasurer the Republican candidate Edgar G. Baird, Jr., polled 17,148 votes and Ramsey S. Black, Democrat, 14,718. For Auditor-General G. Harold Watkins, Republican, polled 17,188 votes as against 14,872 for G. Harold Wagner, Democrat.

For representative in Congress from the 25th district the returns from the other two counties are not complete. With 280 precincts out of the 308 in Lawrence, Beaver and Butler counties reported the incumbent, Republican Louis E. Graham has 51,808 votes and the Democrat Samuel G. Neff of Ellwood City has 49,056 votes. They are divided as follows: Lawrence county, 99 precincts complete, Graham 16,768, Neff 15,744. Beaver county, 99 out of 113 precincts, Graham 18,333, Neff 23,003. Butler county, 82 out of 96 precincts, Graham 16,197 and Neff 10,309. This race is close enough that the military returns might easily upset it.

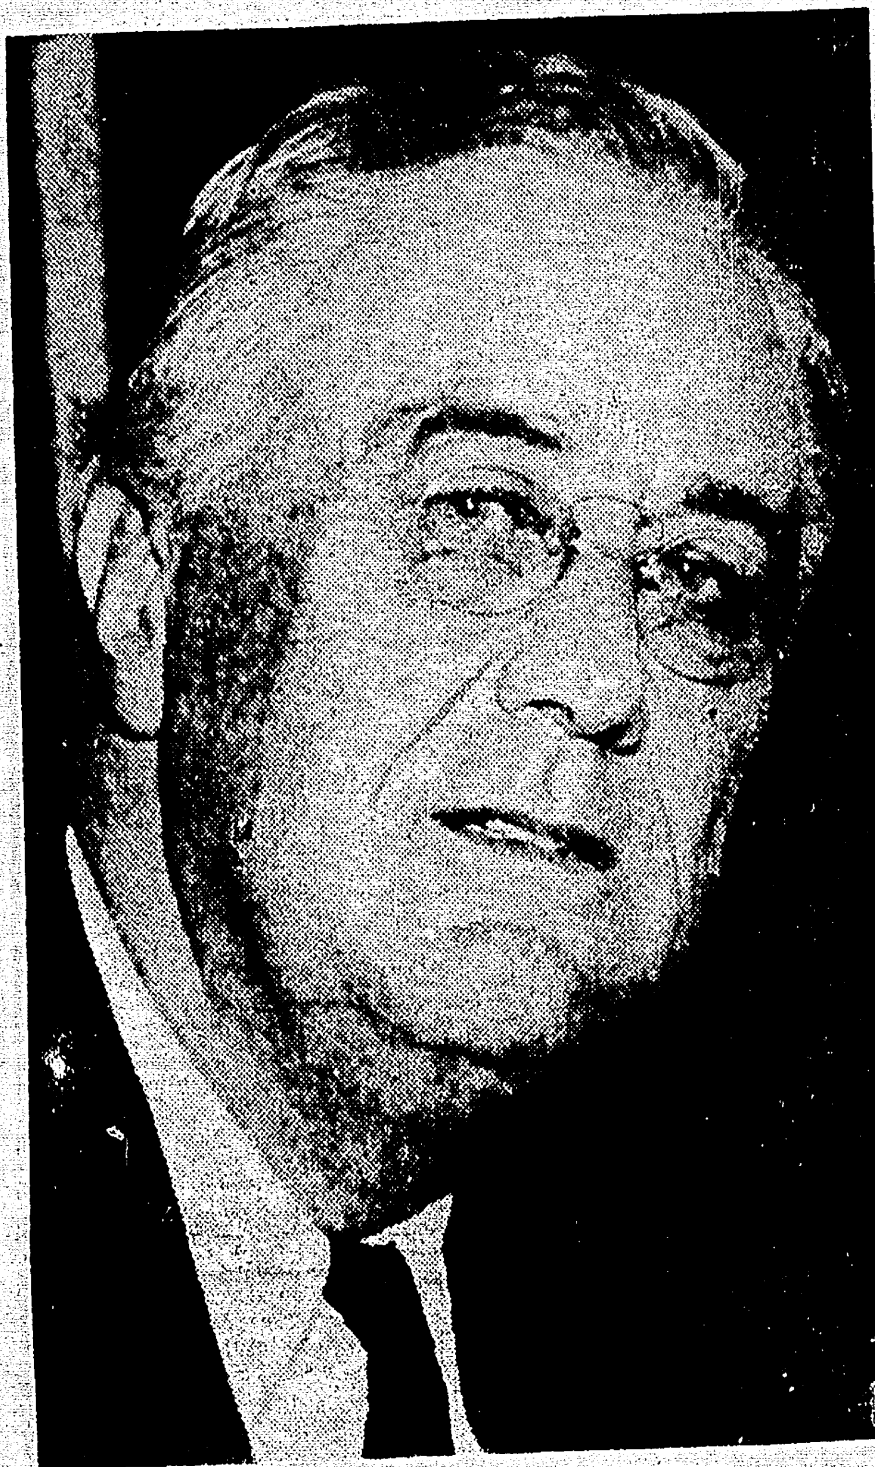

State Senate Close In the race for state senate it is not possible to say definitely which candidate has the civilian majority. Harvey B. Bush, Republican candidate of New Castle, has 37,042 votes and Louis Klein, Democrat of Allegheny, has 36,330 votes. The complete vote in the 99 precincts of Lawrence county gives Bush 17,996 and Klein 14,108. In Beaver county 99 out of 113 precincts Klein has 22,821 votes and Bush 19,046. The remaining fourteen precincts can change the result and in any event it seems the military vote is necessary before a winner can be declared.

Legislative Leaders For General Assembly there seems no doubt that James C. Brice, of New Castle, Republican incumbent and W. Starny Fullerton of North Beaver, Township, Republican, incumbent, have been re-elected. Mr. Brice has 8815 votes and Joseph W. Hahn, his Democratic opponent 7,961, giving Mr. Brice a lead of 854. Assuming there will be 1600 military ballots cast in New Castle Hahn could get 1200 of them and Brice would still win, a result hardly likely to happen.

Fullerton Winner In the second district Mr. Fullerton has an even more commanding lead, having 9168 votes against Frank A. Hulina's 6289, giving Mr. Fullerton a lead of 2879. Inasmuch as there will be not many more than 3000 military votes cast in the entire county and the second district will probably have less than the first, it is impossible to cut Mr. Fullerton's lead down and he is the only candidate who this morning can be declared elected without any chance of upset.

Roosevelt Carries City In the city of New Castle the Republicans made a slightly better showing this year than they did in 1940 when President Roosevelt carried the city by something over 1100 votes. Yesterday the president carried the city by 837, getting 9991 votes as against 854 for Governor

PRESIDENT F. D. ROOSEVELT

Dewey Concedes Roosevelt Wins For Fourth Term

(BULLETIN)

NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey at 1:12 a.m. today announced to a large group of newsmen assembled in his headquarters in the Roosevelt hotel that he conceded the re-election of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Gov. Dewey said: "It is clear that Mr. Roosevelt has been re-elected for a fourth term. I extend to President Roosevelt my heartiest congratulations. The governor added that 'every good citizen will accept the will of the people.'"

"I hope that the president's term will lead to victory to the establishment of a lasting peace and a return to tranquility," said Gov. Dewey. Gov. Dewey expressed gratitude for the confidence of millions who voted for him and said that the Republican party emerges from the campaign a revitalized force for good government in America.

"I am confident that all Americans join me in the hope that in the years ahead divine providence will guide and protect the president of the United States," the governor concluded.

Bricker Concedes Roosevelt Wins

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Governor John W. Bricker, the Republican vice-presidential nominee, conceded the re-election of President Roosevelt at 2:42 a. m. CWT today.

"I join in the sentiment expressed by Governor Dewey," Bricker said. "I have done all within my ability to carry the issues as I saw them to the American people. They have spoken. I congratulate the winners and shall do all I can to aid in the war effort and making our country stronger and better."

STATISTICAL RESULTS PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—(INS)—In 5,200 precincts out of 8,197 in Pennsylvania this morning returns showed 1,186,761 for President Roosevelt, compared with 1,102,416 votes for Gov. Dewey.

In the senatorial race, Myers polled in 4,453 precincts, 1,016,851 votes to Davis—935,608 votes.

President Carries Philadelphia By 132,028 Plurality

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—(INS)—For the third consecutive time, President Roosevelt carried Philadelphia.

Complete but unofficial returns showed the chief executive garnered a plurality of 132,028 over his Republican opponent, Gov. Dewey. This, however, was 45,000 less than the margin by which Roosevelt defeated Wendell Willkie in 1940.

The Quaker city's tally in the presidential poll was: Roosevelt, 460,613; Dewey, 328,585; Thomas, 2,030; Teichert, 237; Watson, 453.

For U. S. senator—Myers (D) 457,323; Davis (R), 325,859.

For state supreme court—Jones (D) 448,493; Hughes (R) 326,293.

For superior court judgeships—Ross (D) 450,813; Rhodes (D) 446,380; James (R) 326,222; Graff (R) 325,357.

For state treasurer—Black (D) 443,985; Baird (R) 329,807.

For auditor general—Wagner (D) 451,437; Watkins (R) 330,139.

Second Of Seventh Leads The List

As usual a precinct of the seventh ward was first with returns Tuesday night. At 8:11 the second precinct reported its vote for president and scooped the county.

First complete returns came from the first precinct of the sixth ward. At nine fifteen this precinct had all its votes tabulated and reported to The News. To these boards and all the others that were so co-operative. The News says "Thanks."

DEWEY LEADS IN OHIO COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Governor Dewey maintained his Ohio lead tonight in 4485 precincts. At that point Dewey held a 142,353 vote lead but hardly any of the vote from Cleveland and other industrial areas was included.

The count stood: Dewey 799,171; Roosevelt 646,818.

RHODE ISLAND FOR FDR PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 8.—(Wednesday)—(INS)—President Roosevelt carried Rhode Island this morning on the basis of virtually complete returns.

Returns from all but 11 of the state's 261 districts gave him 161,470 against 110,471 for Dewey.

Soldier Vote May Decide In Pennsylvania

Roosevelt Has Only Small Margin In State With Count Incomplete.

By JOHN PAGET (U.S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt held a margin of only 84,345 votes over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey early today in Pennsylvania and it may be necessary to wait the opening of more than 230,000 soldiers' ballots November 22 to officially decide the winner.

In 5280 precincts out of 8197, Roosevelt had 1,186,761 while Dewey polled 1,102,416.

Four years ago, Mr. Roosevelt carried the state by more than 281,000 votes.

Shortly after midnight the president had a plurality of more than 111,000 votes but two hours later the Republican standardbearer had cut it to approximately 82,000. Returns trickling in from outlying counties added a scant 2,000 to the president's plurality in the early morning.

If the usual trend follows the selection of a national ticket, the State House of Representatives may go Democratic but there were no conclusive reports.

Philadelphia Congressmen Lose The congressional contests were highlighted by the defeat of Philadelphia Republican congressmen, C. Frederick Pracht and James Gallagher.

Indications were the entire six-member Quaker city delegation would be Democratic providing Herbert F. McGlinchey emerged victorious in a close contest with incumbent Hugh D. Scott.

In the fiscal contests, Democrats had comfortable leads over their Republican opponents.

In the state treasurer's race, U.S. Assistant Postmaster General Ramsey Black polled 770,426 votes in 2737 precincts compared with 658,835 for his Republican opponent, Philadelphia Treasurer Edgar W. Baird, Jr.

Outgoing State Treasurer G. Harold Wagner had 775,858 votes in the auditor general's race compared with 675,248 for State Sen. G. Harold Watkins, Republican.

Hyde Park Folks Cheer Roosevelt

Gather At Roosevelt Manor When Results Of Election Begin To Show Trend

By ROBERT G. NIXON (U.S. Staff Correspondent)

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The neighbor and village folk of the Hudson river countryside last night came with flaring red torches in their hands and songs on their lips to the Roosevelt manor to cheer their chief executive and hear him declare with supreme confidence.

"I look like I will be coming back to my home here from Washington for four years more."

He said that one piece of good news was that it looked like Republican Congressman Clare Boothe Luce would be defeated in Connecticut. He also said he hoped Rep. Hamilton Fish would be replaced by his Democratic opponent and that the results so far looked good.

The president said he had been on the telephone all evening, talking to people all over the country.

GOVERNOR DEWEY CONCEDES VICTORY OF PRESIDENT, IN EARLY MORNING STATEMENT

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON International News Service Correspondent

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt won overwhelming re-election to a fourth term in the White House today on a mandate from 50,000,000 Americans to bring victory at war and peace to the world.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey, his Republican opponent, conceded Mr. Roosevelt's re-election shortly before 3:15 a. m., EWT. Dewey congratulated Roosevelt and expressed a wish that "the president's term will lead us to victory, to the establishment of a lasting peace and a return to tranquility."

Dewey expressed confidence that "all Americans join me in the hope that in the years ahead divine providence will guide and protect the president of the United States."

Dewey made this gracious gesture to Roosevelt from his headquarters in the Hotel Roosevelt in New York City. Roosevelt had earlier gone to bed at his Hyde Park, New York, home, confident of victory.

At 3:30 a. m., EWT, Roosevelt was ahead of Dewey in thirty-five states, having a total of 401 electoral votes. Dewey led in only thirteen states, having a total of 130 electoral votes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt appeared early today to have been re-elected to a fourth term in the White House with a mandate from 50,000,000 American voters to speed up victory in two major wars and then work out a lasting peace for the world.

The president at 2 a. m. EWT was leading Governor Thomas E. Dewey in thirty-three states, having 392 electoral votes. Dewey was ahead in but fifteen states, having 139 electoral votes.

Mr. Roosevelt ran strongly in the populous sections of the East and in all the industrial sections of the nation. He won New York state handily when Dewey failed to come down from upstate New York with anything like the lead his supporters anticipated. The president had even cut into some GOP industrial areas upstate.

It was the same story in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Maryland, Illinois and California. Roosevelt rolled up huge pluralities in the big cities and Dewey's strength in smaller towns and rural areas failed to overcome the president's lead.

At 2 a. m. Dewey still had a chance to carry Illinois and possibly Massachusetts. He was well beaten in Maryland and Connecticut, which were regarded as key states.

In Pennsylvania, the outcome was in doubt early today although Roosevelt had a small lead, resting on high pluralities in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. There were signs Dewey might take Pennsylvania when all the ballots are counted.

Democratic chiefs were jubilant from Vice President Henry A. Wallace to the Political Action Committee's head, Sidney Hillman. All issued statements, just before midnight, claiming Roosevelt's reelection.

Wallace said it was a mandate to Congress to work out a durable peace under Roosevelt's leadership. Hillman said it was a rebuke to the type of campaign conducted by the Republicans, who had denounced him from coast to coast as trying to "capture the Democratic party."

How Silent Vote Went It appeared that the great mass of "silent voters" who had refused to participate in polls, had thrown their support to Roosevelt. Neutral observers believed the president's great strength was due to the "silent voter" being opposed to changing the "commander-in-chief" in the midst of a two-ocean war.

Early this morning International News Service compilation of the popular vote showed: Roosevelt 12,420,861; Dewey 10,097,848.

The swing to Roosevelt in the East began as soon as the ballots were counted. This happened usually in the big cities. Before midnight some newspapers were conceding Roosevelt's reelection and after midnight, it became a habit among metropolitan newspapers.

Among others were the Washington Times-Herald, Kansas City Star, Philadelphia Inquirer, New York Herald-Tribune and Los Angeles Times.

Roosevelt Leads Early today Roosevelt was ahead in the ten southern states, Arizona, Connecticut, California, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, New York, New Mexico, Nevada, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, 1337 of the state's 2098 precincts reporting, gave Dewey 272,583; Roosevelt 265,740.

DEWEY LEADS IN MISSOURI ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey maintained a narrow lead over President Roosevelt in Missouri voting early today, although the possibility still existed that the president might overtake Dewey when returns are complete.

With 3,017 of the state's 4,543 precincts reporting, Dewey had 441,351 votes to 436,070 for Roosevelt.

State Chairman Lawrence Issues Statement Today

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—(INS)—President Roosevelt's re-election "assures the world," State Democratic Chairman, David L. Lawrence, said today in a victory statement issued from Allegheny County Democratic headquarters.

Lawrence said:

"President Roosevelt's re-election is further testimony to the strength of American democracy and to the confidence of the American people in the leadership of the American people. We will fight this war to victory and that we will join all peace-loving nations in creating a world order which will make this the last war."

"The Republican party, in its platform and in Governor Dewey's speeches, has abandoned its old belief in isolationism. It will be interesting to see if the Republicans in Congress will regard their party's new direction as just so much campaign oratory."

President Appears California Winner

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—(INS)—President Roosevelt apparently captured California's 25 electoral votes on the basis of returns from one-fourth of the state's polling precincts.

Holding a slim lead in early returns was U. S. Senator Sheridan Downey, incumbent Democrat, over his Republican opponent—Lieut. Gov. Frederick F. Houser.

Latest returns showed 4,880 precincts out of 14,411.

Roosevelt: 468,373.
Dewey: 355,575.
For U. S. senator:
Downey: 339,426.
Houser: 307,574.

The early returns were mostly from urban and usually heavily industrialized areas of the state.

Local Seaman Back From Pacific Area

Gunner's Mate Frank Zoltani Sees Much Action But Comes Through Unscathed

Frank Zoltani, gunner's mate-2c, U. S. navy, is on seven days leave, visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Zoltani, 539 East Long avenue.

Frank has recently returned from service in the Pacific.

He has seen plenty of action, and has been in engagements in the Admiralty Islands, New Guinea, Saipan, Guam and Palau Island. He is in the troop transport service, and men and ships have come through all the actions unscathed.

Gunner Zoltani missed the great Philippine sea battle, being on his way back to the United States at that time.

Frank enlisted in the service almost three years ago, he is now 21. He has been overseas in the Pacific for 13 months. He attended New Castle high school.

In Guam, he met Dale R. Lawson of the U. S. marines, whose family resides on Friendship street.

At the conclusion of his leave he will report back to San Francisco, Calif.

ELECTION BULLETINS

MAJORITY INCREASES
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(INS)—President Roosevelt today carried New York City over Governor Dewey by an even greater margin than four years ago when he defeated the late Wendell Willkie, then GOP presidential nominee, by 718,459 votes.

About the time Dewey was conceding the president's re-election, Mr. Roosevelt's avalanche of votes in New York City overtook his 1940 record and boosted his incomplete majority to 727,917.

With 118 of the 3700 precincts yet to be heard from, the vote stood at 1,956,228 for Roosevelt and 1,228,411 for Dewey.

The president piled up his huge margins in Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx, trailing Dewey in Queens and Richmond boroughs.

SOME COUNTY RESULTS
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Complete returns from the following Pennsylvania counties this morning showed:

Cameron county—Roosevelt 1,025; Dewey 1,614.

Monroe—Roosevelt 5,105; Dewey 5,888.
Myers 5,097; Davis 5,604.
Jefferson—Roosevelt 5,862; Dewey 10,298.
Myers 5,575; Davis 10,365.
Wayne—Roosevelt 2,575; Dewey 7,873.
Myers 2,393; Davis 7,858.

TRUMAN RETIRES EARLY
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Democratic Vice Presidential Candidate Harry S. Truman retired early today without definitely learning whether he had won the nation's second highest honor.

Truman declined to make a statement on the basis of incomplete returns indicating that he had been named to the vice presidency of the United States. He termed the early results inconclusive and said it was "too early" to make a statement.

REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR WINS
HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Former Democratic Governor Robert A. Hurley, candidate for governor, conceded the election to Republican Governor Raymond E. Baldwin, incumbent, in a statement this morning.

"I concede the election and congratulate Governor Baldwin on his splendid run," Hurley said.

ANKLE BROKEN
Mrs. E. B. Bartlett of 520 East Moody avenue suffered a broken right ankle and numerous bruises when she fell down a short flight of steps as she was leaving the polling place at Highland U. P. church shortly before noon today.

She was taken to Jameson Memorial hospital for treatment.

DEWEY LEADS IN INDIANA
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—(INS)—With nearly one-third of Indiana's precincts recorded—including many Democratic industrial regions—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey held a lead of nearly 8,000 for Indiana's 13 electoral votes early today.

The count in 1221 of the 4016 precincts was: Dewey, 316,850; Roosevelt, 308,957.

DEWEY TAKES WYOMING
CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today held a slim lead over President Roosevelt in Wyoming. Returns from 250 of the state's 673 precincts gave: Dewey 13,488; Roosevelt 12,028.

Congressman Frank A. Barrett (R) led his rival, Charles E. Norris (D) 13,299 to 9,322 and seemed assured of re-election.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY VOTE
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—(INS)—With 757 out of 1024 Allegheny county precincts reporting this morning, President Roosevelt was given 255,929 votes, compared with 175,244 for Dewey.

In the senatorial contest: Myers: 198,455.
Davis: 138,441.

SENATOR DAVIS INJURED
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Suffering from a badly wounded ankle, Republican Senator James J. Davis last night and early today received election returns alone in a downtown hotel room.

He fell downstairs after last-minute appeal at a local radio station during the afternoon.

BALTIMORE FOR ROOSEVELT
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Virtually complete returns in Baltimore tonight gave President Roosevelt a substantial margin over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican presidential candidate.

A tabulation of 470 out of 471 precincts showed Roosevelt, 131,101; and Dewey, 107,820.

DEWEY HAS MICHIGAN LEAD
DETROIT, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Two hundred and 10 precincts out of 3,840 in Michigan tonight gave Dewey 61,422 to 29,802 for Roosevelt.

Complete returns from Dewey's home ward 1 in Owosso, Mich., gave the New York governor 1,004 to 268 for Roosevelt.

DEWEY PULLS AHEAD
OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Gov. Dewey continued to pull ahead of President Roosevelt in Nebraska tonight with 379 of the state's 2,076 precincts reporting. The count was: Dewey, 46,098.
Roosevelt, 40,338.

WEST VIRGINIA VOTE
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 8.—(INS)—In 828 out of 2,793 precincts in West Virginia the balloting showed this morning:

Roosevelt—110,189; Dewey 94,995.
In the gubernatorial race—Mendows 122,384; Dawson 100,549.

CLOSING MARGIN
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Republican Senator James J. Davis this morning was closing in the margin on his Democratic opponent as votes from 5,044 precincts gave him 1,024,028 to Myers' 1,006,849.

MIRROR CONCEDES ELECTION
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The New York Mirror conceded the re-election of President Roosevelt at 1 a. m. this (Wednesday) morning.

Red Cross Workers Go To Pittsburgh

Members Of Local Red Cross Chapter Attend District Administration Meeting

During the past week a number of New Castle people attended a district Red Cross chapter workers meeting held in Pittsburgh in the Pittsburgh room of the William Penn Hotel. The meeting reviewed chapter administration and the accomplishments of the Red Cross and what is ahead.

During the week those from here who attended included Miss Elizabeth Breslin, executive secretary, Mrs. J. Glenn Berry, Mrs. Keith McAfee, Mrs. William Gosel, Mrs. Thomas Kelly, Mrs. Robert Garland, Mrs. John McIlwain, Mrs. J. Plummer Gibson, Mrs. Charles Jaquish, Mrs. Russell Allen, Mrs. Earl Campbell, Mrs. W. J. Durant, Miss Helen Hurst, Mrs. Charles McGill, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Peterson, Mrs. Wanda Hughes, Mrs. Albert Batten, Mrs. William Chip, Mrs. Wayne McConnell, J. Glenn Berry, Dr. John A. Meehan, and Harry J. Cullford.

In the review of accomplishments of the Red Cross, a few figures gave an idea of the size of the job the Red Cross is doing at home and in the world. In the past two years, 8,000,000 men have received service from the Red Cross during the past two years; 7,000,000 pints of blood have been given through the Blood Donor Service; 5,300,000 Prisoners of War packages have been sent; 50,000 nurses recruited for the service; 26,000,000 garments have been shipped; One million surgical dressings have been sent; By Red Cross workers to accomplish all this, between four and five million people pledged their time.

Abroad the Red Cross has 658 clubs, 69 rest homes, 399 snack bars, 39 cinemabuses.

Announcement was also made that there is an urgent need for 500 men field directors at the present time.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Maine voters tonight chose Thomas E. Dewey over President Roosevelt by a margin of approximately 12,000 votes.

This represented a Republican gain over 1940 when Wendell Willkie carried the state by 7,478. Out of a total of 927 precincts 575 gave Dewey 186,834; Roosevelt 154,829.

The unreported precincts were not sufficiently large to change the result of any great extent.

ROOSEVELT LEADS
BOSTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—President Roosevelt had a strong grip on Massachusetts' 16 electoral votes today as returns from 449 of the state's 1852 precincts gave: Dewey 88,631; Roosevelt 89,110 for Sen. Guy M. Gillette.

Gov. B. B. Hickenlooper (R) lead narrowed in the senatorial race. He had 84,913 votes to 80,110 for Sen. Guy M. Gillette.

DEWEY LEADS IN IOWA
DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey carried 88,631 votes in 480 Iowa precincts tonight to maintain a lead over President Roosevelt who polled 79,822 votes.

Gov. B. B. Hickenlooper (R) lead narrowed in the senatorial race. He had 84,913 votes to 80,110 for Sen. Guy M. Gillette.

RUNSWELL IN OWN PRECINCT
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Governor Dewey ran better than 2-to-1 against President Roosevelt in the Republican nominee's own voting district in Manhattan.

While Dewey polled 734 votes there, the president could muster only 354.

ROOSEVELT IN LEAD
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 8.—(INS)—After trailing for almost two hours, President Roosevelt swung into the lead in New Mexico tonight over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. Returns from 155 out of the state's 902 precincts gave:

Roosevelt 5,827; Dewey 3,947.

DEWEY WINS NEW HAMPSHIRE
MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Gov. Dewey had apparently recaptured New Hampshire for the Republican party today.

Returns from 184 towns and wards of the state's 295 gave him a vote of 50,596 to 44,226 for President Roosevelt, who carried the state in 1940.

GOV. DEWEY LEADS
MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Results of 126 towns and wards in New Hampshire showed Governor Dewey leading President Roosevelt by a vote of 26,931 to 20,640. President Roosevelt carried New Hampshire over Wendell Willkie in 1940.

F. D. R. AHEAD IN WASHINGTON
SEATTLE, Nov. 8.—(INS)—President Roosevelt was virtually assured Washington states eight electoral votes today as he surged ahead of Gov. Dewey in returns from 406 scattered precincts. The president polled 61,888 to Dewey's 42,788.

NECK AND NECK RACE
RENO, Nev., Nov. 8.—(INS)—A neck and neck race was developing in Nevada today over the state's three electoral votes. Out of 215 of the state's 380 precincts, the unofficial returns gave:

Roosevelt: 11,346; Dewey: 11,313.

VERMONT STAYS G. O. P.
MONTPELIER, Vt., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Vermont remained traditionally Republican tonight.

With 83 per cent of the vote tallied, Dewey had 49,000 and Roosevelt 32,000.

SEE RE-ELECTION
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The Independent Washington Post today said that President Roosevelt's reelection to a fourth term was assured on the basis of his plurality in New York and Illinois.

Ivan the Terrible of Russia is said to have proposed marriage to Queen Elizabeth of England in the 16th century, but she declined his offer.

FAITH

ELECTION DAY

Some people may not think so, but this is one of the important, if not the most important, day in the year. A lot of people treat Election Day very indifferently, even as a joke, but those are not the kind of people who have made, or will make America greater. I am very much in favor of a law that would make it a penalty for any American citizen, entitled to vote, who is physically able, and does not do so, to be fined, or their right to vote taken away from them.

REGARDLESS OF YOUR POLITICS, VOTE BEFORE THE DAY IS OVER.

HAWK FURLONG

MARRIAGE TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hawk, 1214 Randolph street, announce the marriage of their daughter Marian Lorraine to Cpl. Lyle Norman Furlong, son of Olga Furlong of this city.

The ceremony was solemnized in the Central Christian church on the afternoon of November 5 at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. James Rainey, pastor, officiated, in the presence of a few close friends of the couple.

Attendants were Mrs. Betty Ruby, sister of the bride, and Pvt. Dale A. Furlong of the U. S. army air corps. Selma, O., brother of the bridegroom.

Following the exchange of vows a luncheon was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hawk. Later Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Shirley, Butler road, were hosts at their residence and served the wedding dinner.

The bride is a graduate of New Castle High, June class of 1944. The bridegroom received his wings as a paratrooper October 21, and is now stationed at Camp Mackall, N. C.

B. B. B. Class

B. B. B. class met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Ralph Snyder, 218 Edgewood avenue, Butler, and Ruth Lutz led devotions.

The class decided to meet on the first Thursday of each month. At the close of the evening a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Snyder, assisted by her daughter, Shirley. The next meeting will be held at the home of Bettie Bintrun, Walnut street, with Mildred Hay as co-hostess.

Theta-Rho Girls

Theta-Rho Girls will meet in regular session Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. hall. Preceding, however, a dinner will be served at 6:30 to Rebekahs and friends.

WOMAN'S CLUB TELL

PLANS; HEAR SPEAKER

Deshon Hospital, Deshon Annex and the welfare program of Woman's club will benefit from a gala occasion being planned and sponsored by Woman's club for Thursday evening, November 30, in the Cathedral.

Popular games of bridge, 500 and bingo will be featured entertainment, together with the added pleasure of meeting one's friends amid a delightful social atmosphere.

Chalk-off this important date on your already well filled calendar for Greater New Castle will be there.

Announcement of the project and other pertinent details were revealed to the club at Monday afternoon's meeting in Highland U. P. church. The assembly was unusually large, being attracted by a talk on "Evaluating War Time Fabrics" by Dr. Jules Labarthe Jr., Senior Industrial Fellow of Mellon Institute of Research.

Introduced by Mrs. Glenn R. Throp, program chairman, the speaker described his work at the institute and as a consultant to the Office of Quartermaster General, U. S. Army. He gave the women valuable suggestions relating to selection of war-time fabrics.

A great many of the "successor" or substitute materials developed to meet war-time shortages are so satisfactory that they will find their place in our postwar merchandise," he said.

"High-strength rayon, now used exclusively for Army lives and parachutes will be used later for service weight hosiery, and will prove much more popular than types now on the market. Temporary crimps in our economy may be expected until after the war, but there is a bright outlook for the future."

Following Dr. Labarthe's interesting and informative talk, Roger Jewett, executive vice president of Greater New Castle Association, was introduced by the club president, Mrs. Alvin M. Schumaker. He outlined the purpose and past achievements of the organization and sketched an optimistic picture of the outlook for New Castle in the postwar period.

Mrs. W. J. Caldwell, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Welsh at the piano, led the club in singing "America the Beautiful" as an opening feature of the meeting.

A plea by Mrs. Schumaker that members exercise their sovereign privilege at the polls today was made in conclusion.

EMERGENCY CLUB

MEETS WEDNESDAY

SANDMAN HOME

SCENE OF PARTY

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Sandman, 528 Bell avenue, was the scene of an enjoyable event Saturday evening, when the latter, together with Mr. and Mrs. John Hinch, planned a party in honor of the former commemorating his birthday anniversary. Guest of honor "Bill" Sandman was taken by complete surprise upon arriving home in the evening to find a host of 60-guests to greet him awaiting his arrival.

Tables of 500 and other games provided pastimes for many prizes going to John Bodendoeyer, Pearl Bodendoeyer, Mrs. Zola Dick, Freda Hinch and Mrs. Margaret Brunton. A sense of humor was tied in with the trophies awarded throughout the evening.

A delicious lunch was served from a prettily appointed table. The assemblage sang in unison the birthday song at this time. Mrs. Sandman was aided by Mrs. Becky Hinch, Mrs. Mary Catherine Schaner and Mrs. Viola Bailey.

Climaxing festivities, Mr. Sandman opened a collection of packages placed before him, revealing many gifts.

Present from out of town were Miss Alice Sandman of Pittsburgh, sister of the honored guest, and Claude Davis of Syracuse, N. Y., brother of Mrs. Sandman.

the people and hand it to other elements. We cannot have men in high places constantly sneering at American traditions and manifesting contempt for the Constitution. We cannot have a government which regards it as a crime against the State to criticize the acts of policies of government.

Above all, we cannot have harmony in a government in which one department seeks constantly to dominate the other departments in violation of our constitutional system of checks and balances. We cannot have harmony without a free legislature and a free judiciary. We cannot have harmony in a government wherein the central authority steadily encroaches upon the rights and powers of the States.

New Movie Screen
Has Been Invented

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Development of a new motion picture screen, which will give the third dimension, or depth to pictures, was claimed by Christian A. Volk, Los Angeles physicist.

Volk said the screen is based on his theory of how the eye itself perceives the dimension of depth. He said he evolved the theory in 1935 and developed the screen in seeking a means to demonstrate the theory.

"The eye perceives the dimension of depth from the outer layer of the cornea, which is made up of two membranes enclosing a layer of tear fluid," Volk said, adding that his screen was based upon the same principle.

Brenner Pass Rail Line Is Pounded

ROME, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The Brenner Pass rail-line has been cut in numerous places, tactical air force headquarters revealed today in announcing a series of attacks against German communications in northern Italy during the past three days.

Improving weather has widened the scope of tactical blasts against the Nazis behind the Italian front while Italy-based fighter bombers scored two hits on a vessel in Fiume harbor which was believed to have been a German cruiser.

German troop concentrations in Albania and Yugoslavia, including the forces which managed to escape from Greece, are under daily attack from the air.

Explosion Wrecks
New York Apartment

Near Panic By 1,000 Tenants In Apartment As Gas Blast Occurs

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—A violent explosion of illuminating gas which wrecked part of the 15th floor of a 17-story Beekman Hill apartment house, killed one woman and brought near panic to 1,000 tenants was termed an accident today by police.

The blast, which was heard in a mile-square area, killed Mrs. Erika Be. Balogh, in whose apartment it occurred. Her body was discovered by Bradley Kelly, vice-president of King Features Syndicate, who occupies an adjoining suite. Kelly was uninjured by the explosion although the wall of his apartment was blown down.

Police first classified the tragedy as "apparent suicide" but later described it officially as an accident when the victim's husband, Andre Be. Balogh, a radio executive, said he had left his wife reading a book in front of the stove while she waited for a batch of fruit she was canning to come to a boil.

Mayor Outlines City Recreation
Project At Ministerial As-

New Castle Ministerial association met Monday morning at the First Presbyterian church with Rev. Oliver W. Hurst presiding. Devotionals were conducted by Rev. P. P. Sulmonetti, with Rev. A. E. Simon at the piano.

Two ministers who came to New Castle recently, Rev. George R. D. Braun, of Epworth Methodist church, and Rev. H. H. Grove, of Emmanuel Evangelical church, were presented to the assembly by Rev. Walter W. Gilliland.

Mayor John F. Haven, as the speaker on "City Recreation," outlined the projects that the mayor's recreation committee has in view. Following his presentation the mayor was extended a vote of appreciation and endorsement of the projects.

Dr. G. S. Bennett announced the annual sale of Christmas seals, and the association pledged its support. Rev. Thomas J. Jones presented the program of the "Christian Council on Prisons," and a resolution was passed to "seek endorsement of the project among our people."

Announcement was made of the coming presentation of the "Messiah" by the Music club on December 17 at the First Methodist church. This presentation was also endorsed by the association, as was a national program for Bible reading between Thanksgiving and Christmas advanced by the American Bible society.

Prayer by Rev. E. D. Lupion brought the meeting to a close. Next meeting will be December 4.

victory. Both Roosevelt and Dewey are certain of at least 152 electoral votes in other sections, so the winner in the east should be the winner in the nation.

Both nominees made final appeals to the electorate late last night. Both pleaded with every registered voter to exercise his franchise.

The presidential contest overshadowed everything else, although the people will elect thirty-one governors, thirty-six senators in thirty-four states and a whole new house of representatives. Indications point to election of a Republican house unless there is a Roosevelt landslide while the senate undoubtedly will remain Democratic, due to the Democratic plurality of holdover senators.

How Battle Lines Up
The race between Roosevelt and Dewey has materialized into a contest between the large cities of the nation in the president's corner and the smaller cities, towns, villages and rural areas in Dewey's camp.

In New York, where the election may well be decided, the president expects a 550,000 plurality in New York City with Dewey's strength upstate. Most observers give New York to Dewey, discounting the Democratic predictions for New York City.

Deweyites say there will be a terrific Irish defection from Roosevelt in New York City and a tremendous outpouring of Republican votes upstate.

In Pennsylvania, it is Philadelphia and Pittsburgh against the rest of the state. Both sides publicly claim victory by several hundred thousand votes but each party would be glad to win by 50,000.

In Massachusetts, it is Boston against the state. In Maryland, it is Baltimore against the rest of the state with last minute neutral forecasts giving the state to Dewey.

Ohio Situation
In Ohio, it is Cleveland against the state. Neutral observers give it to Dewey in belief the remainder of the state will overcome whatever plurality Roosevelt gets in Cleveland, but some experts give Cleveland to Roosevelt by 160,000, which would make the final outcome very close.

In Illinois, it is Chicago against downstate. Neutral observers give it to the downstate Republican plurality.

In Michigan, where a surprise may occur, the most neutral observers say Dewey will win by a convincing wholesale lead. Roosevelt piles up in Detroit. A few observers think otherwise.

In California, another surprise may occur, where Democrats believe San Francisco and Los Angeles pluralities will give Roosevelt the state by around 250,000. A few observers say the Democrats are in for a big surprise in San Francisco and that the state will go to Dewey by 100,000.

Service Vote May Decide
There is a bare possibility that the men and women in the armed services may decide the election. If the results in key states are very close, somewhat between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 ballots will be cast by the armed services.

However, for some reason, neither top Democrats nor Republicans expect the soldier vote to overturn the civilian count in any important state. There will be 411,000 soldier ballots in New York State but here the politicians say they will vote largely the way civilians do in their home areas, hence without much chance of determining the result unless the civilian result is below 50,000 for the candidate.

There will be big soldier votes in other states—225,000 in Pennsylvania, nearly 300,000 in Illinois, 165,000 in Michigan. But the politicians do not fear it unless the civilian count falls below the 50,000 mark.

Farley Declines To Predict Outcome

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—James A. Farley, campaign manager for President Roosevelt in his two most successful elections, declined to predict the outcome of today's contest as he cast his ballot in New York City.

Accompanied by Mrs. Farley, an outspoken supporter of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Farley said: "I feel it is a great tribute to democracy to hold an election in this, the most critical period in the country's history. When the election is over, we must win the war and the following peace."

Prepare To Give Election Returns To Men Overseas

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Army information services were thrown into high gear today as they prepared to give the GI's overseas the quickest and most complete coverage possible of election news.

More than 30 men will work around the clock, compiling national results from the three press associations, International News Service, the Associated Press and United Press.

From the services and its own correspondents, the Army News Service—ANS—will shoot the results overseas, with an estimated 25,000 words going by cable and another 25,000 words by radio.

Indian Troops Take Japanese Stronghold

KANDY, Ceylon, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Troops of the fifth Indian division have occupied Kennedy peak, Japanese stronghold on the Tiddim-Fort White road in the Chin hills of north Burma, the southeast Asia command announced today.

Constant battering from allied bombers and fighter bombers forced the Japanese to withdraw and all Japanese resistance around Kennedy peak has ended.

Allied troops have pressed on to clear another eight miles of the Tiddim-Fort White road. Fighting was under way two miles north-west of Fort White, where some enemy positions aside the road have been cleared, in the words of today's southeast Asia command communiqué.

In the Arakan campaign, West African troops forging their way down the Kalandan valley, were within four miles of Palewa.

Lieut. Wilcox Is Home From Europe

First Lieut. Howard T. Wilcox, attached to the air force, is on 21 days furlough, visiting his wife, Mrs. Grace Wilcox, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wilcox of 304 South Ray street.

He recently returned from England, where he served with the Eighth Air Force. He has completed his tour of missions over Europe.

Lieut. Wilcox has been in the service since March 1943, and overseas eight months. He is a graduate of New Castle High school, class of June, 1939.

Before entering the service, he was in the employ of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., as gang clerk.

MOVING THE SUN into Your POSTWAR HOME

Infrared lamps will supply the gentle, soothing heat.

Your eyes will say, "thank you," for the cool, soft light of fluorescent lamps such as the one shown here.

The busy housewife will find her work easier and less tiring because her kitchen will be flooded with the abundant, economical light of fluorescent lamps.

Father will not be neglected. Over the workbench he is very likely to have a fluorescent fixture giving him just the kind of light he has always longed to have.

★ Lighting research is "moving the sun" indoors, bringing us the benefits of outdoor daylight, for healthier, brighter living. Conserve on light today. Plan for a brighter home tomorrow.

PENNSYLVANIA POWER COMPANY

Landlords Must Provide Heat

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Rev. Charles C. Rice, Pittsburgh area rent director, today revealed that the OPA intends to make it hot for landlords who keep rentals high and heat low this winter.

For the past month, Father Rice said, calls have been pouring into OPA offices with complaints of inadequate heating systems in apartment houses, duplexes and rented homes.

"The OPA will start investigations of all complaints," Father Rice said. "In some cases inadequate heat can reduce rents as much as $20, but the average reduction is about $5."

Under the law controlling rents, landlords must bring down costs when their services are reduced, he explained, adding that insufficient heating is a reduced service.

WHEN THE COLONEL AGAIN EDITS THE Home-Town Paper

★ The Colonel always has enjoyed a good fight. Where arguments were most heated it was safe to bet that the Colonel was right on the job... fighting for the things he believed in. His scorching editorials that induced the city council to start playgrounds, swimming pools, a new water works and other public improvements still are remembered by everyone.

When war came, the Colonel, a reserve officer, soon was in uniform lending his fighting determination and spirit to bring a decisive victory as soon as possible.

When the Colonel returns to take up his job as editor of the home-town paper, he'll be alert to the need for even finer things for his community. On the subject of rail service, for example, he'll look for greater convenience, comfort, speed and safety among other things. And he'll be well satisfied, for the Baltimore & Ohio is anticipating his thoughts... will have service that fully meets his desires.

Today, over B&O's 11,000 miles of track, 70,000 workers share with management the spirit of progress that is the foundation for improvement... a spirit that promises even better B&O service than your community knew in pre-war.

B. & O. WHITE, President

Americans, Germans Share One Hospital

Both Staffs Function In Captured
Hospital In Southern France;
German Equipment Used

By KITA HUME
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE SEVENTH ARMY IN FRANCE—(Delayed)—The story of two field hospitals, one German, the other American, operating side by side in a French hospital at Draguignan is a curious sidelight of the German rout in southern France. American doctors used German equipment to operate on U. S. wounded. On some occasions they called upon German surgical nurses to assist in emergency operations. At other times, the two staffs, each of which shared a half of the hospital building, merely nodded politely as they passed in the hallways.

Use Nazi Equipment

In the press of the Seventh Army's lightning advance up the Rhone valley, an American field hospital moved into the French hospital at Draguignan on the road to Lyons. It was already occupied by a German medical staff, captured together with its patients and what was declared to be an impressive outlay of surgical equipment.

Five American nurses were detached from another hospital to fill in until the original feminine complement arrived. They used German dressings, thermometers, needles and those drugs whose names they could read. The dressings, of a heavy linen-like texture, impressed them most.

Veterans of Tunisia, Sicily, Cassino and Anzio, the nurses found this brush with an enemy medical team their most interesting experience overseas. They are, First Lieut. Eleanor Gosline of Endicott, N. Y.; Second Lieut. Grace Beeder of Akron, O.; Frances Backer of Summit, N. J.; Marjorie Prosh of Columbus, O.; and Myrtle Costello of Washington, D. C.

Share Same Kitchen

"We got the biggest kick out of sharing the same kitchen," said Miss Gosline. American nurses watched with interest when their German counterparts converted crushed field biscuits into gruel with boiling water.

The German nurses wore blue and white uniforms and were described as "big girls, all blondes and pretty." Most of them had long hair. Although functioning under the immunity of the Red Cross, the staff was under guard and not permitted to leave the hospital. Their attitude was pleasant and unlike that of the usual sullen one of a captured prisoner.

Wood putty can be used to tighten casters in a bed, chair or table. Partly fill the hole, then force the castor into it, scraping off all excess material. Let dry for at least 10 hours.

2—Energize your body with
RICH, RED BLOOD!

Improper diet, overwork, undue worries, colds, the flu or other illness often impair the stomach's digestive functions and reduce the red-blood strength.

A person who is operating on only a 75% healthy blood volume or a stomach digestive capacity of only 50 to 60% normal is severely handicapped. At such times Nature needs extra help to restore its balance and function properly. Undigested food pines a tax on the system...insufficient blood strength is a detriment to good health.

If you are subject to poor digestion or suspect deficient red-blood as the cause of your trouble, yet have no organic condition or focal infection, SSS Tonic may be just what you need! SSS Tonic is especially designed (1) to promote the flow of VITAL DIGESTIVE JUICES in the stomach and (2) to build-up BLOOD STRENGTH when deficient. These two important results enable you to enjoy the food you eat, to make use of it as Nature intended. Thus you may get new vitality... pep... become animated... more attractive!

Mystery 'Jolting' Is Reported By American Pilots

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—A Reuter dispatch from supreme headquarters in Paris today told of a mysterious "jolting" reported by American bomber pilots on their return from an attack on the German supply depot of Homburg yesterday.

It might have been weather conditions, or a secret weapon such as "invisible" anti-aircraft, the dispatch said.

One pilot was quoted as saying: "All the way back from the target to the German border I was bounced around until I thought my wings would come off. I noticed that every time I pumped all the others around me were undergoing the same experience."

Headquarters are investigating the possibility the Germans have some new weapon, Reuter said.

LT. J. M. LUNAP, JR., ARRIVES
County Juvenile Parole Officer J. M. Lunap has received a telegram from his son, Lt. Jack M. Lunap, Jr., a pilot on a Liberator, saying he has landed in a foreign country.

ARGUMENT COURT
Argument court was held Monday before Judges W. Walter Braham and John G. Lamoree with a number of cases on the list. One case up is that of the city of New Castle and the New Castle school board asking for a distribution of the money now held by the county commissioners which came from rents from county owned properties.

The city and school board ask for a distribution based upon the proportion of taxes due on the properties held. County Solicitor William E. McElwee, Jr., holds other views and the two sides were presented.

TWO SENTENCES
Two sentences were handed down by Judge Braham on Monday, those of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Holliday for larceny and malicious mischief.

They were tried and found guilty of partially destroying a porch on a home in Mahoningtown which they formerly owned but which had been sold for taxes. They were placed upon probation for two years and assessed the costs and the cost of restoring the porch to its former condition.

HONOR HUGH D. GRAHAM
When court adjourned Monday it did so out of respect to the memory of the late Attorney Hugh D. Graham who died in naval service last Saturday. The motion was made by Attorney Edwin K. Logan, and seconded by Attorney Charles V. Ross. Attorney Graham, a lieutenant in the naval service, had a promising career ahead of him at the bar. He had the respect of his fellow attorneys not alone for his professional ability but for his personal charm. He is the first of 14 Lawrence county attorneys in service to be taken by death.

LT. J. M. LUNAP, JR., ARRIVES
County Juvenile Parole Officer J. M. Lunap has received a telegram from his son, Lt. Jack M. Lunap, Jr., a pilot on a Liberator, saying he has landed in a foreign country.

ARGUMENT COURT
Argument court was held Monday before Judges W. Walter Braham and John G. Lamoree with a number of cases on the list. One case up is that of the city of New Castle and the New Castle school board asking for a distribution of the money now held by the county commissioners which came from rents from county owned properties.

The city and school board ask for a distribution based upon the proportion of taxes due on the properties held. County Solicitor William E. McElwee, Jr., holds other views and the two sides were presented.

TWO SENTENCES
Two sentences were handed down by Judge Braham on Monday, those of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Holliday for larceny and malicious mischief.

They were tried and found guilty of partially destroying a porch on a home in Mahoningtown which they formerly owned but which had been sold for taxes. They were placed upon probation for two years and assessed the costs and the cost of restoring the porch to its former condition.

Reporter Voting First Time Gives Impressions

So this is voting—getting up 15 minutes earlier, gulping a cup of coffee and dashing out of the house and then back again to get your gloves.

You were 21 a month ago, and since you never voted before you aren't quite sure just what the set-up will be. Everything looks so ordinary as you half-run along, watching the house numbers carefully so that you don't get into the wrong garage. A housewife is putting two milk bottles out on the porch, a paper boy is delivering morning papers, and a dog is taking a drink out of a puddle along the curb, entirely undisturbed by the fact that you are voting for the first time.

Right Place

The right garage is unmistakable—several persons are coming out, several posters are slapped up on the front of the building, and one flag is hanging bright in the dull, smoky light. Amazingly enough, no one stops you at the door for your credentials although you are equipped with registration card, social security card and baptismal certificate.

With the bright lights blinding you, somehow you manage to see that one of the many persons—25 or 30, you think—who are seated around a table in the center of the garage is handing you a yellow sheet of paper with the request, "please sign." Name, address—surely there must be more to it than that, so you carefully search the whole paper for something else you can fill in.

Oh, that's not the ballot. The next sheet you are given is the ballot—from your district, your ward, with the signatures of the county commissioners scrawled on the outside. You've had your mind made up for several weeks, but you read over all the information at the top of the paper, and every name on the sheet before you vote—just to make sure that there's no trick concealed somewhere.

Save Corner

Pushed—and you are just about to drop your ballot through a slit in the top of an over-grown penny bank on the floor when you are stopped. Is the number corner off? What corner? Oh, you can keep that for a souvenir? Can every one do that, or is it just because you are voting for the first time? You had no idea election officials were so considerate.

So that's all there is to it. You stand outside by the flag, in the dull, smoky light with your corner of the ballot in your hand. If you had known it was so simple, you could have slept ten minutes longer. Oh, well—you put the corner in your pocket—it was worth it.

Woman Faces Long Term In Kidnaping

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Mrs. Anna Cook, 22-year-old sailor's wife who pleaded guilty to kidnaping a child so that her husband overseas would not know their own had died at birth, today faced a long sentence following a mental and physical examination.

Judge Harry S. McDevitt, in Philadelphia, characterized the woman as "over-sexed" after she confessed stealing seven-month-old Nancy Allen last September and taking the child to Pittsburgh where she had it baptized as her own. He said she would be sent to an institution "for sometime beyond the duration of this war."

The child's mother, Mrs. Mary Allen of Philadelphia, also a sailor's wife, testified that she went to the movies leaving Nancy in Mrs. Cook's care and when she returned both were gone.

Father Of Queen Of England Dies

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The father of Britain's Queen Elizabeth, the 14th Earl of Strathmore and Lyon, died today.

The Earl, 80 years old, was the son of an old Scots family descended from Lyon, Thane of Glamis.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Air Mail Roundup Of Legion Under Way

Gaston Post Expects To Exceed Quota Assigned For Roundup November 11 In Pennsylvania

Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, expects to exceed its quota in the annual membership roundup, which is underway in a concentrated drive this week.

The membership roundup is conducted each year on Armistice day, and in past years the memberships have been delivered to department headquarters in Harrisburg in various ways, usually by motor caravan. This year, as was the case last year, due to wartime restrictions, the roundup will be conducted by air mail.

Each post has been asked to have 50 per cent of its membership in by that time, and according to Membership Chairman Leon A. Drumm, senior vice commander of the Perry S. Gaston Post, the local post needs but 20 members to equal this figure.

Quadruplets Now Have Real Names

Cirminellos Name Philadelphia Quads—Maureen, Kathleen, Eileen And Michael

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The Alphabet Quads—"A, B, C and D"—born at Philadelphia last Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cirminello, today became Maureen, Kathleen, Eileen and Michael.

Their names were announced by the lying-in hospital, where they were delivered in a Caesarian operation, and officials happily said that the quads "are all in good condition."

Even Michael, who has had a little trouble with his breathing "has shown decided improvement," the hospital bulletin said. "His breathing is almost normal now."

And the proud 30-year-old mother, Kathleen, according to her physician John C. Ullery, "is progressing perfectly normally."

Report Holdup Men Get $100

Man Is Knocked Unconscious In Club And Money Taken, Is Police Report

Robert Haas of Park avenue while alone at 6:10 p. m. Monday, was slugged and robbed of about $100 in the Ecclesian club, South Jefferson street, according to Police Chief Robert D. Hanna.

The victim was knocked unconscious and was discovered by a woman who had gone to the club to play bingo. The victim obtained only a meagre description of the slugging, according to the police chief.

According to Lieutenant G. S. Kennedy and Patrolmen Ray Richards and Clarence Welsh who made the preliminary investigation, Haas went to the club preparatory to the bingo game.

He went to the cellar to look at the furnace and when he returned upstairs he went to an office where there is a cash register where he had left two sacks with the money.

The telephone bell rang. He turned to answer it. As he turned someone struck him on the head. The blow dropped Haas. He told police that while falling he noticed the slugging wore black shoes and a pair of brown trousers. Haas went unconscious.

Later a Mrs. Dennison entered the building. When she arrived at the rear of the hall she heard a groan. She investigated and found Haas upon the floor. The woman telephone Haas' father and later the police were notified.

The lieutenant and patrolmen found a second story rear door opened. A stair-case leads to the

Perfect Weather For Heavy Voting In Eastern Area

Rain Predicted In Central States.
Snow Flurries and Showers
In Coast Region

(International News Service)
Typical bright fall weather, offering no extremes sufficiently great to affect the voting of an estimated 50,000,000 American citizens was predicted for the country today by the weather bureau.

"A fine autumn day" was the forecast for most of the East by Benjamin Parry, meteorologist in charge of the New York weather bureau. Snow fell yesterday in northern New England, but only snow flurries were predicted for today in that sector.

Pennsylvania and Ohio were promised good weather.

Some rain was predicted for Indiana and lower Michigan. International News Service was informed, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and upper Michigan have had widespread rains, but the weather probably will be clear today.

Scattered showers were forecast for Oklahoma, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, New Mexico, West Texas and North and South Dakota. Snow flurries and showers were indicated for the mountain regions and clear weather for the west coast except Oregon and western Washington.

Ambulance Corps Receives Tribute

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The American field service, volunteer ambulance corps serving with the British and French armed forces today received tribute from the governments of England and France. At a ceremony yesterday spokesmen from both governments praised "the gallant volunteers" who have driven ambulances from Africa to Burma and messages were received from President Roosevelt, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery.

Nutrition Class To Start November 14

Be Taught At Senior
High School

The Red Cross nutrition class previously announced will hold its initial meeting in the home economics department of the senior high school Tuesday, November 14, at 7:30 p. m. Miss Ruth Wallace, certified Red Cross instructor and faculty member of the home economics department, will teach the 20-hour course of 10 lessons. Students completing the course will receive the National American Red Cross nutrition certificate.

The course points out the relation of food and physical and mental well-being and attempts to encourage better food habits. Food preparation to preserve valuable minerals and vitamins is demonstrated. A study of community nutrition needs and available resources for supplying these needs is also considered.

Certificate holders of the standard nutrition course may next enroll in the canteen course through which members may give community service.

Free Food Tames Even Kangaroos

HERSHEY, Pa., Nov. 7.—Cpl. Robert S. Roy of Hershey wrote his neighbor, Frank Bybee, this tall tale from the "timbers of Australia." And he holds up his right hand and says it is true.

Ing recently by an affectionate kangaroo that was licking his face to get him to admire her peaceful young one lying contentedly on the comfortable blankets covering the sergeant's legs.

"They aren't often as tame as that, but they all roam the area begging for sweets or meat or anything the Yanks have to feed them with. Occasionally the dogs will get a streak of jealousy and chase them out for a few days, but there is something about free food that makes them come out of hiding."

Wood putty can be used to repair cracks in plaster. Best to use a putty knife that is reasonably flexible, so that the surface can be nicely smoothed down. Neat job will result if you use the plastic material very sparingly.

Of nearly 250,000 persons who have received X-ray lung examinations from the United States Public Health Service since the war began, a little more than one per cent were found to have significant pulmonary tuberculosis.

You can also use window cleaner on mirrors and picture glass.

LONG on Expenses? SHORT of Cash?

TODAY'S increased cost-of-living and the new Pay-As-You-Go Tax leave a lot less from each pay check for everyday needs. And when expenses like dental and medical care, house repairs or insurance premiums come along, they put a dent in the budget. In such cases, have you ever considered the advantages of a Personal loan? It provides $10 to $250 or more repayable in sensible monthly amounts.

Loans at Personal are arranged simply and privately on your furniture, auto or signature. Co-signers are seldom required. To get a loan, come in, phone or write.

HARD-PRESSED NAZIS TRYING MANY TRICKS

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The hard-pressed Germans are trying all of the tricks in the bag—and without great success—to hamper Allied air action over the Reich. Lieut. Oris B. Johnson, commander of a P-61 "Black Widow" night fighter squadron, said today at U. S. Ninth Airforce headquarters.

"They are sending up jet fighters at night in increasing numbers," he said, "and they are the fastest things I have ever seen."

But, he added significantly, "They don't seem to give us much trouble."

He also described a new Nazi anti-aircraft weapon which threw huge balls of phosphorus fire into the skies.

"They seem to drip molten drops from the edges and explode again and again as they make a slow journey back to the ground," he added. Another Nazi trick, Johnson said, was to explode dummy fighter planes in the air.

"That is a trick to make us think their planes are exploding in the air and are designed to confuse and upset us," Johnson said.

"This trick doesn't work either."

Fourth Report For War Fund Campaign Scheduled Friday

With an unofficial understanding that both the automobile division under L. J. Lewis, and the printing division under Robert Strickler have gone over the top, United War Fund and Community Chest leaders are hoping that the report meeting scheduled for Friday at 12:15 in the Castleton hotel, will be the last one.

If the job is not completed by then, and all quotas are not filled, then additional meetings will be necessary. Many quotas close to being filled at last Friday's meeting will probably be exceeded before the end of this week, the leaders believe.

Quotas for the automobile and printing divisions were $2,350 and $3,000, respectively. Other divisions not far below their quotas are the mercantile division under R. L. Meermans; construction, under H. M. Kirk, Jr.; banks, under Joel S. McKee; insurance, under James Beadel; attorneys, under Mrs. G. P. Johnson; doctors, under Mrs. W. J. Caldwell; school teachers and administration, under Miss Martha Mathews; homes, under Mrs. C. L. Shira; and utilities, under Paul J. Baldwin.

Middleburg Is Taken By Allies

LONDON, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Field Marshal Sir Bernard Montgomery's assault troops, using boats and amphibious vehicles, crossed the flooded fields in the center of Walcheren Island today to enter Middleburg, capital and communications hub of the island as Allied forces swiftly mopped up the last German resistance south of the Maas and on the island.

"There were fantastic scenes in the town as thousands of civilians thronged the streets to welcome their liberators, Reuter said. Fighting was impossible under such conditions and the Germans looked on in the role of spectators, according to Seaghan Maynes, Reuter correspondent with the 1st Canadian Army.

Fourth Son In Family Killed In War Action

TREMONTON, Utah, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Pfc. Rulon J. Borgstrom, fourth of Mr. and Mrs. Alben Borgstrom of Tremontion, was listed today by the war department as killed in action—the fourth son of the family to be lost in World War II.

Pfc. Boyd Borgstrom, fifth son and a veteran of 18 months of marine corps action in the south Pacific, recently was discharged by order of Gen. Alexander Vandegrift, marine corps commandant, in view of the sacrifice already made by the Borgstroms. At that time, three of the Borgstroms, Sgt. Rulon D. Rulon's twin brother, Pvt. LeRoy and Pfc. Clyde E., all had been killed in action. Rulon was listed then as missing.

BRIEF NEWS OVER STATE

(By International News Service)

ASPINWALL—A 34-year marriage ended in divorce when Mrs. Alice C. Swan grew weary of paying fines for meals not ready. Mrs. Swan said her husband, John, made her forfeit part of her household allowances unless he could eat on the hour.

EASTON—The Northampton County Juvenile Court dealt with 365 children during the seven-month period from February 1 through August. Only 93 were said to come from normal families and the majority of the crimes were committed by 13-17 year olds.

SWEDSBURG—Mrs. John Krizovensky and Mrs. Anthony J. Barbone had to travel half way around the world to meet Australian brides of Swedesburg soldiers, they reside two blocks apart with their "in-laws."

CREAMERY—Jack Bean kept his 17,000 chickens warm in a barn while his wife Alice and two children shivered in their ancient farm house, according to the story told the Montgomery county domestic relations court.

AMBLER—A daughter was born to Mrs. Charles Palmer 10 hours after she narrowly escaped death or serious injury in an automobile crash while enroute to the hospital.

CHESTER—A sneak attack was to have been expected of the Japanese, according to Col. M. Thomas Tehou, former secretary to Chiang Kai-Shek. Addressing a teachers' institute, he declared "China has suffered more than any other nation. It has been an inferno since 1937."

TYRONE—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snyder have five sons, two sons-in-law and 13 nephews in the armed forces, all serving overseas. Of the immediate family, six are in the army ground forces and one in the air corps.

PITTSBURGH—The collection of delinquent taxes decreased $558,964 this year as compared with last, according to City Treasurer James P. Kline.

WILKES-BARRE—A hospital will be opened at Georgetown, British Guinea, in December by three Nuns of the Sisters of Mercy Order. Sister Mary Margaret, of Hazelton, will be superintendent and her assistants will be Sisters Mary Anicetus, of Wilkes-Barre, and Mary Kateri, of Lancaster.

LANDSDOWNE—Lansdowne high school's victory corps members are given a morning off from classes each week but they don't play as records will show. The 580 students visit approximately 3500 homes each salvage day and have established a reputation as the "in-can champs" of Delaware county.

NEWS AND VIEWS AT CAPITAL

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 7.—The 1944 campaign turned out to be one of the most exciting in Pennsylvania since the bitter battle of 1938 when the late Alfred E. Smith was snuffed under by Herbert Hoover. Before the party chieftains began thumping campaign drums, most of the political rank and file thought this year would go down as one of the most pathetic elections in history. Various reasons were advanced and there was no general disagreement. However when candidates began stumping the nation as well as the state unlimbering oratorical guns as they went, the campaign began in earnest.

The Pennsylvania State Educational Association, representing a majority of the state's school teachers, has been lobbying in congress for approval of a bill appropriating $300,000,000 annually for education. The measure, sponsored June 2, 1943, by Congressman Ramspeck of Georgia, has not been reported by committee and a move was made to have the members discharged from further consideration of the bill. At last counting, 22 members of the 33 member Pennsylvania congressional delegation failed to sign the discharge petition. The Ramspeck proposal would be shared by states in proportion to the number of students. Thus, Pennsylvania with one of the largest school enrollments in the nation, would get a sizeable slice of the fund. Two thirds of the money would be used for adjusting teachers' salaries and reducing crowded classes, while the balance would be earmarked for "equalization of educational opportunity among states."

The geological survey section of the Department of Internal Affairs has taken a light job at the general assembly for slacking biennial appropriations each session. The survey, launched September 1, 1919, has cost geologists on the payroll on per diem basis in addition to the regular staff. The initial appropriation, survey officials pointed out, was $100,000 and the following biennium it was boosted to $200,000. In 1923, the sum was reduced to $150,000 and nine years later it had been scaled down to $15,000. The current appropriation, which expires Mar. 31-1945, was for $134,000. The value of mineral production in Pennsylvania ranges from half a million dollars to one and a quarter billion dollars a year, said Director George H. Ashley. "If it averages $670,000,000, the $67,000 available each year for survey work would be 1-100 of a cent for every dollar of production."

Black Out Of Joe Louis' Fold?

Reports To This Effect Follow Roxborough Jacob Powwow In Gotham

DIVISION OF SPOILS MAY BE RESPONSIBLE

By DAVIS J. WALSH
(International News Service Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—It seems, according to some of our very best off-the-cuff gabbles around here, that the old triumvirate of Joe Louis, Julian S. Black and John Roxborough may be about to become a twosome, with Black winding up out in the sidewalk sitting upon his dignity, so to say. Just what it is that the rest of this combination may have against Brother Black is something that only the deeply inscrutable mind of a boxing technician and numbers' man can hope to know.

But the understanding is that there was a meeting of some importance in Mike Jacobs' office yesterday. And that decisions may have been reached at that time, affecting the long-existing compact by which the world's heavyweight champion, his co-managers and Mike have cut up very succulent casaba. . . . Somewhere, in fact, between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000.

Too Many Cuts?
Maybe they think the cutting has been too widespread and profuse, that one less implement, at these surgical functions (to be resumed on a grand scale, they hope, after the war) would not and could not be deemed wholly amiss, if only in the interest of mathematics. And, in fact, that there's much to be said for the old proverb of the ancient Mohammedans, handed down to boxing (and those who hold its ideals so dear) long ago from a monastery high in the Himalayas, and which roughly reads as follows:

He cutteth fastest who cutteth alone.
There isn't any lonely cutting going on right now, but of course the idea hasn't been fully perfected yet—and you've got to agree, according to the rear-staircase whisper, that somebody's kind of working on it.

No Written Agreement
However, all you can hear in town from people in a position to know what's going on around here is that if Julian S. Black is eased out of the management of Joe Louis, it'll be Joe Louis who'll do it. Louis, they say, likes Roxborough, doesn't greatly fancy Black. But that isn't the way Louis talked when last we discussed with him, in Cincinnati, a rather insistent rumor that both managers were to go. Said he, on that occasion:

"I've always done all right with them. Why should I change now?"
The main trouble with this question was that the man doing the asking was the only one who could answer it. There might be a million reasons why he thought there should be a change, or he might want to make it for no reason at all.

We don't profess to know much, or anything, about this beautiful conundrum that has been going on for so many years among those who have handled all of Louis' business and a good deal of his money. But we do know this:

It has been said quite often that there has never been a contract among any of them, which is certainly a very thin thing for all except maybe Mr. Black.

For, according to what you hear around town, he's the only participant who might be going to need one.

Szymanski To Strengthen Line

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 7.—(INS)—Notre Dame's line, which was badly mauled in the course of Navy's 32 to 13 victory over the Irish last Saturday, was measurably strengthened today by the return of Frank Szymanski, who shared the regular center duties on Notre Dame's national championship team last year. The big center returned to school after receiving his medical discharge from the naval pre-flight school at St. Mary's, Calif. He is expected to start against Army Saturday at New York.

Ellwood Preps For Aliquippa

Undefeated, Untied Wolverines Await Invasion Of Steelers, Friday

(Special To The News)
ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 7.—Today was election day to the folks, but to the undefeated and untied Ellwood City High Wolverine football team it was just another day in which to prepare for the invasion on Friday night of the once-beaten, powerful Aliquippa High football team. The kickoff at Lincoln field at eight o'clock will find a jam-packed mass of humanity on hand for the proceedings.

This is the contest scheduled for October 20 and called off by a rainstorm. Ellwood will be ready for the Steelers, it was indicated by Coaches Howard Gills and "Ted" Wallace. Ellwood must win this one to put in a Class AA championship claim to the W. P. I. A. L. committee next week at their meeting of the football committee.

Must Stop Potoczny
Ellwood had a fairly easy time of it last Friday, trouncing the Beaver Falls Tigers 16 to 0 at Beaver Falls, while Aliquippa had to give out with everything in the book to beat a crippled New Castle team, 12 to 0. Ellwood, on paper, is one or two touchdowns superior to Aliquippa, despite the 27 to 0 defeat handed Beaver Falls at Aliquippa. The Steelers have a one-man backfield in Joe Potoczny, and if he is stopped the entire Aliquippa offense is thrown in confusion.

With Potoczny out of the backfield, Aliquippa is just another ball club, and beatable. Potoczny is strong and rangy and leads the interference when he is not carrying the ball, which isn't very often.

Rose Bowl Puts Out 'Feelers'

Alabama, Mississippi State, Georgia Tech, Tennessee And Tulane Approached For Coast Battle

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—(INS)—"Conditional" invitations have been sent to five southern universities in connection with plans to restore the annual New Year's day Rose Bowl football classic to its pre-war status as an east-west contest.

The schools which have received or soon will receive the "if and as bids" are Alabama, Georgia Tech, Tulane, Tennessee and Mississippi State.

Tulane-Vols Favored
At the moment Tulane and Tennessee are regarded as the top possibilities.

With California virtually out of the running, the bowl's western representative will be either USC or UCLA, with the choice to depend largely, if not entirely, on the outcome of their game Nov. 26. They played 13-13 tie earlier in the season, but since then USC has somewhat the better record.

Fair Or Foul

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The 1944 Notre Dame football team is on the worst spot ever occupied by one of the elevens that customarily come rolling out of South Bend to wreak football havoc up and down the land.

The Navy seemed to indicate that the Irish haven't got much this season after all, and that is the news the Army has been waiting to hear. The Army meets Notre Dame in New York's Yankee stadium next Saturday and assuming that human nature is about the same everywhere in this broad land of ours will go out to do two things, (1) tromple Notre Dame and (2) do it by a bigger score than that 32 to 13 run up by Navy.

Irish Had Long Reign
The two service elevens have felt the heel of the Irish for years. Navy hadn't whipped Notre Dame for eight years until Saturday and then promptly made it the most one-sided defeat in the series.

Army hasn't scored a touchdown against Notre Dame in five years, has scored only seven points in seven years and hasn't won a game from the Irish in 13 years. Notre Dame has won 22, lost 5 and tied 3 with the Army going back to the first game in 1913 which Notre Dame won by 35 to 13.

The game is so unpredictable that it is within the realm of possibility that Notre Dame will beat Army or hold the score close, but nothing like that is indicated at this time. Army is on the move, and patiently keyed up, buoyed, bolstered and eager for this chance to avenge all that has transpired in the past, with the result that it may be a rout.

This Army team hasn't met anything quite up to the standard of Notre Dame. But this Army team has made good and fair teams look silly in running up 360 points against 21 for the greatest scoring year in the history of the academy.

Irish Better Be Good
Notre Dame will have to be about two touchdowns better than the game played against Navy and the Army eleven will have to be off stride by about four touchdowns to make Saturday's encounter anywhere near close. That combination doesn't seem to be in the cards.

Army beat a fair Villanova team last Saturday by 83 to 0 as a follow up to a 27 to 7 win over the Duke team that earlier held Navy to 7 to 0 and last Saturday beat the rampaging Georgia Tech eleven.

Army beat Villanova this way. The first team scored three touchdowns in the first period, the second team scored six times in the second period. The Army's odds and

Bessemer-Freedom Game Is Saturday

(Special To The News)
BESSEMER, Nov. 7.—Bessemer high school football team resumed training Monday afternoon for the game this coming Saturday afternoon at Freedom. The kickoff is slated for 2:30 o'clock. Incidentally this is an Armistice Day game and will be played in conjunction with a Freedom celebration.

The game was originally set for Friday afternoon, but the Freedom officials, asked for the change, in order to play holiday game, Bessemer beaten in the last four games by Hopewell, Zellenople, Shenango and Girard, hope to snap out of it this week and dump Freedom.

Coach Joe Weresuk will have his full strength in the Freedom game, it was indicated, with a possibility that Wilbur Anderson may be back in uniform by Saturday.

Bessemer will close the season Thursday evening, November 16, at Mars. It was announced by School Principal Chandler B. McMullin,

May Alternate With Buddy Young

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 7.—(INS)—Coach Ray Elliot of the University of Illinois football squad, who personally scouted Michigan last Saturday, has taken Don Greenwood from his quarterback position and is alternating him with Buddy Young at halfback in preparation for the Wolverines' homecoming game Saturday. Elliot also promoted Lester Jeop to a regular left tackle job.

Union Football Season At End

Union Wins Two, Ties One And Loses Five, Eight Seniors End Careers

Union high school football team has ended the 1944 grid season and is looking ahead to the 1945 campaign. Coach Pat Patterson and School Principal Milton Patterson announced today.

Union won two games, tied one and lost five the past season. The highlight of course was stunning 12 to 7 upset of the favored Shenango High eleven that earned for the Unionites a tie for the Lawrence county class B football championship when Shenango in turn defeated the highly touted Bessemer team.

Eight Play Last Game
Eight seniors played their final game for Union last Saturday in the rain at Midland—Elmer Bigley, Ben Korab, Phil Clark, Connie Brown, Louis Krueger, Ken Hanna, Larry Rotunno and Bob Shaughnessy.

The graduation of the above boys will leave quite a hole to be filled next season when it comes time to formulate another Union High varsity. All of the seniors have played good football and will be missed.

Record For 1944:
Union 0, Ellwood City 44.
Union 12, Mars 30.
Union 31, Poland, O. 0.
Union 0, Evans City 0.
Union 0, Bessemer 20.
Union 0, Zellenople 7.
Union 12, Shenango 7.
Union 0, Midland 31.
Total—Union 55, opponents 139.

Warren Hopes To Even Series

New Castle Leads In Series To Date With Five Wins, To Four For Warren

LOCAL BACKFIELD IS STILL CRIPPLED

New Castle high school football team is faced with another powerful opponent this coming Friday night at Warren, O., when they must face the Warren Presidents of the Ohio stadium at 8 o'clock Ohio time or 9 o'clock New Castle time.

Warren has another imposing team this year, having won six games, lost one and tied one. New Castle has won two and lost seven, none having been tied. Last year Warren won 14 to 6 after a tough scrap and expect to do a lot better this year. By the way, to date this season, by the scores, New Castle has the edge, having won five, lost four and tied two. Warren can even it up with five and five by winning this season.

Defeated Massillon
The Warren-New Castle scores never have been very large except in 1940 when New Castle had a powerhouse team and rolled up a 33 to 0 count.

Cleveland East Tech is the only team to dump the Warrens this season, and by a 12 to 7 score. Warren tied Campbell Memorial's big eleven 13-13. Wins have been registered by Warren over such teams as Massillon 32 to 12, Niles 19 to 0, Youngstown Rayen 39 to 6, Hubbard 34 to 0, Canton McKinley 27 to 26, and Woodrow Wilson of Youngstown (no score available).

New Castle on the other hand has experienced its worst season in 20 some years and have won but two games. Butler and Perry High of Pittsburgh.

Backfield Still Crippled
New Castle High resumed training at the stadium yesterday for the Warren game and finds the backfield situation no better than it has been all season. John Benigas, halfback, who had been out since the Altoona game with a bad knee, was in the Aliquippa game and suffered a recurring injury. He may not even be in uniform for the Warren game.

There is little likelihood of Buzzar Panella, the halfback out since the Sharon game, getting in the Warren battle, and no chance for Jim Garberry, the converted end (who looked good at fullback until breaking his collarbone) getting in the final one.

The New Castle backfield for the Warren game will likely have Chuck Sallie at quarter, William Andrews and Sammy Flora at the halves and Billy Walls at fullback, although the colored line plunger is not feeling any too good with a bad leg suffered in the Altoona game.

Tickets for the Warren game went on sale today at 10 o'clock at the Sporting Goods store. Indications are that quite a large crowd will follow the New Castle team to the thriving Ohio industrial metropolis.

CAMPFIRE CORNER BY JACK WELCH

PHEASANT OPENER

Opening day of pheasant season has come and gone, and before sunset had put an end to slogging through swales, marching down rows of corn and prospecting game pockets and fence rows I was almost ready to agree with the game warden who had told me that "there isn't a pheasant within 25 miles of here this year."

Birds "Know" Law
The game protector wasn't 100 per cent correct, though, because I did bag two roosters, flushed two more at a distance, and scared up a couple of protected hens. The Missus, who was with me on that first bird hunt of the season, managed to down one gorgeous wilder with her 20 gauge. But we worked for "no." This in spite of my having flushed seven birds in the area a couple of days previously. I've always suspected the wily pheasant knows his game laws and now I'm pretty well convinced of it. The daily limit here is three roosters per hunter and the possession limit is six.

Affords Easy Target
Pheasant hunting is often at its best early in the morning, but nary a bird did we see before noon.

Shortly after 12 o'clock, as I plodded toward the end of a track between two rows of corn, I glimpsed a movement on the ground some 35 yards ahead of me.

It's a thrill that only the upland bird hunter can experience—the tense second before your game bursts into action and you have to swing quick and true to stop it. In this case the ringneck sprang up directly between the corn rows, affording a rather easy target, though the maize stalks were so tall as to interfere with my vision.

Uses No. 6 Shot
He proved to be a young fellow, not too heavy but one that I knew would make a tasty and tender dish. The pellets of No. 6 shot that were his undoing struck him squarely in the back, so his legs and breast weren't much damaged. My second bird, an old timer that should have known better than to linger in the vicinity when warned by the crackling of details and long grass at the edge of the swale where he had taken refuge, I bagged with a long-range, more or less lucky shot as he started a swing to the right.

Indian Summer Day
He fell into a tangle of marsh grass and willows. Fortunately, he was killed outright or, Cap, the Labrador pup, and I might have had some trouble locating him. To sum up, a good time was had by all, including the pup. It was a perfect Indian summer day.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Bernie Sniscak, freshman left halfback, today rejoined the Pitt football squad in time to bolster their hopes for a good showing against Ohio State in Columbus Saturday.

Japs Annihilate Whole Villages In East Indies

COLOMBO, Ceylon, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The Japanese, using Lidice technique, have virtually annihilated whole villages in the Dutch East Indies, the Netherlands forces headquarters in the Far East announced today.

They soaked one Sumatran village with kerosene and then machinegunned those who tried to escape from the burning buildings, the statement said, adding that in Java a village was set on fire with incendiary bombs before the fleeing villagers were machine-gunned.

An official document under the title "Japanese atrocities in the occupied Netherlands Indies" also gives details of savage mistreatment of prisoners of war and the civilian population.

The brutality practiced by the enemy in his administration of these islands is so appalling that this headquarters is making public a few instances, by no means the severest, of the document said.

The razing of one Sumatran village was provoked when a Medan newspaper criticized the Japanese. The printer of the article was executed.

Another atrocity followed the refusal of Javanese villagers to give up their third rice crop after the first two had been seized.

Bond Rallies At Spring Company Plant Monday

Jumping the gun by a couple of weeks, the employees of the Standard Steel Spring company started their own sixth war loan campaign Monday, November 6, with two rallies in the plant auditorium, one at 10:30 a.m. and one at 3:15 p.m. The formal opening of the campaign starts November 20, but the Spring company men and women have the same idea of bond campaigns as they do in making bombs, get the job done early and quickly. Both meetings were what is known in theatrical parlance as "shows." Men left the bomb lines and furnaces, girls left the offices and all of them gathered in the auditorium, two groups of home front soldiers who have been doing a grand job of providing war materials and also of providing the stuff that boys war materials. And as one sat upon the platform and looked the crowds over the idea seemed to permeate the air that here was a crowd that was going to the job and quickly.

Wounded Vets
Two wounded veterans from DeShon annex in Cunningham park featured the rallies, Corporal Warren Pawling and Private Rolf Heilmann, both wounded in Italy and convalescing at the annex now. Both spoke at the rallies but briefly. Men like these two don't have to say much, just the fact they are present is a grim reminder of the job to do.

Earl M. Brookover presided at the rallies. Opening them the crowds sang "America" directed by Bill Richards with Miss Olive Webb at the piano. Speakers included Joseph Booth, an official of the plant local union; Jack Grillo, head of the CIO here; P. C. McClain, plant superintendent; and Rev. V. V. Stanekowski, pastor of St. Philip and James church, who was the principal speaker.

Keep Up the Work
The theme of Rev. Stanekowski's talks was "Keep up the good work." He lauded the employees for the fine response to previous campaigns of all kinds, reminded them the job overseas was far from over and expressed confidence that the sixth war loan would be put over in the usual fine style.

Superintendent McClain said the quota for the plant was set at $50,000 and in his quiet way said the job would be done. In this decision he was joined by the men and women present.

Following the programs, some motion pictures of war activities were shown by Clarence M. England of the Pennsylvania Power company.

The two rallies were good omens of the outcome of the sixth war loan campaign in Lawrence county. Men and women of the Standard Steel Spring company know the necessity of raising money for war purposes; they have been making the bonds that have been tearing fortress Europe apart. They not only make the bombs, they are prepared to do their bit in paying the bill and the rallies Monday were ample proof of this frame of mind.

Former Pastor's Soldier Son Safe

Recently a report reached this city that a son of Rev. Samuel Whilding, of Jackson, Ohio, serving in France, was killed in action.

Henry T. Jones, of Waldo street, has received word from Rev. Whilding stating that the report is untrue. Another pastor's son of Jackson was killed in action, and Rev. Whilding believes that the Jackson pastors names were mentioned in error.

Rev. Whilding, who was a former pastor of the First Congregational church here, recently received word from his son, stating that he was well.

Program Planned For All-Association Dinner At Cathedral Thursday Evening

Y. W. C. A. World Fellowship dinner will be celebrated Thursday evening at 6 o'clock in the Scottish Rite Cathedral dining room. This is an annual all-association dinner which this year will be celebrated according to birth month tables with Y. W. C. A. board and committee chairmen, club presidents and G. R. advisers as hostesses.

The program, which is in charge of the World Fellowship committee, Mrs. J. Glenn Berry chairman and Mrs. Jesse Korn co-chairman and 15 representatives of Y. W. C. A. club groups, will begin with group singing led by Miss Esther Gibbons and Mrs. Emma Gibbons Richards.

A worship service for World Fellowship Week in Y. W. C. A.'s and Y. W. C. A.'s all over the world will follow.

An original play by the Shenango Girl Reserve club, Miss Frances Booser adviser and Lois McFarland president, written by one of their members, Grace McCandless, will conclude the program. The play entitled "Post-War World" takes place in a court room in which barbarism is the plaintiff and Brotherhood the defendant.

All Y. W. C. A. members and club groups are urged to register by calling the Y. W. C. A. 6210 by Tuesday evening.

Lt. E. Splawinski Wins Oak Cluster

First Lieut. Edward W. Splawinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Splawinski, 1013 Hanna street, has been awarded the oak leaf cluster to his previously won air medal because of his heroic performance of duty during bomber combat operations over Germany and German-occupied Europe.

Pilot of a B-17 Flying Fortress based in England, Lt. Splawinski is a member of a pioneer heavy bombardment group, which is the combat home of such famous fliers as the "Memphis Belle" and "General Ike." He has been in the air force since March, 1939. His brother John is in the navy.

Pfc. Rocco Mancino Gets Purple Heart

Mrs. Helen Mancino, 229 South Cochran avenue, received the medal of the Purple Heart awarded to her husband, Pfc. Rocco Mancino of the U. S. infantry in France.

Pfc. Mancino was wounded twice, the first time while in combat in France sometime in July. Upon recovery he again resumed combat duty and received his second wound on August 24 in France.

He is now convalescing in a hospital somewhere in England.

Pfc. Mancino has been in army service for 14 months and overseas for seven months.

He is the son of Mrs. Concetta Masco, Youngstown, O.

OCD NOTES

Frank T. Sargent, co-ordinator of the OCD and recently named assistant to Disaster Committee Chairman D. O. Davies, today requested all members of the OCD who intend to participate in the Armistice evening parade to wear their arm band. He will announce soon the station to which all members are to report for their position in the line of march.

He also announced that some branches of the OCD are to be reorganized, according to an announcement from Harrisburg. Air Raid wardens are to get an addition to their title which will include the word "Emergency." Those who qualify for the work will receive new cards and means of identification.

Soldier Brothers Meet On Oahu Island

Robert And Jacob Ippolito Meet In Pacific; Four Brothers In Service

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ippolito of Wampum have received word that their two sons, Sgt. Robert Ippolito and S. 2-c Jacob Ippolito, Jr., recently met on the island of Oahu, Hawaiian islands.

One day, Bob was sweeping the barracks, singing the while, when he heard some one say "That's awful bum singing!" Bob recognized the voice as that of his brother Jacob, and of course there was a happy reunion. They had not seen each other for a year.

Sgt. Ippolito has been in the service almost two years and overseas for six months. S. 2-c Ippolito joined the service a year ago and has been in service all over the Pacific for nine months.

There are two more brothers in the service, Cpl. Harrison Ippolito at headquarters eighth air force in England for 27 months, and Cpl. Francis Ippolito, army air corps radio operator, stationed at McDill Field, Fla., in service for two years.

Home Planners May Have Special Class

Members of the New Castle Planners club may be taking courses in home planning this winter. If a schedule of classes worked out by the First Federal Savings and Loan is carried out, Norman Clark, executive vice president of First Federal announced today.

The classes, which are offered by Pennsylvania State College, will begin about January 10, continue until about March 31. Subjects taken up at various meetings will include developing a plan, location, costs, actual building, legal problems, and financing.

Lt. A. J. Robinson Awarded Air Medal

Second Lieut. Allan J. Robinson, 22-c pilot on an eighth air force B-17 Flying Fortress, has received the air medal for outstanding performance of duty while taking part in heavy bombardment missions against Germany.

Lt. Robinson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, 331 Park avenue, while his wife, Mrs. Mary M. Robinson, lives at RD 5.

Marine Corps Is 169 Years Old

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The United States Marine Corps, which celebrates its 169th anniversary this week, has recruited 15,290 men in the western Pennsylvania area since Pearl Harbor. It was disclosed today.

Among the men who particularly distinguished themselves are congressional medal of honor winners, Lt. Mitchell Paige of Mifflin township and Lt. Francis J. Tachovsky, Aliquippa steel worker, whose bravery on Tarawa atoll won him the silver star.

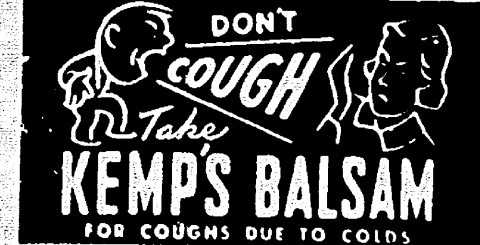

Philippines To Pass Out Medals

LEYTE, Philippines, Nov. 7.—(INS)—Every soldier of General Douglas MacArthur's invasion force will receive the Philippine Campaign of Liberation after 30 days of service. It was announced today by Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, Philippine minister of information.

A second ribbon—the Philippine Defense Ribbon—will go to those who participated in the Corregidor and Batuan campaigns.

The Campaign of Liberation Ribbon will have two small vertical blue and white stripes against a background of red. The Defense Ribbon will be red with narrow white vertical stripes at each end with three stars arranged vertically in the center, representing Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao, the three island groups within the Philippines.
